BORN.

PEET—To Mr. and Mrs. Percy Peet at their home in Eastside, Friday, August 2, a daughter. Mother and baby are doing nicely and the proud father is much elated over the advent of their second child.

Enjoy Picnic—The Eastside Athletic Club enjoyed a moonlight picnic at Jordan's Cove last night. About twenty-five made the trip on the Alice H.

buys Property.—W. H. Payne, of Seattle, is reported to have bought 50 lots in Boise Addition, just south of Coal Bank Inlet. The property is owned by Mr. Goode, Judge Perky and Guy Barnum, of Boise, Idaho.

Coquille Mill Falls.—The Coquille mill passed into the hands of a receiver Friday last. It has not affected the working of the mill and it is predicted the adjustment of the difficulty will not occasion undue hardship to anyone.—Coquille Herald.

Will Build.—W. S. Turpen is completing plans for a bungalow which J. V. Smeaton, general manager of the C. A. Smith Lumber Co., will erect on the five-acre tract which he recently purchased on Coos River, near "The Nook" for a summer home.

Inspects Wiring.—H. L. Vorse, assistant electrical inspector of the Underwriters' Equitable Rating Bureau, is in Marshfield making the annual inspection here. His report will have much to do with the raising and lowering of insurance rates on various buildings the coming year.

Permanent Injunction.—According to press dispatches from Medford Judge Calkins has made permanent the injunction against the new bridge for which E. G. Perham, of this city, received the contract. The decision will not affect Mr. Perham, as he has been guaranteed against loss in the matter and will continue the work of building the bridge. In this decision the court does not answer many of the questions raised by the attorneys for the county, nor does he pass upon the question of the diversion of road funds to the general fund. The case will be appealed at once to the Supreme Court. The injunction secured by the bridge contractor against the redemption of warrants with road funds will be continued. Preliminary work on the bridge will be continued. Judge Calkins based his decision upon the contention that in building the bridge the county court would be increasing its indebtedness above the constitutional limit of $5000. An effort will be made to secure the final decision in September.

Moves Office.—Capt. O'Kelly has moved the office of his boat line from the foot of Central avenue to Market avenue.

Builds Houses.—Mr. Wilson who recently came from Montana and purchased considerable property, is arranging to erect four bungalows near the Dave Musson home in Railroad Addition.

No Games Sunday.—Unless North Bend and Coquille arrange to play off the game which was recently ordered thrown out by President Baxter, no games will be played Sunday in the Coos County League. Today an endeavor was being made to have North Bend go to Coquille for the game Sunday.

Is Released.—E. B. Jones, the real estate man from Granger, Wash., who was arrested here on telegraphic advice from the North Yakima sheriff was released yesterday. No warrant has been received for him and he could not be detained longer. He has secured an attorney and will fight the case, claiming that his arrest was spiteful. It is understood A. H. Stutsman says he has had advised that Mr. Jones has an excellent reputation in Granger.
