Starts Paving.—E. H. Morrissey has started work on the block paving which is to be used on Front street on the sides of the street car tracks there.

Outdoor Social.—The Epworth League will give an outdoor social tonight in Perham Park. It had originally been planned to give the social on Knob Hill but many objected to the climb.

Auto Accident.—Dr. Hollister of North Bend met with a mishap while driving his automobile between South Inlet and North Bend Wednesday. He ran off the road and his machine was wedged in between two logs but fortunately was not damaged.

Spiritualists Meet.—Prof. Johnson the spiritualist medium who arrived on the Bay yesterday held a meeting last night over the Norton & Hansen Stationery Co's. store. About twelve were present. Tonight he will hold a meeting at Bay City and will return here tomorrow night.

Fire Drill.—Fire practice was held last night on Front street and four streams of water were pumped out of the bay at a pressure of one hundred pounds, by the big engine. The engine is doing better service than was claimed for it by the company from which it was purchased.

Weds in Salem.—Mrs. P. N. Flagg received word today that her sister, Miss Josephine Eddy, and Prof. Irving G. Allger were quietly married last evening at the home of the bride's uncle, A. A. Livingstone, in Salem, Ore. It had been planned to have the marriage celebrated here but Miss Eddy was called to Salem by the illness of her mother and this coupled with the recent death of her grandmother caused them to decide to have a very quiet wedding. The young couple left immediately for San Luis Obispo where Mr. Allger is principal of the high school. Their marriage marks the culmination of a romance beginning at Imperial, Calif., where they formerly taught school. The bride's host of Coos Bay friends will unite in extending congratulations.

Many at Social.—The Fraternal Union gave a big reception to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Able, Jr., at the Finnish hall last evening. A number of outside guests were present.

Reaches Nebraska.—Hugh Sneddon in a letter to relatives says that he and Mrs. Sneddon and children have reached Mrs. Sneddon's old home at Elba, Nebr., where they will visit until September. Samuel Andrews, a brother of Mrs. Sneddon, will accompany them back.

Father's Birthday.—Hugh Coke, a brother of Judge Coke, who with his family is visiting relatives and friends in the Coquille valley, was over greeting Marshfield friends today. His father is celebrating his 51st birthday today and for 41 years has been a resident of Coos county.

Fell into river.—Yesterday morning while the Alice H was making her regular trip up Coos River, one of the passengers, a logger who had not fully recovered from a celebration in town, fell overboard, causing quite a commotion. The water was not very deep and he was finally pulled aboard.

Moose Picnic.—The excursion and picnic to be given by the Loyal Order of Moose on Sunday is not confined to members but all good people will be welcome to join in the day's festivities. L. T. Morgan, traveling representative of the big coffee firm of Hills Bros. is in the city and contributed the coffee which will be served free.

Secure Home.—It is announced that Prof. Schenck, head of the Biltmore Forest School, and wife, will occupy the A. L. Barker home on South Fifth street during their stay here this year. Mr. and Mrs. Barker are enjoying an outing near one of the Smith-Powers camps where Prof. Barker has been employed during vacation.

Hindsales Coming.—O. B. Hindsale and wife, formerly of Gardiner but now of Los Angeles, are now en route up the coast in an auto on an outing trip. They were at Eureka early this week, according to a card received by Mrs. E. Mings from Mrs. Hindsale today. They will visit here and at Gardiner. They write that they are having a most delightful trip, stopping at points of interest for hunting and fishing.

Wed Last Night.—Mrs. J. T. Hall received a telegram today announcing the marriage of her sister, Miss May Stauff, and Fred Cathedral at East Oakland last evening. The bride's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Stauff, and brother, Jas. Stauff, were present. The groom is assistant engineer on the Nann Smith and has been laid up by injuries sustained in an accident which delayed the nuptials. They will reside in East Oakland where they have a home already fitted up.

READ HISTORY IN THE MAKING

HISTORY is being made day by day, exactly such history as tells the advancement of the human race, and this newspaper chronicles it day by day as it happens.
Could anything be more interesting or more important? Can any living man afford to let events pass without knowing about them?
Every man, woman and child who can read should read one paper at least and should read it regularly and carefully. Justice to himself, to his neighbors, to his country and to future generations demands this. Every man should know what is going on. He should read The Coos Bay Times.
