DANGER!
(A recent convention of scientists in Milwaukee has declared that kissing is a dangerous and unhygienic practice.—News Item.)

They're putting the ban on our kisses.
They're putting the bee on our thrills;
For how can a Miss become Mrs.
If kissing is classed with the ill?
What love-making game shall we fashion
To help out the cause of romance?
Shall we prove the great strength of our passion
By rubbing of noses, perchance?

They're putting the ban on our kisses
In most unmistakable terms;
They say that all labial kisses
Are full of the wickedest germs;
That she who is tender and clinging,
With kisses that rob you of breath,
Is really a Lovelace stinging
And likely to kiss you to death!
They're putting the ban on our kisses;
But spite of whatever they claim
The lips of the young men and misses
Will meet, now and then, just the same.
And if there be death in the practice,
As all of the wiseacres cry,
It won't matter much—for the fact
Is, it would be a sweet way to die!

DEMOREST CONTEST

Last Thursday evening at Sumner was held the last Silver Medal Demorest contest before the gold one. Mrs. E. Kelly won the medal. There must be six contestants and since one of the girls failed to appear, Mrs. Kelly was forced to supply, winning the medal with the reading, "The Story of Patsy."

Following is the program:
"The Liquor Traffic".... May Myron
"Why Women Want the Ballot".... Bruce Kellow
"Patriotism".... Cecil Roberson
"How Long? Oh, How Long?".... Bessie Flanagan
"Baptized in Blood".... Arthur Kohlsatd
"The Story of Patsy".... Mrs. E. Kelly

The meeting was well attended, most of the Sumner people being present. Immediately following the contestants were tendered a banquet by the W. C. T. U. of Sumner.

A good time was enjoyed by everyone present and the Marshfield people didn't start for home until after twelve o'clock.

THE WOMAN WORTH WHILE.
We read of women grown famous,
A credit to nation or state;
But the woman worth while
Is the one that will smile
When she knows she is dressed
out of date.

PLEASANT PICNIC PARTY

A jolly party of North Bend people enjoyed a most pleasant day's outing at The Hatchery on Coos River last Wednesday. With light hearts and heavy baskets they boarded the Tloga early Wednesday morning and made an entire day of it. The usual picnic diversions made the hours pass pleasantly and all too quickly. The luncheon was a most delightful one and thoroughly enjoyed by all the happy participants.

Among those present were Mrs. C. H. Brouillard, Miss Della Brouillard, Mrs. W. E. Best and little daughter.

REMINISCENCE PARTY

Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Stump entertained Tuesday evening with a theatre and reminiscence party in honor of her guests Mrs. Richard Wrenn of San Francisco and Mrs. Henry Luse of Fresno, Cal. The ladies met at Mrs. Stump's new residence and from there proceeded to the theatre. After the theatre they returned and were served with a delicious midnight supper which was enlivened by stories and reminiscences of the guests who are old friends and enjoyed the reunion very much. Deviations were huckleberry and pink dahlias, gladioli and roses and the supper tables carried out the same color effect. Mrs. Stump's guests were Mrs. Jesse A. Luse, Mrs.

E. Mingus, Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, Mrs. Kramer Batsford, Mrs. Eric Wold, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. John S. Coke, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Miss Evelyn Anderson and her honor guests, Mrs. Wrenn and Mrs. Luse.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI

At a meeting of the Marshfield Four-Year High School Alumni Association last Wednesday evening, the following officers for the coming year were elected.

President—Chauncey Clarke.
Vice-President—Joe Bennett.
Sec.-Treasurer—Alice Curtis.

Different matters of business were taken up and discussed. It was decided that the Alumni will give a moonlight ride to Jordan's Cove Saturday, July 29. Particulars for this ride will be determined at a later meeting which will be held Thursday July 18 at the home of Miss May Preuss.

The meeting last Wednesday evening was held at the home of Miss Marjorie Cowan in South Marshfield and those in attendance were Misses Bessie Coke, Nora Tower, Marjorie Cowan, May Preuss, Alpha Mauzey and Alice Curtis, and Messrs. Joe Bennett, Eric Bolt, John Ferguson, Ernest Harrington and Chauncey Clarke. Those, who for different reasons, were not able to attend were Mrs. H. Hartman of Portland, formerly Miss Mary Hansen, Misses Mary Price, Nellie Tribbey, Signa Holm and Belva Flanagan, and Messrs. Milton Carlson and Bartlett Flanagan. After a pleasant hour of conversation, during which many interesting incidents of school life were recalled, the meeting was adjourned.

WEDDINGS

On next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. Chapman will occur an event of interest to the many friends of Misses Della and Ada Chapman, two popular Coos Bay girls. Reverend Rutledge will perform the ceremony that will unite Harry J. Mohr of Portland to Miss Della Chapman and Lee Fuller of Wenatchee, Washington, to Miss Ada Chapman. The brides will be gowned in white satin with heavy lace trimmings and will wear veils. They will carry bouquets of white roses. The wedding will be an evening affair with no attendants and will take place at eight o'clock. After the ceremony an evening collation will be served. Only relatives and immediately friends will be present. The two young couples will spend short honeymoons on Coos Bay before leaving for their homes in Portland and Wenatchee.

Marshfield friends have received copies of New Orleans papers containing an extended account of the marriage of Miss Emma Morse and Mr. S. R. Pickett. Miss Morse, who is a niece of Mrs. J. T. McCormac, visited in Marshfield and is pleasantly remembered by many friends who will extend congratulations and good wishes. Concerning the marriage the New Orleans States says:

"The Pharr Chapel Methodist church, profusely decorated and brilliantly lighted, was the scene Wednesday night of the uniting in marriage of the representatives of two prominent Louisiana families, the contracting parties being Mr. S. R. Pickett and Miss Emma Morse. The Rev. Paradis of the New Iberia Presbyterian church, officiated. The attendants and bridal party were: Miss Carrie Morse Pharr and Mr. Osma Bordelon, nephew of the groom; Miss Emma Amelia Pharr and Mr. Alex Morse, brother of the bride; Miss Regina Morse, cousin of the bride, and Mr. John M. Hamilton, Miss Lois Lowrance and Mr. Frank Vaughan. The maid of honor was Miss Elizabeth S. Daspt of Houma, La.

"The maids were attired in white lingerie over pink messaline, and carried pink roses. The maid of honor wore white silk marquisette over white satin and carried white roses. Mr. Pickett had as best man his brother, William Pickett of Marshall, Texas. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Capt. Thomas L. Morse.

"After the ceremony, the families and immediate friends were guests at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Many handsome presents were received by the couple. The couple left Thursday morning on the Southern Pacific for an extended trip in the East, and will be at home to their friends in Alexandria, La., after August 1."
