

MYERS QUILTS

Marshfield's Exclusive Women's Store to be Closed Out at Once

A. W. Myers & Co. have decided to retire from business in Marshfield, and have surrendered their lease on store room to The Woolen Mill Store, and agreed to vacate in a very few days.

Store Is Now Closed

Public Notice is hereby given that commencing Wednesday, July 31, at 9:00 A. M., the doors will open again, and the entire stock consisting of high grade women's and children's wear will be offered to the buying public at prices heretofore unheard of in all the West.

The stock must be sold right in Marshfield and the affairs settled up before Aug. 10. People of Coos County get ready for the great Bargain Carnival.

Prices will be made on Ladies' Suits, Coats, Dresses, Waists, Underwear, Hosiery, Furnishings and all Children's Wear, that you will fairly fight for them.

No time to go into detail or quote prices as this is a hurry-out sale. Suffice to say, they will be low enough, and cause you to remember The A. W. Myers Store, long, long after it has left you.

Don't let us ship a single thing. Buy a-plenty for you will pay more when Myers is gone.

Remember the Hour, the Sale Opens---Wednesday, July 31st, at 9 A. M.

All Fixtures for Sale

The following fixtures will be offered for sale and no reasonable offer refused: 12 Station Cash and Bundle Carriers, 1 Safe, 2 Wax Figures, Nickle and Wood Fixtures, 1 Adding Machine, 3 Cloak and Suit Racks, Floor Rugs, 1 Typewriter, 1 Roll Top Desk, Show Cases, Counters, Shelving, Tables, Etc.

A. W. Myers & Co. Is Going to Quit

COOS BUILDING
MARKET STREET
Marshfield, Ore.

COOS BUILDING
MARKET STREET
Marshfield, Ore.