BORN.

HENDERSON—To Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Henderson at their home in Fernside Monday, August 5, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

DURAND—To Mr. and Mrs. James Durand, at their home in Flagstaff, Monday, Aug. 5, a girl. Mother and daughter are doing well and the smile that Jim wears tells the world that he is doing well, too.

LARSON—To Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Larson of Allegany, at Mercy hospital, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Larson says the new arrival far surpasses anything that he has yet been able to contribute towards beautifying Allegany, where he has handsome grounds and a garden.

Meet Wednesday—The Ladies Aid society of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church hall.

Build Houses—L. M. Noble is completing two new two-story houses on Golden avenue between South First and Broadway and plans to erect two more there.

Probe Disappearance—Sheriff W. W. Gage came over from Coquille today to investigate the mysterious disappearance of Bill Joyner, the rancher near South Inlet. He and C. G. Hockett left this afternoon for the ranch. No trace of Joyner has been found.

Plan Picnic—O. O. Lund yesterday attended the annual meeting of the Kepwill Telephone company at Coos-ton. Aside from the routine business, it was decided to hold a picnic for the stockholders and their families at Larson's Inlet at a date to be determined by a special committee later.

Grains Lower—There has been a market slump in the Portland grain market the past few weeks, according to advisers received by local dealers. Wheat has gone off $6 per ton and barley $8 per ton. The flour market is also weaker and owing to reports of bumper wheat crops throughout the northwest this year, it is expected that flour will go even lower than last season.

Houses in Demand—A little incident Saturday evening proves that houses are in demand and that the Times want ads bring results. Mrs. Swanson placed an ad in the Saturday Times offering a five room bungalow for rent. Shortly after the paper was issued, a man came hurrying to the address given on a bicycle and promptly closed negotiations for the lease. Sunday morning E. Bandel and Mrs. Bandel also walked out to the address to make inquiries concerning the vacant house which they had read in the Times. "Oh, we rented that last night," Mrs. Swanson said. "Who got it?" Mr. Bandel asked. "Mr. Keller of the Orpheum theatre," Mrs. Swanson answered. Then Mr. Bandel remembered that Mr. Keller came into the Cyclery in a hurry the night previous and anxiously asked for a bicycle. Mr. Bandel thought from the haste that it was some big emergency but he remembered Mr. Keller taking out the Times and looking at it, evidently to get the address and hurried away to rent the house. When people have to resort to bicycles to make quick time to rent houses advertised in the Times it means quick results—also that houses are in demand.
