THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight Tues- day fair and warmer.

BORN

OLSON—To Capt. and Mrs. A. H. Olson at their home on North Inlet Monday, August 12, a thirteen pound girl. Mother and child are doing nicely. Capt. Olson was formerly master of the Esther Buhne when the vessel was plying into this port.

SWEET—To Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Sweet at their home in North Bend Saturday, August 11, a seven and one-half pound daughter.

O'MARA—To Mr. and Mrs. H. O'Mara, at Mercy hospital, Monday August 12, a seven and one-half pound daughter. Mr. O'Mara is in charge of the Oregon Power company's plant at Porter. The proud parents are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Takes Material—The Alert made a special trip to Allegany today to take up a shipment of building material. Considerable of it was for the house which G. A. Gould is building near Allegany.

Leave Today—The Allegany-Drain auto line had a capacity of outgoing passengers Sunday morning. They were H. Preusse, C. E. Russell, R. E. Vincent, Norris Jensen and F. E. Hitchcock.

Get Deer—Dr. Vaughan, Anson Rogers, Harry Jarvis and Al Smith constituted a party of deer hunters who covered the Blue Ridge District the last of the week. Yesterday, Mr. Rogers killed a fine three point buck.

President's Cousin Here—Charles E. Taft, of Seattle, has returned to his home after a visit of a few days with his niece Mrs. N. E. Daggett and his nephew, Bert Gray, both of Allegany. Mr. Taft is a cousin of president Taft.

Fell Overboard—Leo, McLala who was attending the Scotch picnic at Charleston Bay yesterday, fell overboard from one of the boats as it was leaving on the homeward trip. He was fished out of the water with no further damage than a little wetting.

Improve Restaurant—Messrs. Kinney and Carlson are remodeling and improving the interior of the Palace Cafe. The improvements will cost upwards of $1,000. Private dining booths will be put in and the place redecorated, making it one of the most attractive in this section.

Grange Picnic—The Coos Bay Grange will hold their annual picnic Aug. 17 at Enneberg's Grove. It will be free for everybody. There will be dancing and a general good time. Everyone is invited to come and bring their babies and the babies are to bring their dolls. Special boats will be run.

Taken to Hospital—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith departed by the Oregon yesterday for North Bend with their little boy Marshall, who will be placed in the hospital to be treated for White Swelling. C. R. Suddam is holding down the Clerk's Office during Mr. Smith's absence—Gold Beach Globe.

Auto in River—In unloading an auto from a barge at Allegany Saturday, the barge broke loose and the auto slid into the water. It wasn't damaged much but delayed the service a little. The car was taken up for temporary use on the auto line while one of the regular machines was being overhauled.

Council Tonight—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening to take up various matters. Among them will be the extensions of Eleventh and Fourth streets south to the city limits, the ordering of bids on the rebuilding of Fourth street south of Central and the ordering the sale of $2,231.27 of special improvement bonds on Anderson avenue.

Considers Candidacy—Anson Rogers, Jr., of Coos River was in Marshfield today on business. He was much surprised to find that friends had circulated and filed his petition as a candidate for port commissioner. While he feels highly honored by it, he is doubtful about having time to devote to the position and he dislikes running against his old friend, E. A. Anderson. However, he has upon the urgent request of friends, taken the matter under consideration and will decide in a day or two whether he will make the race.

Thurston Moves—The following item from an Astoria paper is of interest in Marshfield because it refers to a former Marshfield pastor: "Rev. D. W. Thurston has resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church of Astoria, owing to the illness of his mother who resides at Seattle, and has accepted a call from the First Baptist church at Marysville, Wash."

Makes Long Drive—Albert Seelig is driving back and forth night and morning to Bastendorf's Beach where he and Mrs. Seelig have been camping for a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Merchant. He makes the drive each way in about an hour and a quarter, the roads being in good shape the entire distance now.

Overcrowd Boats—A. P. Owens spent Sunday at his summer home on South Coos River. Mr. Owens says that the launches plying on Coos River are being overcrowded and is fearful lest a serious disaster will result. He says that the masters of the boats should take precautions to guard against it before it is too late.

Kustler Sails—The gasoline schooner Kustler which took a party of people to the agate carnival at Port Orford, returned to Coos Bay yesterday and left Sunday for Rogue River where she will take on a cargo of wool which will be shipped to Eureka. The wool clip in Curry is moving now and probably a large amount will be shipped to California.

Dive Causes Trouble—Parties from South Inlet report that a "blind pig" or "dive" is being operated there and is likely to cause serious trouble. Last night, it is reported, there was a free-for-all fight in which at least one man received a serious beating. It is expected that the authorities will take the matter up as it is alleged that booze is being disposed of illegally.

Hoodlums Bother—George T. Coleman and other residents of North Front street are highly indignant over the actions of a bunch of hoodlums Saturday night. He says they broke the lock on the flatcar of the Terminal Railway and kept it running back and forth until five o'clock in the morning. Besides the bearable and steps may be taken to prosecute the offenders.

Registered Bull Moose—The first and only "Bull Moose" registered on the new election registry lists, qualified before E. O. Hall the other day. When it came to politics he said he wanted to be put down as a "Bull Moose." Mr. Hall suggested he state "Progressive Party," but he said "Bull Moose" was good enough for him. The voter is a prominent Front Street business man.

PERSONAL NOTES

F. B. WAITE returned Saturday evening via Allegany from a trip to Portland and joined his family who are spending a month on the Bay.

CHAS. VAN DUYN and wife and Mayor and Mrs. Straw returned from an outing at the Ed. Tyberg place, midway between Allegany and Loon Lake.

MRS. R. W. STANLEY will leave Thursday for her home at Hot Springs, S. D., after a few months' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Gidley.

visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Gidley.

FREN WAITE and his sisters, the Misses Waite, spent Sunday as guests of the J. W. Bennett home at the Maze, Tom Bennett taking them up in his launch.

CHARLES HICKOX, Messrs. Wells and a few others spent Sunday between the forks of Coos River. They found a number of deer trails but failed to get any venison.

T. C. RUSSELL, superintendent of the Beaver Hill mine, will leave on the next Breakwater for Portland to meet Mrs. Russell who has been spending the summer with relatives at Diamondville, Wyo.

DR. and MRS. J. T. McCORMAC and their guests, Mrs. A. J. French, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Fannie Hazard and Miss Gertrude Engle came down today from their summer home on Coos River.

P. M. WILBUR returned today from a pleasant vacation trip to California. He came to Bandon on the Fifield yesterday, and arrived here on the noon train. He went as far south and Los Angeles and visited the principal seaside resorts.

A. B. CAMPBELL and wife will leave Eugene today for Roseburg in their auto, according to a card received by George Campbell this morning. After a short visit at Roseburg, they will motor home via Myrtle Point.

JACK McDONALD came in yesterday from Loon Lake, bringing his auto with him. Mrs. McDonald came in with him, a special boat bringing them down the river owing to Mrs. McDonald being ill. She is reported considerably improved today.

G. W. HOLLISTER, the well known Portland traveling man, is spending a few days on the Bay. He reports that he has just closed a contract to supply Porter Bros. about $60,000 worth of hay, feed and flour for their camps on the Coos Bay-Eugene line.

W. S. CHANDLER and son, Irving, were down today from their summer home on Coos River. Mr. Chandler is rapidly recuperating from his recent illness but "Ike" will soon be the heavyweight member of the family if he continues the increase that he has maintained since his arrival here a week ago.

PHILLIP HUNTINGTON and wife arrived here via Allegany yesterday, bringing their Ford runabout with them. They reside at Yoncalla and will spend a few weeks here. Mrs. Huntington was formerly Miss Fannie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith of Marshfield.

DR. SETHER of Roseburg who has been enjoying a fishing and hunting trip near Gardiner is spending a few days on the Bay with Mayor Straw, Ivy Condon and other friends. Mr. Condon says that if there was any game to be got in the Gardiner section, Dr. Sether should sure get it with his "V. C. P."

MRS. ROBERT McCANN of North Bend passed through here today en route home from Port Orford where she visited friends and relatives and took in the Agate Carnival. She reports that the carnival was fine, nearly 500 visitors gathering for it. She is loud in her praise of the hospitality shown by the people of Port Orford.

FRED WEAVER, Rufus Howe and Frank Howe will constitute a hunting party who will go to Dora next Saturday for a few weeks' outing. Friends there have some deer "spotted" for them and some fine trout are just waiting for them according to word that has reached Fred Weaver. Rev. H. I. Rutledge and wife will probably join the party later.

J. A. DOWLING of the Federal Construction company arrived here Saturday night via Drain and Allegany from San Francisco to supervise some of the work they have underway here. His company has just secured a $400,000 contract at Burlingame, Calif., where Erla Wold is city engineer. Mrs. Wold and children are now guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson.
