

HARD TRIP TO SPEAK HERE

F. W. Mulkey Delayed by Bad Roads—Ben Selling at the Meeting.

W. F. Mulkey of Portland, Progressive Candidate for United States Senator from Oregon, left today via Drain for his home after an over Sunday campaign in this section. He planned to address an audience at the Odd Fellows hall Saturday evening but owing to the bad roads, he was so late in reaching here that the audience did not remain. However, he secured an auto and delivered a short talk on the corner of Front and Market, a crowd of nearly two hundred hearing him expound the issues of the campaign.

The meeting was peculiar. Ben Selling, the regular republican candidate for United States senator who also arrived Saturday night, happened to be in the crowd, and good naturedly introduced Mr. Mulkey, saying that he had known him many years, had served with him in public positions and found him to be a very good man. Mr. Selling said that being a candidate himself, he wished the votes of all but if anyone did not care to vote for him (Selling) he said they would find Mr. Mulkey worthy of their support.

Mr. Mulkey's address was devoted largely to an explanation of the New Party, why he followed in it and why he believed it should succeed. He was given a very attentive hearing and is a good speaker although the hard trip made it difficult for him to talk. In closing, he returned Ben Selling's bouquet, saying that all who could not support him would find Mr. Selling worthy of their votes.

Yesterday, Mr. Mulkey met quite a number of the local men and expressed regret that he could not remain longer in this section. However, he has accepted an invitation to speak at the Peach Festival in Freewater, Umatilla county, August 22 and at a meeting of the Umatilla County Progressives in Pendleton August 23, so he had to cut his stay short here. He declared he was confident that Col. Roosevelt would carry Oregon again and said that a strong campaign would be made by the Progressives as soon as their organization was perfected. Geo. F. Rodgers of Salem is acting chairman and Dr. Coe is assisting.

Mr. Mulkey said that he planned a hard campaign in behalf of his own candidacy and would tour the state by auto this fall. He doubted his ability to visit Coos County again. He said he visited here in 1907 and was surprised to see the remarkable advancement that had been made without a railroad. He said that Coos county was the coming section of Oregon and declared his belief that the Hill lines would have a road in here before the Harriman lines have and that both would be in soon. In this connection, he declared that the people of Coos Bay should guard their waterfront and grant no franchises near it except ones that carried common user provisions. He said that Portland now was experiencing the necessity of it, East Portland shippers suffering a severe handicap because of the lack of this protection when the Southern Pacific secured its franchises there.

Mr. Mulkey said that although the trip was a hard one, he had enjoyed it. Harry Hoy met him at Myrtle Point with an auto and escorted him to Marshfield.

Local politics are beginning to warm considerably and some of the lineups are peculiar. Now, W. A. Reid is taking the lead in the Bull Moose movement here and was prominent in aiding F. W. Mulkey, during his visit here, while his brother-in-law, F. K. Gettins spent much of his time with Ben Selling, the regular republican candidate for senator during Mr. Selling's stay here.

BEN SELLING VISITS CITY

Republican Candidate United States Senator Sees Coos Bay Voters.

Ben Selling, the republican candidate for United States senator, arrived in the city Saturday night and was putting in the day Sunday meeting the people of the locality. J. S. Barton of Coquille, the republican candidate for legislature, and F. K. Gettins, were with Mr. Selling part of the day. The candidate went to the North Bend picnic and managed to see a large number of people during the day.

Mr. Selling did not make any speeches. He said: "I do not go on oratory. I do not think the people care to hear me talk about political principals. What the people want in this locality is work on their harbor and development of the community. You have a great harbor here and all you want is some government work to make it better. There is only one way to do when you want government aid and that is just to keep on asking until you get it. You must ask for what you want from the government."

Mr. Selling seemed much impressed with this part of the state and the future before it. The question of real estate prices was being discussed in the presence of Mr. Selling. He told of an incident of an enormous price being paid recently for a piece of property in another city as an illustration of the wonderful increases made in real estate values in the west.

"I came to Portland," said Mr. Selling, "when that city was the size of Marshfield so you see that within the career of one man it is possible for a city the size of Marshfield to grow to one the size of Portland. You have a great future here."

SOCIALISTS GIVE A FINE PICNIC

Two Thousand Attend Sunday Gathering At Simpson Park in North Bend.

The Socialist picnic held at the Simpson park in North Bend Sunday was a big success. It was an all day affair and was largely attended. It was estimated that about 2,000 including men, women and children were on the grounds. The fine park is an admirable place for a picnic and everyone enjoyed a pleasant day. It was an orderly crowd and every provision had been made to provide a pleasant outing.

The North Bend band furnished music from 10 a. m. until 6 p. m. and after supper time the North Bend orchestra furnished music for dancing which continued until midnight. The dancing in the big pavilion continued all day and in the evening was one of the main features. During the forenoon a speech was made by W. E. Weaver of Marshfield. Picnic dinners were eaten at noon and again in the evening. A stand on the grounds was arranged where lunch could be bought by those who did not bring their own dinners.

Automobiles ran from Marshfield to the park so there was quick transportation for those from Marshfield who wanted to attend. The Socialist locals of Marshfield and North Bend joined in holding the picnic. Tickets at the gate were sold for ten cents and each and every ticket could be used as a ballot to vote for the most popular woman on the grounds. This honor was conferred upon Mrs. Alfred Hill. The picnic was in every way a success and was one of the most largely attended outdoor events that has been held in North Bend for a long time.

LOSES GAME TO NORTH BEND

Snead, a New Pitcher, in the Box for the Marshfield Team.

North Bend defeated Marshfield yesterday at North Bend by a score of four to three in one of the snappiest games of the season. Snead, a St. Mary's college man who is here with the Southern Pacific survey party, was in the box for Marshfield and pitched right-edged ball up to the seventh inning when he let up a little and North Bend scored three runs. Another run in the eighth gave them the victory.

In the seventh, a few hits filled the bases and a mean bounder went over Burke's head. Two men scored and a long throw by Johnson from center failed to stop the third. Marshfield scored one in the first inning, one in the third and one in the fifth.

The lineup: North Bend—Connors, C; Maloney, p; Kissam, 1b; J. Gaffney, 2b; Young, ss; Wallace, 3b; Bjurbeck, lf; Parton, cf; Heath, rf. Marshfield—Abbott, c; Snead, p; Landers, 1b; Briggs, 2b; Burke, ss; Hill, 3b; Woods, lf; Johnson, cf; Cowan, rf.

League Uncertain. It is still uncertain about the re-organization of the Coos county league for another series and the chances are that it will not be effected. Nothing further has been heard from the Coquille valley as to what they want to do about it.

Next Sunday, Marshfield will probably play North Bend here for a $100 side bet. The game has not been finally agreed upon but it will probably be arranged in a day or two. A crowd of about three hundred was out for yesterday's game.

VISITS OLD HOME

"Happy Smith," Baseball Player, is at Coquille

The Coquille Valley Sentinel says: "Happy" Smith who has been playing right field with the big leagues on the "outside" and who has made good everywhere he has played, returned to Coquille last Friday from La Grande and will remain to rest up until after New Years. Happy was born in Coquille twenty-seven years ago, and had his first baseball experience on the diamond in Coos county. He has always loved the game and has been a hard worker. While working for the old Johnson mill over ten years ago, he and Chas. Baxter, now president of the Coos County League, used to run every day from the mill to town and back again for the purpose of keeping in proper physical condition of the game.
