Breaks Arm—Paul Arnot, a six-year-old boy at Cooston, suffered a compound fracture of his right arm, by a fall on the walk there last evening.

Moves to Mine—P. Hennessey has moved his family to Henryville where he has charge of the new coal mine. Mr. Hennessey has rented his city residence.

Driving Piling—Toots Noble is today arranging to start driving piling on North Front street for the balance of the Terminal Railway's track south of the Alliance warehouse.

Leave Today—The outgoing passengers on the Drain-Allegany auto line this morning were John D. Goss, E. N. Smith, B. R. Utter, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Magnes, C. H. Coddling and R. K. Booth.

May Have Football—There is some talk of having a foot ball team in Marshfield this fall. Among the Biltmore students are some good players and it is likely enough material can be brought together to have a good team.

Will Have Clam Bake—The Biltmore students who are in the city will give a clam bake a week from next Saturday at the beach. They are planning to have a big time. Dr. Haydon will probably prepare the feast for the boys.

Hits Snag.—The steamer Alert ran on a snag just below the Ed Noah place, on her way down from Allegany this morning. The passengers were picked up by John Hendrickson's launch, Agnes H. No serious damage was done, the boat being gotten off in a short time.

At Reno—In a card to The Times, Geo. Goodrum says he and his auto party are taking in the sights at Reno, Nev., and expect to reach Coos Bay about September 1. Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall and Miss Frances Williams are with him. The card was dated at Reno August 24.

Buys Beale Ranch.—Matt Justron of Ferndale has purchased the Beale ranch on Coos River opposite the Anson Rogers place. The ranch is a fine one. Mr. and Mrs. Justron will move to the ranch at once. Their daughter, Mrs. E. Don McCreary and her husband will occupy the Justron house in Ferndale.

Shrine Decorations.—Messrs. Harrigan and Welstead have had a large amount of bunting and other material brought here for the special decorations for the Shriners next week. The Shrine colors are yellow, red and black and it is expected that the first of the decorations will be put up in a day or two.

Courtney Case Up.—J. D. Goss, E. N. Smith, Chas. Coddling and R. K. Booth left this morning for Portland to attend the trial of the case instituted against the bondsmen of W. F. Matthews, receiver of the Courtney mill, for $42,000 for wrongful handling of the property. The suit was instituted by Mr. Goss in behalf of the creditors and the other men going with him are witnesses for him.

Files Demurrer.—E. H. Joehnk was in North Bend today to argue a demurrer in Justice Shuster's court against a verdict returned there against Constable W. B. Cox and in favor of N. H. Welling for $200. The damages were awarded on account of a seizure of Welling's tailorshop by Cox on an attachment from Justice Pennoek's court. It is claimed that the Justice besides the damages of $200 ordered the return of Welling's stock, making the verdict something like $400, or in excess of the $250 verdict to which the law limits justice courts.

Finds Stearite.—E. C. Barker came in last evening from Gravel Ford where he has been spending the summer. While there he did some mining and found a deposit which he thought was graphite. He also discovered a ledge of hard, marble-like stone which has been declared to be stearite, a rock especially valuable for fire-places and similar uses. Mr. Barker will take charge of the Red Cross jewelry department work while O. H. Wilson goes on a camping trip down the coast. Mrs. Barker is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, at Allegany. Mr. Barker is planning to open a jewelry store of his own here this fall.

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. Helen Chandler-Tremaine who recently underwent an operation at Mercy hospital is recuperating rapidly and will be able to return to her home soon.
