LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.
Tide is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Petition Filed.—W. J. La Palme of Eastside has filed with the Chamber of Commerce his petition as candidate for Port Commissioner.

En Route East.—Fred Powers in a card to friends today states that he is at Salt Lake City en route to Minneapolis and other eastern points.

Priests Visit Here.—Father Murphy of Mt. Angel and Father Galliger of Portland arrived in the city today on the steamer Breakwater to visit Father Springer.

Many Strawberries.—A large number of home-grown strawberries are on the market this week and the price has dropped at the stores to three boxes for a quarter.

Plan Hunt.—Tom Goodale, George Catching, Orvil Wilson and Claude Tucker left today in an auto for Curry county where they will hunt and fish for a week or so.

Buy Saloon.—G. P. Parker who recently moved here from Gresham, Oregon, has purchased the Castlewood saloon from Ingmann Brothers and took possession today.

Leave Today.—Among the outgoing passengers on the Allegany-Drain auto line this morning were Carrie Ruprecht, Wm. Hickey, L. W. Shotwell, W. Gorman and A. Adam.

New Home.—The new residence of Geo. F. Winchester which is being erected on West Tenth street is progressing nicely. W. T. Stoll will occupy it, having taken a lease on it for a term of years.

Build Summer Home.—Capt. Kruger is planning to build a fine summer home on South Coos River where he and his family have been camping recently. He is figuring on a bungalow that will cost about $1,500.

School Closes.—Abe Huendergardt has closed a successful term at the Allegany school. The closing exercises were held Friday when a picnic was held in the Gould grove. The children did splendidly with a program and a fine picnic dinner was held.

Meet Saturday.—A meeting of the trustees of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church will be held at the church parlors Saturday evening. The reception which was planned for the new minister, the Rev. Oslund, then has been postponed to a later date.

Ready for Season.—Manager Hockett of the Southern Oregon company at Empire is getting things in readiness for opening the cannery there which will be conducted by the company this season. Now bats are being built and the cannery thoroughly overhauled.

To Move Here.—Capt. Donaldson who is well known on the Bay and who has extensive property interests here, including the northeast corner of Central and Broadway, is planning to build a fine home on his ranch near Marshfield and move his family here from Berkeley.

Sea Was Smooth.—On the last trip of the steamer Breakwater the ocean was said to be as smooth as old travelers had ever seen it. While the steamer was crossing the Columbia bar the passengers were eating dinner and did not know that the steamer was going over the bar.

Two are Fined.—Walter Baird and Lou Franklin were before City Recorder Butler this morning on the charge of creating a disturbance in a North Front street resort yesterday. They were fined $20 apiece which they paid. Baird is a bartender at the Shamrock saloon.

Will Speak Here.—Rev. A. F. Bassford of Corvallis will speak at the Marshfield Baptist church tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. After the meeting a business session will be held to transact business of importance. Every member is urged to be present.

Bicycle Accident.—Clay Church while coming to work this morning met with a slight accident in which he was considerably bruised. While coasting, the brake was working badly and suddenly took hold fast, throwing him over the handle bars and breaking up E. C. Drews' wheel, which he was riding, considerably.

Social Session.—Following the regular meeting of the Marshfield Order of Moose last evening, a little informal session was enjoyed, lunch being served at the latter. There was a good turnout and the plans of S. W. Greene, the national organizer, were appoyed. There are now in Marshfield about 115 members of the order and an effort will be made to secure 250 members. The refreshments which were served following the business session were in charge of Mrs. T. J. Scaife.

Want Macgenn.—A number of friends of Capt. T. J. Macgenn of the Breakwater are urging that he be a candidate for port commissioner. They claim that his knowledge of the Bay and its needs and his long experience on the sea would make him a fine commissioner. They probably will take steps soon to secure his candidacy.

Located in Los Angeles.—R. J. Coke who for 41 years resided in Coos county and who was identified with the general merchandise and grocery business of Coos Bay for 26 years, writes that he is now, with his family, comfortably located in their new home in Los Angeles. John S. Coke, Sr., aged 84 years, is with the family and will make his home there.

Rescue People.—Will Steckle the other night rescued Mr. and Mrs. Lyons of Bay City after they had been given a cold bath. They were returning home in a rowboat when the craft overturned, throwing them and their child into the Bay. The boat turned turtle and sank but they got a log raft on which they kept themselves afloat until Mr. Steckle answered their calls for help.

Arrange for Convention.—The members of the W. C. T. U. are being entertained by Mrs. Maude B. Watkins at a picnic at her home, The Cedars, today. Automobiles took the members from this city to the Watkins home. During the day arrangements will be made for the county convention of the organization which will be held at Coquille, Friday, Aug. 23.

New Minister Here.—Rev. John Oslund and wife and children, Lilian and Edward, arrived here from Spokane today. Rev. Oslund is the new pastor of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church and comes from the largest Swedish Lutheran church in Spokane. He is a graduate of Augustana college at Rock Island, Ill., and is comparatively young, but highly recommended. He will occupy the parish home in the church building and will assume his new duties at once.
