Improve Residence.—Al Smith is preparing to have some extensive improvements made on his Coos River residence by adding two rooms and a porch. Oumette and Fairchilds left this morning for his place to do the work.

Successful Dance.—The first dance given by the newly organized fraternal society, The Sons of Norway, at Finnish hall last Saturday evening was a financial and social success. There was a large attendance and with good music and general fraternal feeling everyone had a most delightful time.

Is Improved.—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nelson are expected here shortly from California where they have been for the benefit of Mrs. Nelson's health. Mrs. Nelson underwent an operation while there and is now very much improved. They intend to make their home on Coos Bay once more after an absence of about a year.

W. S. Chandler III.—The launch Cooston left this morning for the summer home of W. S. Chandler, whose illness was announced in Saturday's Times, and will bring him to Marshfield where he will be closer to medical attention. Dr. Dix and Tom Coke made the trip up to accompany Mr. Chandler home.

Tries to Skip Out.—Bill Callahan was arrested Saturday night by Marshal Carter for trying to skip out without paying a fine. Callahan was arrested and charged with vagrancy a week ago. Recorder Butler fined him ten dollars and gave him several hours in which to raise the cash but Callahan skipped out. He will now have to take five days in the city jail.

R. R. Montgomery Coming.—Miss Cora May Montgomery, who intended to leave for her home in Decatur, Ill., tomorrow, has decided to stay over, having received word from her father, R. R. Montgomery, that he and Mrs. Montgomery will be here on the first boat next week to visit with D. Y. Stafford, R. J. Montgomery, C. K. Perry and families for several weeks. He and Mrs. Montgomery will be welcomed by many friends on Coos Bay.

Gets Picture of Fawn.—G. D. Gardiner, who is taking photographs in different parts of the country to be used for advertising purposes, recently snapped some good pictures of a spotted fawn. The pictures were taken near the head of Haines Inlet and in one of them the camera was within ten feet of the fawn. Mr. Gardiner has been in the county for about two and one half months. He expects to go into the Ten Mile section soon.
