

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

Poplar Bluff, Mo. En route, they will visit at Yellowstone Park and other points of interest. Miss Lucy Horton will probably enter the University of Missouri to complete her university course which she started last year at the University of Washington at Seattle.

Mrs. W. E. Best of North Bend is spending a week or so with Mr. Best at Bandon, he being the representative of the Estabrook company there now.

Miss Hilda Stenholm who has been spending a couple of months at Oakland, San Francisco and Berkeley, Calif., is expected home soon.

Miss Gertrude Engle who has been visiting Mrs. F. A. Hazard and other friends on the Bay will leave the latter part of next week for her home in Ashland, Oregon.

Mrs. Effie Farringer and daughter, Miss Ursula, will shortly move into apartments in the Noble house at the corner of Central and Third street.

Hugh Sneddon and family are expected home in a week or ten days from their visit with Mrs. Sneddon's relatives in Nebraska. En route home they will visit at the home of a brother of Mr. Sneddon at Roslyn, Washington.

Misses Henriette, Cynthia and Ida Bear of Portland are spending a few weeks at the home of their sister, Mrs. Jas. A. Allen of North Bend.

A. B. Campbell and wife are expected home soon from their auto trip to Eugene and Roseburg and other Willamette valley points.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Huntington of Yoncalla arrived here in their auto this week for a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith.

Miss Gorman left this week for her home in Portland after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cohan.

Dr. and Mrs. Parker of Minneapolis and Miss Daniels of Seattle who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stoll left on the last Breakwater for their homes.

Mrs. R. W. Morrow will arrive from Walton, New York, about Sept. 1, to join her husband, Dr. R. W. Morrow to make a new home on Coos Bay. Mrs. Morrow will be accompanied on her trip west by a trained nurse, Miss Robinson, who may locate here also.

F. B. Waite and wife and daughters, Misses Mildred and Ethel, and son, Fen, will leave today for Gardiner where they will visit for a few days at the Clifford Benson home. They expect to leave Tuesday for their home at Sutherlin. This fall, Fen Waite and Miss Mildred, will resume their courses at the University of Oregon at Eugene while Miss Ethel will return to St. Helen's Hall at Portland to complete her preparatory course.

Mrs. E. A. Karr of Florence who has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Langdon at Bunker Hill, leaves today for her home in Florence.

Mrs. Rocco Biasca of Coos River has been the guest of Mrs. F. A. Sacchi the past week, Mr. and Mrs. Sacchi and sons, Francis and Jack, expect to leave Monday for Sacchi's beach where they will camp out for a couple of weeks.

E. W. Kammerer and family and C. F. McGeorge and family have returned from a delightful outing at Sunset.

Mrs. Mary J. Eldred returned this week from a few weeks' stay in San Francisco. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Hyland of San Francisco who will visit at her home and with other friends on the Bay for a week or ten days.

Mrs. W. A. Magee and baby returned on the last Redondo from San Francisco where they have been visiting relatives for a short time.

H. S. Tower and wife are expected home soon from San Francisco where they went to enter their daughter, Miss Nora, in the University of California, the school year at Berkeley having opened August 16. They will probably return overland as they wish to visit at Shasta, Calif., for a few days.

Rev. H. I. Rutledge and wife expect to leave next month for their old home at Muscatine, Iowa, where they will visit three or four weeks. En route east, Rev. Rutledge will attend the annual meeting of the Methodist Episcopal conference.

Fred Weaver leaves tonight for Dora to join Rufus and Frank Howe for a few weeks' outing.

Enoch Holmberg is expected here on the next Nann Smith from Bay Point where he has spent the last

SOCIAL CALENDAR

TONIGHT
Mrs. C. F. McKnight at dinner.
Mrs. D. L. Rood at dinner for Miss Engle.

MONDAY
Mrs. P. M. Wilbur at dinner
WEDNESDAY
Priscilla Club with Mrs. Henry Olson at Bunker Hill.

THURSDAY
Minnie-Wis Social Club picnic at the Pumping Station.
Social Sewing Club with Mrs. J. D. Rees.
Mrs. F. K. Gettins for Mrs. H. A. Paddock.

Miss Alma Getchel, a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory at Boston, who is visiting her cousin, Miss E. M. Brown, in North Bend will assist in the recital to be given by North Bend talent at the Presbyterian church there August 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Peck entertained at a delightfully informal dancing party at the Finnish hall Tuesday evening complimentary to the guest, Miss McChesney of Portland. About fifty couples were invited. Twelve numbers on the program with a few specials and excellent musical selections by Keyzer's orchestra made it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

Miss Ellen Rudnas is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Portland.

Misses Alpha Mauzey and Helen McLaughlin returned Thursday after a pleasant outing at the Thomas ranch at Allegany.

Mrs. D. McMillan of Chicago, Mrs. D. H. Pray of Iowa, and Mrs. Fred Bauerly, of Washington, are guests this week at the William Schrock home at North Bend. The ladies who are aunts of Mr. Schrock, have spent several weeks on the Bay, and express themselves as highly pleased with the Coos Bay people. They will leave Tuesday on the Breakwater for their homes.

Miss Ida Adams, who, for the past few months has held the position as city librarian, will leave Tuesday on the Breakwater for her home in New Hampshire, stopping on the way to visit friends in Portland and Seattle. During her stay here, Miss Adams has made many friends who regret her departure exceedingly. She is succeeded by Miss Elizabeth Topping of Portland.

Miss Frances Franse returned Thursday from a trip to Bandon where she attended the Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. E. Kelly spent a few days at Bandon this week, attending the Teachers' Institute.

J. D. Goss returned Tuesday from a trip to San Francisco, Berkeley and other California points where he went to enter his son, Roger, in the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nasburg and Mrs. Helen Gale of Medford and Russ Tower and Dr. Sether of Roseburg are guests for a few days at the L. J. Simpson home at Shore Acres.

Miss Anne Burroughs of Hoquiam, Wash., is the guest of Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend.

Mrs. D. L. Rood is entertaining at dinner this evening complimentary to Miss Gertrude Engle of Ashland, who is the guest of Mrs. Fannie Hazard. Her guests are Miss Gertrude Engle, Mrs. Fannie Hazard and Mrs. C. F. McKnight.

Mrs. E. Graef entertained at a delightfully informal dinner last evening in honor of Rev. A. F. Bassford of Corvallis, Oregon. Her guests were Rev. A. F. Bassford, Mr. and Mrs. Pape, and Miss Alice Tickell.

Mrs. George Geisendorfer entertained a few friends Thursday afternoon at sewing at her home in North Bend. After a pleasant afternoon, spent in sewing and chatting, a dainty luncheon was served. The guests were Mrs. M. E. Everitt, Mrs. L. P. Falkenstein, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Miss Schrepfer and Miss Geisendorfer.

Miss Mary Clarke left this week for Portland where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Beasle Coke will leave Monday for Berkeley, Calif., to resume her course at the University of California. Miss Signa Holm left this week for Berkeley.

Miss Eivira Frizeen expects to leave Sunday to resume her position in Portland after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Frizeen, the latter part of the time the entire Frizeen family enjoyed an outing at Ten Mile.

Ruth Duncan, Ursula Farringer, Frieda Holms and Dewey Stutman of Marshfield spent Saturday and Sunday as guests at the W. C. Harris home in Sumner.

Mrs. Mary Browning and Miss Nan Browning of Washington, D. C., are expected on the Bay soon to visit Rev. and Mrs. Browning. Rev.

Browning's mother has been quite ill for the past few months and was advised by the doctor to come to the coast for her health. Miss Browning has been engaged by Supt. Tiedgen to teach in the school here.

The Misses Alice and Anne Gray who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and J. A. Matson, will leave on the Redondo for their home in Oakland, California.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Going and children are expected home soon from a delightful outing at Ten Mile.

Mrs. J. L. Koontz and children are expected home soon from a visit with Mrs. Koontz's uncle, Capt. A. D. Hall, keeper of the Umpqua light house, near Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Murphy were mid-week guests at the J. E. Sculling home at Myrtle Point.

Mrs. A. G. Alken and Mrs. Otto Schetter are expected home next week from San Francisco where they have been visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. M. R. Smith is expected home soon from a visit with relatives and friends at Salem, Portland and other northern points.

Miss Alma Getchel, a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory at Boston, who is visiting her cousin, Miss E. M. Brown, in North Bend will assist in the recital to be given by North Bend talent at the Presbyterian church there August 27th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Peck entertained at a delightfully informal dancing party at the Finnish hall Tuesday evening complimentary to the guest, Miss McChesney of Portland. About fifty couples were invited. Twelve numbers on the program with a few specials and excellent musical selections by Keyzer's orchestra made it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

Miss Ellen Rudnas is spending a couple of weeks with friends in Portland.

Misses Alpha Mauzey and Helen McLaughlin returned Thursday after a pleasant outing at the Thomas ranch at Allegany.

Mrs. D. McMillan of Chicago, Mrs. D. H. Pray of Iowa, and Mrs. Fred Bauerly, of Washington, are guests this week at the William Schrock home at North Bend. The ladies who are aunts of Mr. Schrock, have spent several weeks on the Bay, and express themselves as highly pleased with the Coos Bay people. They will leave Tuesday on the Breakwater for their homes.

Miss Ida Adams, who, for the past few months has held the position as city librarian, will leave Tuesday on the Breakwater for her home in New Hampshire, stopping on the way to visit friends in Portland and Seattle. During her stay here, Miss Adams has made many friends who regret her departure exceedingly. She is succeeded by Miss Elizabeth Topping of Portland.

Miss Frances Franse returned Thursday from a trip to Bandon where she attended the Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. E. Kelly spent a few days at Bandon this week, attending the Teachers' Institute.

J. D. Goss returned Tuesday from a trip to San Francisco, Berkeley and other California points where he went to enter his son, Roger, in the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nasburg and Mrs. Helen Gale of Medford and Russ Tower and Dr. Sether of Roseburg are guests for a few days at the L. J. Simpson home at Shore Acres.

Miss Anne Burroughs of Hoquiam, Wash., is the guest of Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend.

Mrs. D. L. Rood is entertaining at dinner this evening complimentary to Miss Gertrude Engle of Ashland, who is the guest of Mrs. Fannie Hazard. Her guests are Miss Gertrude Engle, Mrs. Fannie Hazard and Mrs. C. F. McKnight.

Mrs. E. Graef entertained at a delightfully informal dinner last evening in honor of Rev. A. F. Bassford of Corvallis, Oregon. Her guests were Rev. A. F. Bassford, Mr. and Mrs. Pape, and Miss Alice Tickell.

Mrs. George Geisendorfer entertained a few friends Thursday afternoon at sewing at her home in North Bend. After a pleasant afternoon, spent in sewing and chatting, a dainty luncheon was served. The guests were Mrs. M. E. Everitt, Mrs. L. P. Falkenstein, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Miss Schrepfer and Miss Geisendorfer.

Miss Mary Clarke left this week for Portland where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Beasle Coke will leave Monday for Berkeley, Calif., to resume her course at the University of California. Miss Signa Holm left this week for Berkeley.

Miss Eivira Frizeen expects to leave Sunday to resume her position in Portland after a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Frizeen, the latter part of the time the entire Frizeen family enjoyed an outing at Ten Mile.

Ruth Duncan, Ursula Farringer, Frieda Holms and Dewey Stutman of Marshfield spent Saturday and Sunday as guests at the W. C. Harris home in Sumner.

Mrs. Mary Browning and Miss Nan Browning of Washington, D. C., are expected on the Bay soon to visit Rev. and Mrs. Browning. Rev.

Mrs. E. S. Bargelt was hostess Thursday afternoon at a delightful card party complimentary to the Misses Gray of Oakland, California, who are her guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas, chrysanthemums, and dahlias, carrying out the color scheme of pink. At cards Mrs. Boyd Richardson captured the first prize, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer the second, and Miss Alice Gray the consolation. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer, Mrs. A. E. Neff and Miss Grace Kruse assisting the hostess.

Among those invited were the following: Mesdames Harry Tremaine, W. S. Chandler, R. K. Booth, S. C. Small, Geo. F. Murch, Hugo Quist, C. Q. Van Duhn, S. D. Magnus, J. T. McCormac, A. J. French, W. H. Kennedy, E. E. Straw, W. S. Nicholson,

C. E. Nicholson, C. K. Perry, D. Y. Stafford, H. Sengstacken, E. O'Connell, B. M. Richardson, J. W. Bennett, A. McKeown, E. K. Jones, Wm. Ford, P. Sandberg, E. Mings, F. M. Parsons, Dorsey Kreitzer, A. L. Houseworth, W. F. Miller, F. K. Gettins, W. A. Reid, F. E. Leeffe, A. E. Neff, M. C. Maloney, H. S. Tower, W. M. Blake, A. H. Powers, F. C. Birch, R. R. Montgomery, F. E. Hague, G. W. Kaufman, A. R. O'Brien, A. E. Adelsperger, P. M. Wilbur, C. F. McKnight, W. A. Toye, E. D. McArthur, Eric Wolf, O. S. Torrey, J. H. Milner, E. F. Morrissey, C. W. Evertan, M. C. Horton, F. G. Horton, E. W. Kammerer, C. F. McGeorge, J. A. Matson, W. E. Rush, Miss Anderson, Miss Hutcheson, Miss Engle, Miss George, Miss Gray, Miss Alice Gray, Miss G. Kruse and Miss H. Merryman.

Mrs. C. F. McKnight is entertaining a few friends at dinner this evening in honor of Misses Anne and Alice Gray. Her guests were Misses Alice Gray, Anne Gray, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and Mr. George Weaver of San Francisco.

Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer was hostess at cards Tuesday afternoon complimentary to the Misses Gray of San Francisco who have been guests of Mrs. E. S. Bargelt and Mrs. J. Albert Matson. It was a delightfully informal affair. The Kreitzer home was prettily decorated for the afternoon. Light refreshments were served. Among those present were the Misses Gray, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. Eugene Crosthwait, Mrs. W. F. Miller, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Effie Farringer, Miss Maude Painter, Mrs. A. E. Neff, Mrs. F. K. Gettins, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey and Mrs. Chas. Van Duhn. The prize at cards was won by Mrs. Bargelt.

Claude Wilson and Miss Mildred Wilson will entertain the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wright Wilson at 716 South Broadway this evening.

Mrs. E. K. Jones is entertaining at Bridge this afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ford, of Portland.

Miss Agnes Hutcheson has issued invitations for cards next Tuesday afternoon.

LADIES' SWEATERS

See window display of new Fall Sweaters which we have just received.

Priced $5.00, $6.50, $7.00, $8.50, $10.00

---We invite comparison---

—"Money Talks"—

Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.

Bandon. Marshfield.

M. Friedberg entertained the first set of the South Coos River mer colony at a dance on the lawn at the Dr. McCormac home complimentary to their Miss Holmes, of California. Among those present were Eugenia Holms, Mary Kruse, Tower, Marian Seaman, Grace Williams, Alice Louise Leoy, and Mrs. McCormac, Fred McCormac, Ralph Kruse, Seaman, James McMahon, Flanagan, Jack Barry and Friedberg.

Mrs. W. S. Nicholson and those who have been camping at the will place on South Coos River to return to Marshfield week.

Mrs. D. J. Rees will entertain Social Sewing Club at her home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. O. Hansen was hostess at Social Embroidery Club Wednesday afternoon. Fancy work and conversation made the afternoon pass pleasantly. Refreshments were served. Next Wednesday, Mrs. Wiseman will entertain.

Among those present last Wednesday were Mrs. Oulmette, Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. W. K. Wiseman, Ranter, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. J. Swinford, Mrs. Carl Albrecht, Vera Albrecht, and Paul C.

About thirty young people, consisting of the members and friends of the Baptist Young People's society, enjoyed a moonlight picnic Monday evening down to Sand. The Alice H was chartered for the occasion. A very enjoyable evening was spent in chatting, singing and various other styles. Those present were Misses Ella MacLaurin, Davis, Eliza Ayre, Bessie Ayre, va Flanagan, Alice Tickell and E. Graef, Mrs. Rehfield and Dr. H. Stutman, and Messrs. Grant Ollivant, A. B. Sneve, Russ Noh, Charlie Rehfield, M. Albee, Stutman Lee Byler, Frank C. beard, Edwin Dolan, Karl C. and Dr. G. W. Leslie and Ret. J. Basford.

The moonlight picnic given today evening by the Eastside and Athletic Association, under chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hume, was one of the most enjoyable ever given by the club. Alice H was chartered and crewed with the merry crew, which was Landrith's Grove on South Coos River, where dancing by graphophone music and an immense bonfire enjoyed to say nothing of the picnic dinner that was served later in the evening.

DON'T FORGET that our shop is the BEST in COOS BAY both for REPAIRING and WORK. O. O. LUND, 215 BROADWAY.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F.

son Ralph, Mrs. Jack Davis and son William, Mrs. Lloyd Taylor and daughter Evelyn Fay, Mrs. George Gulovson and daughter Georgina Marie, Mrs. Wm. Schrock and daughter Eleanor, Mrs. Wm. Sullivan and daughter Helen, Mrs. Jane Brown and daughter Eleanor, Miss Willa Byerly and Miss Florence Cox.

Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand was hostess Thursday at a party in honor of little Miss Anna Louise Hildenbrand's fifth birthday. The children enjoyed themselves as only children can, playing games and having a general good time. Delicious refreshments were served and a birthday cake, decorated with five candles, adorned the table.

Those invited were Ena McKeown, Betty Frizeen, Catherine Going, Ruth Going, Emma Belle Stadden, Eleanor Schroeder, Viola Scaffe, Noman Going, Glen Kinney, Kenneth Foote, Billy McArthur and Jack Fenton.

Mrs. Violet Henderson leaves today to spend Sunday at the J. T. McCormac summer home.

Mrs. E. Mings and Mrs. A. J. French, who has been her guest the past week, will leave Monday for a few days' stay at the McCormac summer home on South Coos River.

Mrs. C. E. Nicholson has returned to town after a few weeks' outing at Mirac Cove, the Bartle summer home. Mrs. F. G. Horton and family and Mrs. A. T. Haines and family will occupy the Bartle place for a few weeks.

R. F. Williams and family have returned to town after a couple of weeks' outing at Rock Lodge, the C. F. McCollum summer home. Mr. Williams will resume his position as cashier in the Flanagan & Bennett Bank and take the balance of his vacation in December when he and Mrs. Williams will spend a couple of weeks with friends and relatives in San Francisco.

J. A. Luse and family have returned to town after a delightful outing on the Luse ranch.

Mrs. Helen Chandler-Tremaine and Mrs. R. K. Booth spent the latter part of the week in Marshfield after a stay at the W. S. Chandler summer home. Both Mrs. Tremaine and Mrs. Booth have not been well and will probably enter Mercy hospital next week for medical treatment.

Eugene O'Connell and family "broke camp" at the Maze Tuesday, and returned to town. They are the first ones of the regular South Coos River colony to return to town.

Mrs. Will Chandler is expected in a week or ten days from Grant, Pass, where she has been visiting relatives, to join her husband for an extended stay at the W. S. Chandler summer home.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins and her sister, Mrs. W. A. Reid, will entertain the members of the former Priscilla or "Matrimonial Club" as it was jocularly referred to during the latter part of its active existence, next Thursday in honor of Mrs. H. A. Paddock of Gladstone, Oregon, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bradley.

Mrs. E. K. Jones has issued invitations for a "Baby Party" next Monday afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ford, and little daughter, Miss Mabel.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Ostrow entertained in honor of her little daughter, Frances Eldred's, second birthday. Delicious refreshments were served, the color scheme being red and white. Among those present were Mrs. Chas. Hunter and

New Jewelry Stock

We have just received a new lot of up-to-date jewelry, both solid gold and gold filled:

BEAUTIFUL WIDE BRACELETS.
SCARF PINS WATCH FOBS CUFF PINS
LOCKETS BROOCHES RINGS
WATCHES BAR PINS NECK CHAINS

and many other pretty things. Call and see them.

Red Cross Jewelry Dept.

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS