A South Marshfield woman stated that when she refused to give him some work, the man cursed her. He is a foreigner and will probably be ordered out of town.

Whistles Bothered—There has been considerable complaint the last few days about unnecessary noises along the waterfront and down town streets. Complaint is especially made about some of the gasoline boats which sound their whistles every five minutes along the dock for no apparent reason or benefit. Then some of the auto sirens are played over time to the discomfort of many.

His fine orchestra with all the latest music and the fine hall will make the series a delight to local dance lovers.

Tip Cordes Prize Drake—Tom Hall is busy today trying to decide whether he is a victim of circumstances or of Tip Cordes. Tom was a member of an over Sunday hunting and fishing party at the Sandhills near the Cordes homestead. One of the features of the occasion was a duck mulligan and it tasted so good that Tom thought it would be a good plan to bring a duck or two home. He remembered that Tip Cordes had stated he had many ducks for market which was selling at 50 cents. Tom looked around and while he couldn't find Tip he did find the ducks. Selecting a nice plump looking specimen he used his trusty rifle with such good effect that he shot the duck's head off. Taking the fowl to the boat he indulged in a little nap. While he was asleep Tip came along and seeing the duck awakened Tom. "Here," said Tip, "you have killed my finest drake." "Well," said Tom, "I am glad I picked a good one and I expected to pay you for it. How much?" "That was a winning drake, and will cost you $2.00." Tom paid the money and brought his prize bird home. Later Mrs. Hall reported that it seemed a pity to kill the duck for it was full of eggs. Tom is now looking for Tip and wonders what kind of drakes he has up there.
