Enjoy Social—Members of the Epworth League of the Marshfield Methodist church last evening enjoyed a moonlight picnic at Enegren's Grove.

Leave Today—Among those leaving on the Allegany-Drain auto line were E. C. Yoakam, W. J. Horn, U. N. Hoffman, George Mason and H. W. Painter.

On Picnic Today—Rev. Doward and a large party, consisting of members of the Christian church Sunday school, left this morning for South Coos River, where they will picnic today.

Call Meeting—F. A. Sacchi has called a meeting of the North Star Relief committee to be held at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce next Saturday evening to discuss various matters.

Selling Here—Ben Selling arrived here this afternoon from a trip down the Coquille and to Curry county in behalf of his candidacy for United States senator. He will leave tomorrow via Drain for home.

Sends Card—Harry Bradfield this morning received a card from Robert Marsden, Sr., who is now at Southport, Eng. Mr. Marsden picked out a postal showing two musicians and suggested that Director Penton try and get them for the Coos Bay band.

Buy Home Sites—The Southern Oregon company through the Statesman agency has just sold several lots on Nob Hill, near the end of Highland avenue, to local parties who intend to build homes there in the near future. Among those buying were C. F. McKnight, Hugo Quist, Sam Lando, W. K. Wiseman and Mrs. Fannie Hazard.

Pension Changes—Senator Chamberlain has introduced a bill providing for an increase in the pension of A. G. Aiken of Marshfield from $8 to $16 per month. The bill has passed two readings and will doubtless become a law. Senator Chamberlain also secured an increase from $8 to $16 in the pension of Anderson Wright, the Sumner pioneer. The two are Indian war veterans.

Norton in Roseburg—The Roseburg Review says: "F. P. Norton, the Marshfield horseman, arrived here Monday night with two pacers and two trotters with which he will make the Northwest fair's circuit this fall. He leaves tomorrow with his string for the Linn county fair at Seilo, thence he goes to the Salem fair at Salem and afterwards to the District Fair at Eugene."

Has Operation—Mrs. Eugene O'Connell last evening received a telegram from Mrs. F. E. Hague stating that Mr. Hague underwent an operation at Rochester, Minn., yesterday morning and was getting along fine. The operation was performed by Dr. Mayo and Mrs. Hague wired that it was very successful, news that will be most gratifying to their many friends on the Bay.

 Mrs. F. K. Gettins for Mrs. H. A. Paddock.

Equitable Rating Bureau, arrived here last evening to check up the fire insurance rates in Marshfield. Where improvements have been made that will reduce the fire hazard, he will order a reduction in rates but where the hazard has been increased, he will order a raise. Generally, it is expected, there will be a reduction.

Buy Ranch—Gust Carlson of Ten Mile yesterday purchased the Makkir ranch at Ten Mile from Alex Johnson, the administrator of the estate. There were about five acres in the tract and the price was $700.

Leave Today—Wm. Horsman and his bride left this afternoon in their auto for Coquille valley points from where they will motor to California on their honeymoon trip. They were wed last evening at the Marshfield Methodist church parsonage, the Rev. H. I. Rutledge officiating. Only immediate relatives of the bride, formerly Miss Clara Rehfeld, her parents, F. W. Rehfeld and wife being present, at the romantic culmination of an acquaintance of three weeks.

All Free—The Blue Ridge Tigers telephoned last evening that the refreshment booth on the picnic grounds at Enegren's Grove Sunday would serve light refreshments free, it being understood that all who desired big picnic dinners bring their lunch baskets. Besides this, they notified Professor Raymond, who is in general charge of the affair that no "ragging" would be permitted and that liquors and intoxicated persons would be kept off the grounds.

Family Reunion—Judge D. L. Watson and wife and children enjoyed a sort of a family reunion at the Watson home at Coos City yesterday, most of the children being home on their vacations. All were present except County Clerk James Watson who was compelled to remain at Coquille. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Folsom of Marshfield, Misses Dorothy and Laura Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson and children of Coquille and Nell Watson.

Accompny Body—Harvey Wells, the well known Portland general insurance agent, arrived in last evening from Roseburg on one of his regular visits to this territory and today is busy shaking hands with his many friends here. His stay on the Bay will be cut short by a request that he meet the body of Gen. B. Merrick, the Portland postmaster who was suddenly stricken at Lakeview yesterday, at Roseburg and accompany it to Portland. Mr. Wells says that the Coos county end of the Roseburg road is in much better condition than the Douglas county end.

Stop at North Bend—Dr. Bartle, president of the North Bend Commercial Club, has written the committee in charge of the arrangements for the Shriners big doings here in September asking that North Bend be permitted to entertain the Shriners for a short time. The committee consisting of Messrs. Welstead, Kaufman and Reigard, have notified him that the Shriners will stop at North Bend from 9:30 to 10:45 on the morning of September 4 while en route to the clam bake at the beach and will be pleased to accept the courtesies of North Bend. Yesterday the committee and Judge Hall and Supervisor Grout found that the road to the beach was in fairly good shape and the few bad places will be put in repair by Supervisor Grout at once.

Suit Over Auto Bill—The case of Fred Neime who runs an auto, against Henry Huggins, was tried by a jury in Justice Pennock's court yesterday afternoon. Neime was suing for a bill of $15 for taking a party in an auto. Huggins did not object to the amount of the bill but claimed that the others in the auto should pay and that he was willing to pay his share only. The jury decided for the plaintiff and gave judgment for the amount sued for. It is announced that Mr. Huggins will appeal the case and call in the others in the auto party as witnesses or parties to the suit.

Equal Suffrage Speaker—Mrs. Clara Berwick Colby, representing the College Equal Suffrage League, is in the city. She will speak at North Bend Friday and in this city Saturday and in each place will probably deliver an afternoon and evening address. She will speak in behalf of Amendment No. 1. Mrs. Colby has just returned home from the Coquille Valley. She organized suffrage leagues at Bandon, Coquille and Myrtle Point. A meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken who invites all ladies interested to call at her home informally and meet Mrs. Colby.
