will be taken before Judge Hall in the Juvenile court.

Closed Wharf—Today Street Superintendent Lawhorne boarded up the wharf at the end of Central avenue, closing it to traffic of vehicles. He has declared the condition of the wharf to be unsafe.

Will Preach Here—Rev. C. F. Suander of Portland will preach both morning and evening at the Christian church, Central avenue and Sixth street, next Sunday. Rev. Suander and Rev. Doward, pastor of the church, are old time friends.

Will Entertain Saturday—Claude and Mildred Wilson will entertain the members of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church Saturday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wright Wilson, on 716 South Broadway.

Biltmore Men Coming—Dr. Schenck, head of the Biltmore Forest School, and forty or fifty of his students will arrive here on the next Breakwater, August 19, to remain here until September 19 in the local forests. Dr. Schenck will reside in the A. L. Barker home during his stay here while the students will be quartered around town.

Hearing Not Set—Judge Coke says that he will hear the arguments in the injunction case against the Terminal Railway whenever the lawyers are ready. It is likely that the hearing will be during the next week as Judge Coke will leave here a week from tomorrow for Curry county where he will hold court. It is likely that there will be a short term this time in Curry.

Locates at Bandon—W. S. Wells of Oregon City who has been visiting his brother, H. A. Wells, left for Portland today. He has arranged to open a drug store at Bandon and left today to purchase a stock for the new store and will return in a week or ten days to open the business at the City-by-the-Sea. He has made many friends during his short stay on the Bay and as he has been highly successful in business, his success in his new undertaking at Bandon is practically assured.

Finds Hats—Chas. Lee the night before last picked up two new hats that were floating in the Bay in the rear of the C. A. Johnson store. They had been in the water only a short time and he thought that they possibly indicated a double drowning. He brought them to D. A. Jones, thinking the latter might know who they belonged to as the hats were a new Stetson and a Castlebrand soft hat. However he did not and no one has reported anything that would indicate a drowning.

Investigate Complaint—It is understood that Chief Clerk Clarke of the United States Engineer's office at Portland who is coming here on the next Breakwater will also look into one or two complaints that have been registered against the Southern Pacific's requests to bridge the Bay between Sand Point and the mouth of Pony Inlet. The opposition to the plan is said to have been registered by property holders in and near Cooson who wish the line to come around by Cooson.

Carpenters Scarce—There is a scarcity of carpenters on the Bay just now, the many new homes being erected taking all the available men. Several projected dwellings are being held up by the inability to get men. Anson Rogers, Jr., of Coos River who was down yesterday to arrange for the construction of three new ones said that he was afraid that he would have to delay their construction on account of inability to get either carpenters or men to grade down his lots. P. M. Tully yesterday started his force on the addition to the Grandel boarding house at Bunker Hill for which he secured the contract the other day.
