purse which was presented to him by Mr. Bjorbeck.

Auto Line—It is expected that the roads will be in condition within a few days to enable the resumption of the auto line service via Allegany and Scottsburg to Drain.

Get Five Deer—Dr. Vaughan returned last evening from a deer hunt in the Blue Ridge country. Anson Rogers, Al Smith and Harry Jarvis were with him and they secured five.

Plan Picnic—The Blue Ridge Tigers are planning to give a picnic at Daniels Creek next Sunday and extend an invitation to all to come with their lunch baskets and enjoy a good time.

Moonlight Excursion—Frank Smith will entertain a number of friends at a moonlight excursion to the sand hills complimentary to his cousin, Miss Ellen Flock of Portland, who is visiting the Levi Smith home.

Entertain Wednesday—Mrs. F. K. Gettins and Mrs. W. A. Reid will entertain the members of the former Priscilla club Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. H. A. Paddock of Portland and Mrs. Eric Wold.

Not Bargelt—E. S. Bargelt says that it wasn't his auto that struck J. H. Cox at Broadway and Curtis, as was reported, the other day. Mr. Bargelt says that he did not run down anybody and doesn't want to be blamed for the misdeeds of other motorists even though they may drive a car similar to his.

Auto Ditched—Chas. Thom's big brewery auto truck ran off the grade in Ferndale Saturday evening but was not damaged much. A stump stopped it before it got to the bottom of the gulch. The driver had at the brake and left it for a few minutes on the steep incline and the brake loosened, allowing it to back down over the grade.

Remodel Store—Carpenters began work this morning remodeling the Coos Bay building, turning the Wool on Mill store room and the room formerly occupied by the Meyers store into one room, the additional space being needed for the increasing business of the Woolen Mill store. Manager Rotnor has plans for making the enlarged quarters the finest store room in Southern Oregon.

Attend Races—F. P. Norton and his niece, Miss Edith Preston, are leaving for various Willamette Valley points where they will take in the fall races. He expects his horses to race at Scio, Salem State Fair, Medford and Eugene. He takes Nearest N, Velma Z, Harry N. and Billy Murray. D. L. Rood will have charge of the road work in this district during Mr. Norton's absence.

Broke Arm—Joe McCahey, a well known Coos Bay man, sustained a bad break of his left arm last Friday night by a fall on North Front street. He was taken to Mercy hospital yesterday. The arm is broken in two places between the shoulder and elbow and will have to be wired to save it, necessitating an operation as soon as the swelling is reduced sufficiently to permit it.

Old Pioneer Here—James D. Asher, a pioneer of this county is visiting here on business. He lived in Coos county twenty years ago. Mr. Asher is an old friend of Postmaster Curtis and is known to many others of the old residents. He is here as deputy state organizer for the U. S. Association of Stationary Engineers and will form a branch of the order in this county.

Fine Dance—One of the largest and most select crowds that ever gathered to a dance in Marshfield was in attendance at the dance given Saturday evening at the Eagles' hall by Keyzer's orchestra. The music was excellent, the latest dance selections being rendered by the excellent orchestra which Lew Keyzer has organized. The dance was the first of a series, the next of which will be given next Saturday evening. F. E. Wilson who had charge of the band dances was floormaster.

Found Insane—Judge John F. Hall returned Saturday evening from Coquille where he was called to examine Harry Rhodes for insanity. Rhodes was found insane and ordered committed to the state hospital. He was sent up about three months ago but was discharged and since his return, grew violent again. He is about thirty-eight years old and single. Physicians attribute the loss of his mind to alcoholism, he having been heavily addicted to it in the east where he conducted a saloon. He came to Coquille about two years ago and sometime ago became very religious. He declares that he is the "Second Son of God and that Moses is his father."
