

NORTH BEND IS WINNER

Defeats Coquille 9 to 3, Winning Coos County League Championship.

By a score of nine to three, North Bend yesterday defeated Coquille at Coquille, capturing the Coos county league championship for the first half of the season.

It was largely a pitchers' battle with Hull on the mound for North Bend and Collier doing the serving for Coquille.

Fatal Ninth Inning The fatal ninth for Coquille started off with a rush.

Threatened Umpire Landers of Marshfield and McNair of Bandon umpired the game and gave good satisfaction.

May End Season It is still uncertain about whether a new schedule of ten games will be played.

Denny Hull of North Bend reports that Coquille is wavering and undecided whether they want to play another series or not.

AT THE THEATER The Royal theater management has arranged for a service of pictures directly from the People's theater in Portland.
