Fishing is Fine—Robert Krueger who is spending his vacation on South Coos River reports the fishing fine. It is proven in a substantial manner by a basket of finny beauties which he sent to The Times with his compliments. They were especially fine.

Band Concert—Owing to the threatened rainstorm last evening, the band concert at the city park was not as largely attended as usual. The full instrumentation was not out but the program was a most excellent one and highly enjoyed by those who heard it.

Loaded Cigar Victim—Ole Oleson, a well known character about town, had his hand badly burned by a loaded cigar. Someone loaded the cigar with powder to scare him and put in too large a load with the result that it seriously injured his hand. Marshal Carter may take steps to prosecute the offender.

Not Yet Decided—Whether there will be a fourth team for the next schedule of the Coos county league has not been decided upon. Manager Schott of this city expects to receive some word tonight. Marshfield, North Bend and Coquille have so far agreed to play and it remains for Myrtle Point or Bandon to make the fourth team.

Recovers Pin—In last evening's Times, I. S. Smith inserted an ad for the recovery of a fine black and white agate belt pin which a member of his family had lost. Within a few hours after The Times was distributed, the lost pin was returned to him by R. O. Graves who had picked it up on the sidewalk near the Masonic Opera House and who ascertained the owner through The Times.

Hit by Auto—Jas. H. Cox of South Marshfield narrowly escaped serious injuries yesterday afternoon. He was coming around the corner at Broadway and Curtis and was walking across the street. E. S. Bargelt was coming up the street in his auto which was running along almost noiselessly. Mr. Bargelt did not see Mr. Cox and the latter did not notice the auto until they were very close together. The auto either knocked Mr. Cox down or he tripped, and fell when he tried to get out of the way.
