COOS BAY TIDES.
Time is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

THE WEATHER
(By Associated Press)
OREGON—Fair tonight and Thursday. Cooler in interior and west.

BORN
SMITH—To Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith of Coos River, a daughter, Tuesday, August 6.

GRINDROD—To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Grindrod at their home on South Tenth street, Marshfield, Wednesday, August 7, a son.

Wedding Anniversary—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary yesterday with a duck dinner.

Move Camp—The Smith-Powers Co. is arranging to close down Camp 2, all of the timber near it being cut. Most of the equipment will be taken to the Coaledo camp.

Arrests Boy—Marshal Carter this afternoon arrested Claude Tacha, a young lad, for "swiping" a watermelon from Gow Why. The affair attracted quite a crowd.

Very Ill—George Woodruff, a well-known old resident of Coos Bay, is reported fatally ill at his rooms in the Central hotel. He has recently been employed in a logging camp.

After Deer—Herman Hillyer and Messrs. Oulmette and Fairchilds left this morning for the Allegany country to bag a few of the deer that are reported numerous in that section.

Gets Position—Mrs. Shadbourne, a music teacher who spent most of last year here has been elected to a position in the Los Angeles schools, according to word received by Mrs. C. H. Dungan.

Small Egg—Mrs. Herman Stone of West Marshfield has a duck egg that is decidedly freakish. It is scarcely as large as a wren egg although it is the product of a duck two years old.

Write-Up Road—The Sunday Oregonian had a feature story on the Coos Bay-Eugene line in which it is stated that fine progress is being made. The story will be reprinted in The Times with illustrations of the work next Saturday.

Large Egg—The Times is indebted to E. H. Squires, the Empire mail carrier, for an egg that is well up among the record breakers, measuring 6 1/2 by 8 inches. It is the product of one of Mr. Squire's Rhode Island Red hens.

Dredge Moves—The Dredge Oregon is gradually working down the Bay, clearing the channel in front of Marshfield. There were a number of complaints heard on the street today because the dredgings were not being pumped further back on the mudflats east of the channel.

Builds Home—Geo. F. Murch has started the excavation for a fine bungalow which he will build at the corner of Eleventh and Golden for a home. The building will adjoin the new home which his son-in-law, Hugo Quist, is just completing.

Good Trip—In a card to The Times Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Campbell announce that they arrived at Eugene August 5 after a pleasant auto trip out via Allegany and Drain. After a week's stay there, they will motor to Roseburg and return to the Bay via Myrtle Point.

Change Contest—Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Stump, in charge of the W. C. T. U. Demorest Gold Medal Contest to be held next Friday evening announces it will be held in the Odd Fellows hall instead of the Finnish hall, the Odd Fellows hall affording a greater seating capacity.

Many Leave—The Allegany-Drain auto line had a capacity list of passengers out this morning. Among those leaving on that route were: J. W. Logan and wife, B. J. Sanford, K. W. Heitler, T. J. O'Keefe, H. Hicking and wife, Bertine Hicking and H. C. Hicking.

Work on Road—It is expected that workmen will have the new water level road between North Bend and Marshfield open for traffic within a few days. By fixing up a stretch between the Plat B dock and Sherman avenue, it could be traversed by that route now it is said.

Elect Old Directors—At the annual meeting of the Kenwill Telephone company at the Cooston school house this week, the old directors were reelected. They are Wm. Weir, D. D. Brainard and Wm. Blackmore of Larson's Inlet, Wm. E. Homme of Cooston, A. G. Raab of North Bend, H. W. Walker of Cooston, G. M. Cantine and Sherman Gamble of Kentuck Inlet.

Expects Road—Carl W. Everson who returned a few days ago from a visit with a cousin at Fort Bragg, Calif., says that the Southern Pacific is pushing its line to Eureka as fast as it can. The operating of trains into Fort Bragg began a couple of months ago and the contracts have been awarded for building the road on from there to Eureka. The people there expect to see the line pushed on northward along the coast.

Bar Railroads—Jens Hansen this morning began circulating the petitions for dedicating the property necessary to improve the Marshfield waterfront. Some of the property owners refused to sign it until a stipulation is put in the agreement that the waterfront shall never be used for a railway right of way.

Boy Complains—Claude Hurt, a fifteen-year-old boy, appeared before Justice Penneck today and entered complaint that a hook-tender at Smith-Powers Camp No. 1 had kicked and ill-treated him. He was sent to North Bend to confer with Deputy District Attorney Derbyshire.

North Bend News
