Last Friday evening one of the best times of the season was enjoyed by the B. Y. P. U. at a bon-fire party Bunker Hill at the home of Mrs. Dalsy Anderson.

After an hour of lively conversa tion and music in the house the party gathered around the bon-fire and made merry with chat and sports which generally accompany such occasions.

The soft light of the Japanese lanterns glowing through the green trees made a very pretty background for the happy picture. The heaving ladened table which stood near the bon-fire gave a reality to the picture which otherwise would have been incomplete. The young people departed for home at mid-night, thanking their host and hostess for a most delight

There were about one hundred couples present, the three towns-North Bend, Empire and Marshfier1 being well represented.

Many exquisite gowns were worn, adding color and grace to the fairyland scene.

The floor was in an unusually good condition and the stand march, led by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson, was a most pleasing feature of the evening.

Although U. M. O. signifies "Until Midnight Only," the young people stretched it a point and prolonged the dance until 1 o'clock a. m.
