

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S WORLD

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 133. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

Where the ocean billows roar
On the shore,
Where the folks are on the beach
Side by side,
Let us seek a seaside cot
(Charming spot)
Where to live the simple life
Far from strife.

For two hundred bones a week,
What we seek
Can be found where breezes cool
Are the rule.
There, in beautiful bathing garb
We can pose;
There's the place to plot and plan
For a man.
There will be a fancy ball;
We shall call
On two hundred folks or so
Whom we know;
Luncheons, soirees, cards and teas,
Things like these,
Give the simple life a touch
Relished much.

Yes, the simple life for us,
Void of fuss,
Full of comfort and content,
Till we've spent
All our money—then, ah me!
We must flee;
We must quit the ocean foam
And go home!

HONOR MISS FLOOK
Monday evening, Frank Smith entertained at a moonlight excursion complimentary to his cousin, Miss Ellen Flook of Portland, who is a guest at the Levi Smith home. The party went on the Alice H to Sand Point and there enjoyed an immense bonfire, and a picnic lunch. Those going were Misses Ellen Flook, Olivia Risley, A. Witt, Ruth Cowan, Myrtle Cowan and Messrs. Cell Ireland, E. E. Smith, George Seelig, Ray Ollivant, Frank Smith, and Mrs. Dowden, Mrs. J. E. Cowan, Mrs. E. M.
