COOS SHIPMENTS LEAD

COOS BAY'S importance as a lumber shipping port is shown by some recent figures printed in the Pioneer Western Lumberman of San Francisco. The figures are given to show the amount of lumber received at the port of San Francisco during a given period from the shipping points of the Pacific coast. It is quite gratifying to note that Coos Bay comes in the lead, having shipped more lumber to San Francisco than any other coast ports. The figures show the receipts from July 31 to 29. The amounts of fir and spruce received from some of the ports making the largest shipments were as follows: Coos Bay 8,660,000 ft. Grays Harbor 6,280,000 Columbia River 3,180,000 Willapa Bay 3,910,000 Astoria 2,425,000

CHEERING UP

Aunt Susan's joined the Sunshine Sisters, a cheerup club in town, and nothing, from cyclonic twisters to earthquakes, makes her frown. The rain comes down; I sit repining; "Oh, put your grief to flight! Somewhere," she says, "the sun is shining, and skies are blue and bright!" The sun is hot and I am frying; Aunt Susan heaves a smile. "Somewhere," she says, "the snow is flying, and chilblains are in style!" I have the intermittent glanders; Aunt Susan hears me groan; "somewhere," she says, "in Spain or Flanders, that ailment is unknown." When wintry blizzards swat the highlands and zigzag through the vales, "somewhere," she'll say in tropic islands, there are no nipping gales! "I know my aunt's reflections merry should make my spirit glad; alas—man is so blamed contrary!—they only make me mad. When all my rags with sweat are wringing, and I am prone to swear, what boots it that the birds are singing on swaying boughs somewhere? I tell you what, O men and brothers, ye sons of liberty, when in the heat man gasps and smothers, he wants some sympathy; it lightens not the heat that's smothering his spirit to despair, to hear that purple waves are washing on coral shores somewhere.

gineer Hoey, Mr. Hunsaker now being connected with the construction department of the Southern Pacific under Mr. Hoey. VERN BARKER and Wm. Newman have returned from their auto trip to Klamath Falls where they were called by the illness of Mr. Newman's brother. Mr. Newman is an employee of the Smith-Powers Logging company. They report a fine auto ride, although the road in places was hard to travel. E. W. KAMMERER, C. F. McGeorge and a party of friends left this afternoon for the lower Bay to enjoy some salmon trout fishing. With the fine record they established at Sunset Bay, they confidently expect to bring back full creel, that would make the other would-be fishermen turn green with envy.

ACTIVITY IN FIRST ADDITION

Street grading and other improvements in First Addition to Marshfield are being prosecuted vigorously by the Reynolds Development company. For several weeks a large force of men have been engaged there in clearing streets and brushing off some of the most available blocks. The grading of streets will be carried on as long as the season permits. The work now in progress includes the grading of Washington, California and Idaho Avenues and a part of Southwest Boulevard.

The Reynolds Development company reports a good demand for lots in First Addition. Many of the sales recently made have been to parties who intend to build homes on their lots either this summer or next spring.

The street work being done by the Reynolds Development company adds to the aggregate of street improvement being done in Marshfield this year, all of which will mark 1912 as a banner year in this substantial form of advancement.

A NEW POET.

Editor Times:— I notice you are printing poetry written by Walt Mason and Bob Stanley and thought I would submit one of my compositions. If you think this worthy of publication, I may come again!

A TALE WITH A MORAL

"Our neighbor drowned his Thomas cat for reasons all his own; then he was sorry for the deed—he felt so sad and lone."

"Next week he advertised for one and before he got replies, the old cat turned up home again—it pays to advertise."

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

PORT ELECTION

Editor Times: Next Tuesday the people will organize a Port and select a Commission. What is in the mind of the voter as to the real object and purpose of the creation of the Port? Is it primarily the preservation of the integrity and the development of Coos Bay as a harbor? If this be its true function, would it not be well for the candidates to answer the following questions? Are you in the employ of the Southern Pacific, or other railroad company, in any capacity, or other corporation which may try to secure a monopoly of our waterfront? Do you own tide lands on Coos Bay? Are you in favor of securing to the Port water frontage in sufficient quantity to prevent any corporation or individual from obtaining a monopoly on the same, and providing for future shipping demands and preserving the integrity of Coos Bay? Do you regard the deepening of the channel from Isthmus Inlet to the ocean, to permit vessels drawing twenty-six feet or more, to carry full cargoes, the primary object, and will you work to accomplish this end? —PROGRESSIVE (J. D. McNeil)

FRECKLE-FACE

New Remedy That Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing. Here's a chance Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength, from any first class druggist and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Robert W. Herter, Lawrenceville, Mo., who had been bothered with kidney trouble for two years, says: "I tried three different kinds of kidney pills but with no relief. My neighbor told me to use Foley Kidney Pills. I took three bottles of them, and got a permanent cure. I recommend them to everybody." Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., "The Busy Corner."
