NEW MAN AT HEAD OF LINE

W. E. Pierce, Boise Railroad Builder, Takes Up Coos Bay Project.

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 26.—Movements which forecast important developments for this portion of Oregon became known here this morning. Several weeks ago offices were opened in Roseburg by the Oregon & Southern Railway, with J. Arnold Doyle, president; H. M. Farren, vice president, and Geo. Godfrey, treasurer.

Of this new company, W. E. Pierce, of Boise, Idaho, has accepted the presidency and will come to Roseburg about August 5, to personally take up matters in connection therewith. Mr. Pierce is at the head of the well known firm of W. E. Pierce & Co., which is rated very high in financial circles.

In the new company now being organized a new board of directors is being selected, but Mr. Farren will be one of the vice presidents, and Mr. Godfrey treasurer. The secretary will probably be W. H. Jeffrey, who was formerly secretary of the old company.

inognito in the backwoods where she would be certain that she was being wooed for love and not her money.

"Here she might find the right one, a righteous and industrious man would love her for her true self and not for her wealth. Her riches have handicapped her real enjoyment of life and I dare say she is not as happy in her private car with her maids as is my servant girl."
