

Tearing Down

THE carpenters are busy tearing down the walls to accommodate our rapidly growing business. Our store will soon be double its former size. While this growing process is taking place we are receiving heavy shipments of Fall Clothing from our Eastern manufacturers.

We can show you a lot of new Suits already, Clothes that have a lot of distinction of style about them that isn't found with most Clothes you see.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

design them that way; smart style; they give a man an air of quality which none but the best Clothes can give. We sell these Clothes because they are the best kind for you to wear.

Suits $20 to $35.

BORN.
FULLEY—Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pulley of Bangor, Tuesday, August 21, an eight-pound daughter.

Building House—H. C. Noble is starting the construction of another residence near Fourth and Hall avenue where he has two or three other residences.

Leave on Auto—Alex Johnson, Mrs. Alex Johnson, Victor Carlson, M. Lewis, Mrs. Lewis, Roy Morgan and Mrs. Roy Morgan left on the Allegany-Drain auto line this morning.

Make Contribution—D. C. Green, chairman of the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce soliciting funds to defray the expense of the Port election, was notified today by Supt. W. F. Miller that the Southern Pacific would contribute $100 towards the fund.

Married Here—B. F. Mattison and Miss Clyde A. Scott of Bandon were united in marriage by Rev. Z. O. Doward of the Christian church at the parsonage last evening. The happy couple, after remaining in the city for a few days will return to their future home by the sea.

Carter's Roundup—Marshal Carter has been making a roundup of cattle and horses the last couple of days. Joe Hauser paid $2.50 penalty for a horse, Andrew Christensen of Ferndale paid $2.50 for a cow, Fourler Brothers paid $7.50 for three cows and Chas. Lund paid $2.50 for a horse.

Will Give Entertainment—An entertainment is to be given in this city Sept. 6, for the benefit of the public library. It will be managed by Professor Beggs, who will introduce his dancing pupils and will give a fine program of fancy dances. Seven of his pupils who are to graduate this year and receive diplomas are to take part in the entertainment.

Lecture Saturday Night—Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby, the Equal Suffragist who is here to aid in the campaign to secure the right of the ballot for women, will hold a meeting at the Marshfield Baptist church Saturday evening to present the views of the suffragettes. Friday evening, she will address a meeting at North Bend and Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Henry Sengstacken.

Here on Visit—N. F. Throne, who formerly was located on Coos Bay, is here on a visit. Mr. Throne is now located at Ashland. He came to Coos Bay in 1906 but his health failed him and he went to Arizona where he was much benefitted. He is now enjoying good health. Mr. Throne said he would not hesitate about coming back to Coos Bay to live but he cannot stand the low altitude.

Deal for Property—It is reported today that eastern parties are negotiating with the Southern Oregon company for the purchase of the entire New Bedford Addition. The addition includes the property on Telegraph Hill and was platted some time ago by the Southern Oregon company but none of it has ever been sold. It embraces the old cemetery, over which there is a clash between the city and the Southern Oregon company.

Enjoy Picnic—A number of the older residents left on the Buffalo Bill this morning for South Coos River where they will enjoy a day's outing. The affair is in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Asher who are here from Portland for a visit. Among those going were E. A. Anderson and family, Del Cathcart and wife, Jas. Ferry and family, Ivy Condran and wife, W. B. Curtis and wife and E. O. Hall.

Stutsman Leaves—Claude Stutsman and wife left this morning with Wm. Horsman and wife on their auto trip down the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Stutsman expect to be gone about three months during which Mr. Stutsman's brother will take charge of the fire engine. The departure of the party was delayed by the fact that Mr. Horsman had damaged his auto quite badly by running without cylinder oil.

Potato Blight—Anson Rogers who was going from Coos River yesterday reports that the potato crop along the river has been seriously damaged by a blight, a peculiar disease which affects the vines and injures the product. He noticed it among his vines yesterday and figures it will cost him upwards of $1000 in damage to his crop alone and others will suffer proportionately. The potato crop in Coos county may be short as a result of the damage to the crop.

AMONG THE SICK.

James Marsden is reported to be much improved at Mercy hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis a few days ago.

E. W. Schrock of Empire, who underwent a surgical operation and who has been in Mercy hospital for some time past, has recovered sufficiently that he is able today to leave the hospital and be taken to his home.

F. A. Laise, who has been confined in the hospital at North Bend for the past week, is able to be out.
