

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Four)

Though not as large as had been expected, a large out-ore was built on the sand and siamo and a picnic party was enjoyed. It was the last event of the year to be given by the Association as several of the members will depart shortly for different points where they are attending school. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Clarence Pennock and Prof. Tiedgen. Mrs. Tiedgen, who was to have been one of the chaperons, could not attend. Those present were the Misses Marjorie Cowan, Bessie Coke, May Preuss and Alice Curtis, and Joe Bennett, Chauncey Clarke, Bartlett Flanagan and John Ferguson, and Mrs. Clarence Pennock and Prof. F. A. Tiedgen.

BAPTIST S. S. PICNIC

Despite the fact the clouds hung low and the weather looked somewhat threatening Wednesday morning, a jolly crowd of about one hundred and fifty, boarded the boats which carried the members and friends of the Marshfield Baptist Sunday School on their annual picnic to Charleston Beach. The Alice H. and Express, which were chartered for the day, left the Market street dock at 8:15 a. m., stopping at East-side and North Bend to pick up friends and arriving at the beach about 10 o'clock. Sports of all kinds were indulged in, bathing, wading, games and races. At noon, a bounteous picnic lunch was served to which the hungry crowd did ample justice. The refreshments were in charge of Miss Frances Frasse, Mrs. E. Kelly, and Mrs. Claude Stutsman and the picknickers showed their hearty appreciation in a material manner by the way the goodies disappeared. The committee had planned and cooked for the occasion as only Baptist ladies can, and felt well repaid for their efforts.

The races were in charge of Claude Stutsman and Dr. Leslie. The successful contestants are as follows: 100 yard dash—For boys under 12: Earl Noah, first; Ralph Richardson, second. 100 yard dash—Boys under 16: Howard Kelly, first; John Dye, second. Girls' 50 yard race—Girls under 12: Eddeva Wheeler, first; Anna Downs, second. Girls' 50 yard race—Girls under 16: Alice Richardson, first; Eddeva Wheeler, second. Fat Man's Race—Dr. G. W. Leslie, first; Rev. G. L. Hall, second. 100 yard dash—Free for all—Geo. Watkins. 100 yard dash—Free for all ladies—Alice Stutsman, first; Frances Frasse, second. Second 100 yard race—Free for all ladies—Florence Rehfield, first; Anna Lund, second. 50 yard boys' race: Earl Noah, first; Fred Rehfield, second. Girls' free for all race: Florence Laird, first; Eddeva Wheeler, second. Race for boys and girls, 6 and under: Cecil Laird, first; Helen Laird, second. Apple eating contest: Arthur Wheratt, first; Howard Kelly, second. Potato race for boys: Howard Kelly, first; Charles Doane, second. Potato race for girls: Eddeva Wheeler, first; Anna Downs, second. Frank Smith acted as starter for the races, and George Doll, Alva Doll, Dr. Leslie and George Ayre as judges.

At the close of a most enjoyable day the crowd returned tired but happy, each voting it the most successful picnic ever held.

SOME OUTING PARTIES

The picnic to be given by the Loyal Order of Moose tomorrow at Allegany promises to be largely attended, the members and their families and friends participating in the outing.

Mrs. F. G. Horton and children are spending a week or ten days at Ten Mile.

Mrs. Jas. Forty of Bay Park is the guest of Mrs. C. H. Dungan at the latter's home on Coos River.

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney spent the early part of the week at Miss Mahoney's ranch at Ten Mile.

Miss Laura Kruse has been hostess at a delightful little outing party at Beal Lake the past week. Among her guests were Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Miss Mamie Mahoney, Miss Ellen Anderson, the Misses Torney, Miss Cora Mae Montgomery, Misses Lena and Thea Kruse and Mrs. W. H. Kennedy.

R. F. Williams and family will leave shortly for Rock Lodge, the C. F. McCollum summer home on South Coos River, which they have taken for the month of August. They plan to entertain a number of friends there during the month.

Mrs. P. M. Wilbur left today for an over Sunday stay at the McCormac cottage on South Coos River.

W. U. Douglas and family left today for Bastendorf's Beach for a camping and outing trip. Among those in the party were W. U. Douglas, Mrs. Douglas, Duncan Douglas, Bessie Douglas, Emma Lou Douglas, Lucile Douglas, Alice Douglas, Wallace Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Brown.

A camping party of North Bend people which is enjoying an outing at Big Creek are Mrs. J. B. Jacobs, Mrs. L. A. Loomis, Mrs. N. G. Haines, Mrs. R. O. Brainard, Mrs. E. H. Shephard, Mrs. J. A. Olin and son, Mrs. T. A. Juza and Mrs. F. A. Ward.

Mrs. B. M. Richardson who has been under the doctors' care in Marshfield for several weeks will rejoin her parents and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Ford at the Maze next week, as her health is much improved.

Mrs. Allen Randleman of Beaver Hill is a Marshfield visitor today. She will spend Sunday at the McCormac cottage on South Coos River.

A party of Libby folks returned Wednesday from a delightful outing at Charleston. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Oldland, Leonard and Eleanor Oldland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Noah, Melvin and Mildred Noah, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Ole Noah and Abner Noah.

E. W. Kammerer and family and C. F. McGeorge and family are spending a few days at Sunset Bay.

F. M. Flye and wife and daughter, Bessie, and Art Blanchard left today for Sacchi's ranch on the beach for a two weeks' outing.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wyatt are spending a few days at Allegany.

WEDDINGS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wednesday evening occurred one of the prettiest events of the season, when a reception was given at Empire in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Getty. The bride and groom, who are two of the most popular young people of that city, surprised their relatives and friends by going down to Bandon last Tuesday and while there, joining in the bonds of wedlock, Archdeacon Horsfall performing the ceremony. After a short honeymoon tour, they returned home and were made welcome by a reception. The bride, who was Miss Dolly Hayden, is one of Empire's most charming and popular young ladies, and the groom who is the son of the late Charles Getty, is a well known and highly respected young man.

The lawn of the Getty home was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns and delicious refreshments were served on the lawn. Games were played, and a good time had. The couple will leave Sunday on the Alliance for Eureka, California, where they will make their home, Mr. Getty having accepted a position with the government.

Their numerous friends will join in extending congratulations.

Those attending the reception were Mesdames C. E. Getty, A. Rozell, R. E. Shine, Frank Sanders, A. Wickman, A. V. Wickman, Jake Strong, J. M. Patterson, T. Patterson, James Magee, T. J. Macginn, John Pederson, D. W. Holden, E. J. Morse, Wm. McMullen, W. Haydon, Misses Alpha Pederson, May Magee, Anna Wickman, Mabel Wickman, May Rozelle, Minnie Cutlip, Isabel Macginn, Messrs. A. A. Nichols, Walton Haydon, George Haydon, Arthur Getty, Mark Getty, Fritz Getty, R. E. Shine, Frank Saunders, Jake Strong, Jack Saunders, A. V. Wickman and John Prentiss.

Announcements were received by Coos Bay friends this week of the marriage of Mr. Roy Bleecker and Miss Edna Stanley at Portland, June 21. It had been the young couple's intention to keep the event secret for the time being but it "just leaked out" and spoiled their romantic little plan.

Announcement was received here yesterday by Mrs. P. N. Flagg of the marriage of her sister, Miss Josephine Eddy, and Prof. Irving G. Alger at Salem Thursday. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's uncle, A. A. Livingstone and was very quiet owing to the recent death of the bride's grandmother. It had been originally planned to have the nuptials on Coos Bay but the illness of the bride's mother while visiting in Salem necessitated the change. The groom is principal of the High School at San Luis Obispo, Calif., where they will make their future home, having left for there immediately after the ceremony. Their marriage was the culmination of a romance beginning in southern California where both were teaching school. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eddy, former Coos Bay residents, and won many friends during her residence here who will unite in extending congratulations to the groom upon his most happy and excellent selection of a life partner.

Rumors of engagements of three or four well known Coos Bay young couples have been afloat the past few weeks but no formal announcement has come forth to verify any of them. However, Dame Rumor has it that the announcements will be forthcoming shortly.

The marriage of Miss May Stauff and Fred Catherall at East Oakland Thursday evening was an event of much interest on Coos Bay, the bride having been born and reared in Coos county and having a large circle of friends here. She has been spending the past year in California with her mother, visiting relatives at various points. The ceremony took place at the home the groom had already prepared for his bride, an Episcopal clergyman officiating. The bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Stauff, and brother, James Stauff, were among those in attendance, the service being very simple owing to the groom not yet having fully recovered from the injuries sustained in an accident which caused a postponement of the nuptials. Mr. Catherall is assistant engineer on the Nann Smith. A large circle of friends on Coos Bay will unite in extending all wishes to the estimable couple.

The following item from the Portland Oregonian will be of interest to many Coos Bay people, Miss Gaffney being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gaffney of North Bend and having resided here with her parents until last December:

"G. W. Shuter and Miss Ethel May Gaffney were married Tuesday evening, July 9, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shuter, 562 Ladd avenue. Rev. Dr. Nelson Allen of Hawthorne Presbyterian church officiated. The ring service was used. The rooms were elaborately decorated in greens and white roses. A wedding supper was served, and the table was centered with pink and white roses. Only the families were present. Mrs. Shuter is from Coos Bay. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home to their friends at Hislop Hall, Hawthorne avenue."

LUNCHEON

Mrs. R. H. Walters was hostess at luncheon and serving at her home in South Marshfield Thursday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. R. F. Gebhart of Portland who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Eckworth. It was a most charming affair. The Walters home was tastefully decorated, the color scheme being blue and red and being most effectively carried out. It was a sort of an "Old Dutch" effect, the place cards portraying maids in the Holland garb. In serving, Mrs. Walters was assisted by the Misses Helen Dow and Gladys Diment. Among those invited were Mrs. R. F. Gebhart, Mrs. R. E. Pinegor, Mrs. W. Bernitt of Portland, Mrs. Kolm, Mrs. B. H. Smith, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Mrs. M. A. MacLeod, Mrs. J. F. Hansen, Mrs. L. F. Denning, Mrs. Albert Seelig, Mrs. F. A. Sacchi, Mrs. John Bear, Mrs. Geo. Gulovson, Mrs. C. A. Jensen, Mrs. L. W. Mauzey, Mrs. J. T. Merchant, Mrs. Kramer Batsford of Oakland, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, and the Misses Clara Johnson, Mabel Lang, Wanda Stevens, Martha Bernitt, Helen Dow, Gladys Diment and Emma Bear.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL

The members of the Epworth League held a bonfire social last evening at Perham's Park. Many bonfires lit up the place and added to the enjoyment of the crowd. Many outdoor sports were indulged in, among them being an exhibition of ring work given by Frank Howe, Lee Byerly and Ted Paterson. After enjoying themselves to the utmost, each and everyone partook of a delicious outdoor luncheon. Among those present were Misses Ruth Thurston, Bertha Davis, Roxie Hall, Cora Dye, Eva Hansen, Dora Brown, Evelyn Langworthy, Edie Church, Hazel Merriman, Edna McIntosh, Ella McLauren Hallie Davis, Harriet Hansen, Selata Howe, Irma Weaver, Miss Ellertson and Miss Nelson, and Messrs. Lee Byerly, Clay Church, LeRoy Robertson, Glen Rabshkopf, Horace Rabshkopf, Frank Howe, Ted Patterson, Eric Bolt, Ed Bolt, M. Albee, E. H. Joehnk, and E. H. Campbell and Messrs. and Mesdames H. I. Rutledge, Frank Sumner, Milo Sumner, Fred Weaver and Mrs. Nelson.

LODGE RECEPTION

Thursday evening the Fraternal Union of America met for a short business session at the close of which the members and friends were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irish, where a reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Abel who were recently married. A most

SEVENTH SEMI-ANNUAL Clearance Sale

Right from the start—this sale has been a huge success—simply more proof that it pays to buy and sell for cash—

"MONEY TALKS"

A great many sizes are cleaned up—especially in clothing— Prices as advertised continue in force—Ask your neighbors about the values they have received—

"MONEY TALKS"

Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.

MARSHFIELD.

BANDON.

enjoyable evening was spent in music and games and at the close a delicious repast was served. Among those present were: Mrs. Nellie Owen, Mrs. Chas. Hiccox, Mrs. F. A. Sacchi, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wiseman, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Drews, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lenett, Mr. and Mrs. Irish, Mr. and Mrs. William Abel, Miss Margaret Wiseman, Miss Florence Farley, Miss Edith Pendergrass, Mrs. M. P. Pendergrass, Chester Wolcott, Mr. Stranton, Mr. Wheeler, Halbert Carlyle and Master Francis Sacchi, Ernest Drews, Jack Sacchi and Marjory Drews.

On Thursday last Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Seaman entertained at their summer home the Orchard on South Coos River last Tuesday with a dinner. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mattson, Miss Louise Blatt and Mrs. Hermann Blatt and children.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church will hold its next meeting the first Tuesday in August.

Mrs. Kramer Batsford and little daughter Florelle will leave next week for Portland to visit friends for a short time before returning to their home at Oakland, California.

Mrs. W. T. Merchant and Miss May Preuss will leave soon for California where Miss Preuss will enter the freshman class of the University at Berkeley.

Dr. and Mrs. Bartte, who have just returned from a three weeks' motor-trip through the Pacific northwest, report a most enjoyable time. They were in Portland during the Elks' convention and from there motored to Seattle, taking a short trip to Mt. Rainier and over to Tacoma and back to Portland. Owing to the bad conditions of the roads they shipped their machine from Portland and returned home Thursday on the Breakwater.

Mrs. T. M. Dinnick of Coquille passed through here this week en route home from a several weeks' visit with relatives at various points in California, Oregon and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Blake will entertain a few friends Sunday at home on Catching Inlet. Those invited are: Frank Van Camp, Lee Van Camp, Mrs. Lee Van Camp, Mrs. Mrs. Crasby and Mrs. and Brainard and son Paul.

Mrs. Nellie Burrell Scott, who has attained considerable fame as an artist, is expected here next week from San Francisco for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. C. Tower.

Mrs. Shaw of Brockton, Mass. who has been a guest at the home of her brother, A. H. Powers, the week plans to leave on the Nann Smith. She will return via the Canadian route. Mrs. Shaw was one of the Massachusetts delegates to the recent national convention of the Women's Clubs in San Francisco.

Jan. Ferry, Sr., and wife and her granddaughter, Gladys, returned last week from an extended visit at home of his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Jacobs, in Portland.

Rev. R. E. Browning and wife and baby arrived home this week from Washington, D. C., where they have been visiting relatives for the few months.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hinisdale and children formerly of Gardiner, now of Los Angeles, are expected here in a day or two after an tour up the coast. They will be here and at Gardiner. They made the trip by easy stages, stopping to hunt or fish whenever inclination or opportunity presented itself. Mr. Hinisdale was former president of the First National Bank of Coos Bay and also manager of the Gardiner Mill company.

Mrs. W. N. Ekblad and little Willis, of Marshfield and Mrs. W. R. Simpson of North Bend returned this week from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Miss Evelyn Mock returned Portland Friday after a short stay at the home of Mrs. S. E. Palm and with other friends and relatives on the Bay.

(ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS PAGE FOUR)

McLain, Doris Sengstacken, Florence Flanagan, Bess Flanagan, Alice Flanagan, Helen Flanagan, Eleanor Flanagan, Elizabeth Flanagan, Howard Lewis, Elvie Grant, Hershel Nelson and Roderick O'Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones and daughters, Maxine and Elizabeth, spent Friday at the Hatchery, taking as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Mudget of Valley City, North Dakota, who are visiting at the Jones' home.

Jack Merchant who has been spending a couple of weeks at the Matson summer home, "The Nook", on South Coos River, returned home Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Kendall, Mrs. Carl W. Evertsen and Miss Matilda George are spending a few days in Bandon.

The Missionary Society of the Christian church will hold its next meeting the first Tuesday in August.

Mrs. Kramer Batsford and little daughter Florelle will leave next week for Portland to visit friends for a short time before returning to their home at Oakland, California.

Mrs. W. T. Merchant and Miss May Preuss will leave soon for California where Miss Preuss will enter the freshman class of the University at Berkeley.

Dr. and Mrs. Bartte, who have just returned from a three weeks' motor-trip through the Pacific northwest, report a most enjoyable time. They were in Portland during the Elks' convention and from there motored to Seattle, taking a short trip to Mt. Rainier and over to Tacoma and back to Portland. Owing to the bad conditions of the roads they shipped their machine from Portland and returned home Thursday on the Breakwater.

Mrs. T. M. Dinnick of Coquille passed through here this week en route home from a several weeks' visit with relatives at various points in California, Oregon and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Blake will entertain a few friends Sunday at home on Catching Inlet. Those invited are: Frank Van Camp, Lee Van Camp, Mrs. Lee Van Camp, Mrs. Mrs. Crasby and Mrs. and Brainard and son Paul.

Mrs. Nellie Burrell Scott, who has attained considerable fame as an artist, is expected here next week from San Francisco for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. C. Tower.

Mrs. Shaw of Brockton, Mass. who has been a guest at the home of her brother, A. H. Powers, the week plans to leave on the Nann Smith. She will return via the Canadian route. Mrs. Shaw was one of the Massachusetts delegates to the recent national convention of the Women's Clubs in San Francisco.

Jan. Ferry, Sr., and wife and her granddaughter, Gladys, returned last week from an extended visit at home of his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Jacobs, in Portland.

Rev. R. E. Browning and wife and baby arrived home this week from Washington, D. C., where they have been visiting relatives for the few months.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hinisdale and children formerly of Gardiner, now of Los Angeles, are expected here in a day or two after an tour up the coast. They will be here and at Gardiner. They made the trip by easy stages, stopping to hunt or fish whenever inclination or opportunity presented itself. Mr. Hinisdale was former president of the First National Bank of Coos Bay and also manager of the Gardiner Mill company.

Mrs. W. N. Ekblad and little Willis, of Marshfield and Mrs. W. R. Simpson of North Bend returned this week from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Miss Evelyn Mock returned Portland Friday after a short stay at the home of Mrs. S. E. Palm and with other friends and relatives on the Bay.

(ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS PAGE FOUR)

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Blake will en-

KODAK

DOUBLE THE JOYS OF EVERY OUTING WITH A

KODAK

ANYBODY CAN KODAK. COME IN AND LET US SHOW YOU HOW SIMPLE IT IS. THE KODAK ALL-BY-DAYLIGHT WAY. WE HAVE KODAKS FROM $5.00 UP.

Red Cross Drug Store

FILMS and SUPPLIES. PHONE 1222