

TALKS TODAY OF LOGGING

PROMINENT MEN TO ADDRESS NORTHWEST CONGRESS AT TACOMA ON ELECTRICAL METHOD—MUCH INTEREST AROUSED.

Tacoma will be host to over 150 loggers and timbermen of the North Pacific Coast during the annual Pacific Logging Congress today and Friday. One of the important subjects to be discussed at the congress will be the use of electricity in logging camps. J. D. Meehan, of the C. A. Smith Lumber & Manufacturing company was to have been one of the speakers to advocate the use of electrical equipment in logging camps.

Owing to the fact that the Smith Powers company has not electrified its camps yet, and probably will not before this winter or next spring, Mr. Meehan felt that he could only touch on the theories and consequently decided not to accept the invitation to speak there. Besides the Smith-Powers company, a Washington logging company is using electricity in a limited way and one of the Washington men interested will speak on it. Concerning the matter, a Portland paper says:

"These are the only two prominent installations of electrical equipment in logging camps yet made, and the experience of the operators is of world-wide interest. Electric donkeys do not emit sparks and thus become a powerful factor in logging operations during the dry part of the year, which now often compels the closing of the camps. It is also believed that with water power near and always an abundance of waste wood for fuel, electricity may be generated in a stationary plant in a logging center, at a low cost, and probably prove a marked economy in this respect. Many claims are made for the new electric logging donkey, and the statements of the men already using them, and the logging engineers who have given the subject careful thought, will prove a strong card at the Tacoma congress.

It is announced that the Bltmore, N. C., class of forestry, under the tutorage of Professor Schenck, will attend the congress. Following the meeting the class will go to Coos Bay and spend several weeks studying the forests in that vicinity at the invitation of the C. A. Smith Lumber & Manufacturing Company.

Arno Meehan has been at Minneapolis taking a final look at the big mill of the C. A. Smith company there which will be soon dismantled and shipped to Lake Tahoe, Calif., where it will be rebuilt. Mr. Smith figured on bringing the mill to Coos Bay and rebuilding it here but found that the machinery and equipment which had been adapted to handling the small logs in Minnesota would not be suitable for handling the big fire and spruce logs of this section. Besides he has big holdings near Lake Tahoe which can be cut up.

A lumber publication says: "Smith Powers Logging company, Marshfield, has purchased three 70-ton Mikado type locomotives, having four pair of drivers, all front and back trucks from Baldwin Locomotive Works, for use in their logging operations. The company has also placed an order for fifty sets of connected trucks with the Seattle Car Foundry company, Seattle."

BRIEFS OF RANDON

News of City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Recorder.

William Candlin and wife, of Coquille, were in Randon yesterday and today, and Mr. Candlin was calling on his customers. They were accompanied by Mrs. Candlin's brother, William Deo, of St. Louis, who is visiting them. Mr. Deo says the weather is good and warm back in St. Louis.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Houston and Miss Nora Solva went to Marshfield and returned Sunday in the doctor's automobile. They went over and back by the way of the Seven Devils.

Harry Mullin, who was formerly with Shields & Kennedy in the blacksmith shop, but for the past month or two, has been at Coos Bay, returned Sunday and is again at his old stand with Shields & Kennedy.

North Bend News

Mrs. W. D. Simpson was a Marshfield shopper today.

John Conlogue was a business caller in North Bend yesterday.

Miss Alice Watters has returned from a visit in Portland and other northern points.

Miss Ellen Anderson who has been visiting friends on North Inlet returned home today.

Chas. Thom of North Bend has received a new auto truck to be used in his brewery business.

James Gaffney is doing the plumbing on the Speedwell, the boat that was launched last Saturday night.

Harry Thompkins, who came home from Conlogue's camp with his ribs broken, is up and walking around but is not able to work yet.

Peter Culby has just got out of the hospital, where he has been for four weeks with a broken jaw. He went back to the Smith-Powers camp.

Joe Hodson, one of the Pacific Grocery company firm, is laid up with a very sore hand. He sustained the injury while handling a barrel of oil.

Chas. Kaiser is doing some repair work on his building on Mead street. The middle flat that was used for a paint shop is being converted into a four room dwelling.

Dr. and Mrs. Ira B. Bartle returned home on the Breakwater today after a three weeks' motor trip through the northwest. They intended to auto back but the recent rains made the roads almost impassable.

The Speedwell, which was recently launched at the Kruse & Banks ship yards at Porter, will be ready to go to San Francisco in about ten days or two weeks after the launching. It is not yet decided what tug or vessel will take her in tow.

Denny Hull, the popular pitcher of the North Bend ball team, and Dan Kinney, who is well known on the Bay, will open a moving picture theater at North Bend on August 1. Big plans are being made for the opening night and the prospects are bright for a most successful run. Mr. Hull will probably manage the business. The house will run licensed pictures.

Rachel Irene Freeland, the fifteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland, died last night at Mercy hospital of convulsions. She was brought to the hospital yesterday morning suffering from what appeared to be stomach trouble and is believed to have been poisoned by a change of milk or in some manner or other. The funeral will be held from Wilson's Chapel in Marshfield Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. D. A. MacLeod of North Bend will officiate.

AMONG THE SICK.

Miss Alpha Mauzey continues to rapidly recuperate from her recent operation for appendicitis at Mercy hospital and it is now believed that she will be able to return home next Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Stout, of Ferndak, who has been confined at Mercy hospital as a result of injuries sustained in a recent fall will be able to return to her home in a day or two.

Mrs. Chas. Conklin who underwent a slight operation at Mercy hospital Tuesday is reported doing nicely.

"Grandpa" Pratt and Miss Della Pratt visited Miss Alpha Mauzey and other friends at Mercy hospital Tuesday.

John Pittman, a sawyer at the Smith mill, is able to be up and around after a severe attack of influenza.

LOCAL OVERFLOW

BORN.

HAMPTON—To Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hampton at their home at Smith-Powers Camp No. 5 on Isthmus Inlet, Wednesday evening, July 24, a daughter. She is their first child.

Z. T. THOMAS, of Allegany, is a Marshfield visitor today.

Spiritualist Here.—Prof. Johnson, a spiritualist medium, arrived today on the Breakwater and will hold a meeting tonight. He is well known all over the country and was invited in here by Coos Bay spiritualists who knew or had heard of his work. J. A. O'Kelly today offered to bet some local business men that Prof. Johnson could get results from any of their dead relatives and offered to take the big end of a $100 to $500 wager. Many Coos Bayites are interested in the coming meetings and a large number will probably be in attendance.

COOS RIVER OUTINGS

Hugo Quist and wife spent Sunday at the Geo. F. Murch summer home. Miss Laura Kruse of North Bend who has been the guest of Miss Nellie Tower left for home yesterday.

Miss Madge Barry has gone to Marshfield to visit Miss Grace Williams for a few days.

F. M. Friedberg and wife had Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Leeffe as over Sunday guests.

Mrs. C. W. Tower has Miss Lucy Horton and Cornell Lagerstrom as week end guests.

Mrs. Morton Tower has as guests Mrs. Christine Kruse and daughter, Miss Mary, and Miss Ruth Horton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nicholson of Marshfield are occupying Mirac Cove, the summer cottage of Dr. and Mrs. Bartle.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell had Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hague and Rosemary Richardson as guests Sunday.

Miss Eugenia Schilling who has been the guest of Miss Florence Aiken returned to Marshfield Saturday night but will return later.

At Deer Lodge, Dr. and Mrs. McCormac entertained Mrs. E. Mingson from Friday until Monday and Miss Violet Henderson and John Motley from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower, Miss Nora Tower and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Medlowney constituted an outing party from Marshfield to South Coos River yesterday.

A. P. Owens had as over Sunday guests Mrs. J. H. Milner and son Jay, Miss Edna Barnum and Mrs. Nellie Owen. Mrs. W. E. Dungan has left for town and Mrs. Owen will remain in camp for several days.

Mrs. Arthur McKeown entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Tom Bennett, Roderick O'Connor, Mr. Suplee and daughter of Myrtle Point and Mr. Cary came up in the "Kid" for the day.

Mrs. Morton Tower entertained in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Gynedde Tower, on Saturday evening with a dancing party. Those present were Miss Gynedde Tower, Miss Lucy Horton, Ruth Horton, Mary Kruse, Marian Seaman, Nellie Tower, Florence Aiken, Katherine Barry, Cornell Lagerstrom, Jim Aiken, Jack Barry, Wesley Seaman, George Smith, George Murch, John Motley, Fred McCormac, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Quist, Mr. and Mrs. George Murch, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barry, Mrs. Christine Kruse, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Tower and Mrs. Morton Tower. Lunch was served at midnight.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Capt. Jack Ellerby, who has been running one of the O'Kelly launches between here and North Bend, will leave Sunday for Portland in his 22 foot gasoline boat. His son James will accompany him. The trip will probably be the first ever made from here in so small a craft and many will follow with interest, the voyage of the little boat. It is equipped with a four horse power engine and as was remarked on the street, is almost too small to bear a name. Capt. Ellerby will stop just outside the Coos Bay bar to catch some halibut which he will take with him to the Rose City. His many friends here will wish him a speedy and successful voyage.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

The Times will be pleased to publish letters from its readers on all questions of public interest. Each letter must be signed by the writer, and so far as possible be limited to 200 words. In publishing these letters it must be understood that The Times does not endorse the views expressed therein; it is simply affording a means for the voicing of different opinions on all questions affecting the public welfare.

THE WATER QUESTION.

Marshfield, Ore., July 25, 1912. To Editor The Times:

It is just as well to serve notice on the Coos Bay Water Company that the Marshfield water users are weary and intend to have better water and better service with, to say the least, no additional cost. The company has had time "galore" and chances without number to "get next to itself." Not having done so, is not the fault of the public.

Take this from a fellow that is "Cock-sure and has the goods." Not from a "Subscriber," but a consumer who can consume three times the water the company furnishes and who pays for three times what he could consume.

No individual criticism intended—we are just going to make a chance that will give us what we want and must have.

The "scrap" is forthcoming. This from the public.

C. H. McLAUGHLIN.

Fishing and Licenses

To the Editor:

To settle a dispute would you please set us right on the following point: A says a fishing license is required only when one catches trout, salmon trout or bass. B claims that anyone casting a baited hook into any waters within the state is liable to arrest. Which is right?

FISHERMAN.

As a license is required for pursuing trout, salmon trout, salmon or bass with hook and line, the casting of a baited hook in any waters known to be inhabited by any of these fish would probably be construed as unlawful unless the angler possessed a license.

ABOUT POLITICS.

Editor Times:

Out of our present political chaos one fact rises like Cheops in the desert: Our party system disgraces the American people and must afford sad laughter for all other intelligences in the universe.

We are so busy making money, or losing it slaving for other people, that we let officeholders—past, present and future—manage the whole sickening game, which is really our own life and death, and holds such great issues that one would suppose we would try to make it once more a game for true men and wise immortals.

Struggle as we may with the problem, we cannot escape the conclusion that each one of us is, in issues which come up from time to time, one of three things—conservative, progressive or radical.

If we tried, we could always have true tickets in the field, presenting in clear cut honesty those three mental attitudes towards every problem in municipality, state or nation.

We could also vote on single issues or problems. But we cannot live as a Republic and have many more presidential conventions.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

To the Editor:

What is the origin of "dago" as applied to Spaniards, Italians and others?—Reader.

Many years ago some English sailors, on approaching the coast of Spain, fell in with Spanish sailors and heard some of the latter called Diego which is the Spanish for James. The Englishmen were unable to say Diego and substituted "dago" when addressing a Spanish sailor of that name. From this circumstance, "dago" came to be used to signify Spaniards, and by extension was applied to dark skinned Europeans, such as Portuguese and Italians.

When are where did William Jennings Bryan deliver a speech in which he spoke about labor being crucified on a cross of gold? What were the exact words?—Subscriber.

It was during the national democratic convention in Chicago, which opened in July, 1896, at which Bryan was nominated on the fifth ballot. What he said was: "You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns, you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold." The speech led to his nomination.

TO BUILD LOOP AROUND BAY PLAN FOR PORTLAND ELECTION

NEW RUMOR ABOUT COMPANY'S PLANS ARE AFLOAT—DIXON LEAVES FOR EUGENE TODAY.

According to a rumor afloat here today, the Southern Pacific is now planning to build a loop around the upper part of Coos Bay at least. The story was merely a rumor, however. The gist of the report was that recently representatives of the company have been investigating the possibility of a route around the east side of the Bay. It is claimed that the plan is to build the bridge at North Bend and connect up with the local line and then build across Isthmus Inlet, through Eastside and around the east side of the Bay to connect up with the line at Sand Point.

Thomas Dixon of the MacArthur, Perks company left today over the survey of the Coos Bay-Eugene line for Eugene where he will probably make headquarters in the future.

Engineer Brown of the Southern Pacific has arranged for a home for himself and family near Schofield for the next year and a half, according to parties arriving from Gardiner. It is understood that he is to have supervision of the engineering on the big tunnel.

PROPERTY IS TRANSFERRED

Roseburg Light and Power Plant Sold to A. Welch.

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 24.—Deeds were filed with the County Clerk in Roseburg transferring the Roseburg water and light systems, and the real property owned in conjunction therewith, from J. L. and S. A. Kendall to the Douglas County Light & Water Co., owned by A. Welch and his associates. These deeds transfer several specified lots and parcels of land in Roseburg, a ten-foot right of way for the pipe line from Winchester, the extensive holdings of the firm at Winchester and vicinity and property in Sec. 12, Tp. 26 S., R. 3 West, near Hoaglin, as well as certain rights on the North Umpqua river in connection with their power plants and the operation thereof. Concurrently with these deeds of transfer there was filed a general lien mortgage or deed of trust from the Douglas County Light & Water Co. to the Merchants Savings & Trust Co. of Portland, for a stated consideration of $500,000, covering this same property purchased of Kendall Bros. It also authorized a bond issue of like amount, in denominations of $1000 each, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent.

BOURNE MAY RUN

Senator May Independent Candidate for Re-election

PORTLAND, Ore., July 24.—In a letter to close personal friends in this city, United States Senator Bourne, who was defeated in the April primary election for renomination by Ben Selling, progressive Republican, has declared he will make an announcement touching on the question of his independent candidacy for Senator immediately following the Chicago convention of August 5. There is a strong suspicion here that Senator Bourne will become a candidate.

For some time Senator Bourne has been communicating with his leading supporters here, soliciting from them their personal opinion as to the advisability of his becoming an independent candidate. He has also viewed as to his chances of election if he should enter the contest.

Although he would not discuss the probability of Senator Bourne becoming a candidate, F. W. Mulkey, a National progressive for the Senate, yesterday said that inasmuch as he was the first to enter the field in addition to the regular Republican and Democratic nominees, he would remain in the race.

GOSSIP CONCERNING POSSIBLE CANDIDATES FOR SENATORS NOW RIFE—FILE FOR AUGUST 17.

Considerable interest is aroused in the coming port election. Candidates for appointment as commissioners have until August 17 file their candidacies with the secretary of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. The names will be listed in alphabetical order on a ballot. The vote on them will be merely instructive to Gov. West. He has announced he will appoint five receiving the largest number of new names have been suggested. It is understood that Dr. E. W. Henry Sengstacken, W. S. Clark and A. H. Powers will be among those who will file. Fifty names are required on the petition. Mr. Bend will have some candidates just who they will be has not been announced.
