"TWO-BITS" IS STOLEN Horse of That Name with Three Others Attracts Thief. The Roseburg Review says: 'Local officers are on the lookout for a four-horse team which started for this city from Lane county a few days ago and which is reported to include a stolen horse named "Two-Bits" which once ran in the races at the fair grounds east of Roseburg. W. C. Gingham, driver of the outfit, was arrested at Drain two days after the theft, but gave his captors the slip by a ruse. He asked the officer for permission to go into a hotel to get an overcoat and this being granted he slipped out of a rear door of the hostelry unobserved, regained his team and drove away. The stolen horse belonged to Ed Speight, a former business man of Sutherlin, and figured in a replevin case in the Juntice Court here several months ago.

THE THEATRE.

The Zinn Musical Comedy company will present the "Sultan of Morocco" the Masonic Opera at House. It will be a complete change from their opening bill, "Teezy Weezy," there being more plot and story to the play, thus bringing out the full strength of the company. Mr. George Best, the leading man, who only had a small part in the last show, will have the leading role, the "Sutlan of Morocco," and will fit the best institute ever held in this local-part well having played in the same part before in San Francisco and Eureka. This is one of the Mr. Zinn's best plays and as the company will play this big show one night only everybody that can get away should turn out tonight for it is so seldom Marshfield people can such shows. On tomorrow night and gagement they will present another of their big productions. See them
