Vag Fined—William Callahan was brought before the recorder on the charge of vagrancy and fined $10.

Will Build—Mrs. S. E. Painter is planning to build a modern bungalow soon on the lots she purchased recently just south of the G. W. Kaufman residence.

Repairing the Engine—Engineer Claude Stutsman of the Marshfield Fire Department, has the little engine out today giving it a overhauling and doing repair work on it.

Investigating Estate—Mrs. Flora McGowan, of Eureka, has arrived in the city to look into matters regarding the estate of her late father, Joseph Palmer, who died two years ago.

Still Laying Concrete—Contractor Hugh McLain will be another week finishing the laying of the concrete foundation on Anderson avenue. The cedar blocks for the pavement are being delivered but will not be laid until the concrete has thoroughly set.

P. Hennessey Injured—Pat Hennessey has been laid up as the result of a painful accident. He ran a nail in his foot while at the new coal mine of which he is the manager. His foot was in bad shape but Mr. Hennessey will probably soon be able to get about on crutches.

Having Great Time—A. R. McComb returned today from the Elks' convention at Portland and reports that the local members are having a great time there. He says that a fine appearance was made in the parade by the Marshfield lodge. All were well and happy when he left.

Breaks Machine—G. A. Brown met with a mishap on the County road between here and Coquille yesterday. His machine left the road and would have gone over an embankment had it not been prevented by a stump at the roadside. As it was, however, no damage was done.

Hold Demorest Contest—The Demorest Silver Medal contest was held last night in Sumner and was won by Mrs. E. E. Kelly. The contest was largely attended and a pleasant social and banquet were also enjoyed. The next event will be the Gold Medal Contest for those who have won silver medals.

Four Are Fined—John Lynch, George Pierson, Mike Link and Dan Relly were all before Recorder Butler this morning on the charge of drunkenness and were fined $5 each. Sentence was suspended for 30 days. The four had been carrying their Fourth of July celebration a little too far and there was some fear that it might be prolonged until Christmas, so the authorities took a hand.

Considers Boulevard Plan—C. R. Smith has written Mayor E. E. Straw that he will consider the plan of a boulevard from Marshfield to the beach through the Southern Oregon Co. holdings. The letter was in response to a request from the Mayor that right of way be granted through the Southern Oregon lands. Mr. Smith promises to take the matter up with Herbert Armstrong, the company's local representative.

Blames the Ferryman—Fred Neime and Ray Campbell returned yesterday from Bandon with Neime's car which was laid up over there last week on account of a broken transmission case. Neime says the damage was done through the negligence of the ferryman and Neime says he will probably bring suit against the county for damages. The coast road between here and Bandon is reported to be in very good shape.

Baby Girl Born—Friends in Marshfield have been apprised of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Amstein of Pacific Grove, Cal., Sunday, July 7. This will be interesting news to many people on the Bay. Mr. Amstein having been engaged in the laundry business here for several years but for the past few years has been located near Portland until about two years ago when he moved to California, where he is still engaged in the same line of work. Their many friends join in congratulating them on their good fortune.

BORN.

BROWN—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Brown at their home in Chicago Friday, July twelve, at 9 a. m., a girl. Mother and child doing nicely.

The above information came this afternoon in a telegram to Grandpa I. S. Kaufman. It will be pleasant and welcome news to the many Marshfield friends who will remember Mrs. Brown as Miss Elizabeth Kaufman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kaufman and formerly domestic science teacher in the Marshfield schools. Friends will hasten to extend congratulations to the happy parents and Grandpa will doubtless insist on being included. He wears a smile that could not be enlarged or made more glorious by the announcement that four transcontinental railroads were being built to Coos Bay.

McKENNA—To Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McKenna of Bandon, at Mercy hospital, Thursday, July 11, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well.

ECKLES—To Mr. and Mrs. Warren Eckles at their home on Coos River, Friday, July 12, 1912, a boy. Mother and child are doing well and the father is happy.
