LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.
The tide is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 24 minutes.

May Build--Supt. F. A. Tiedgen is planning to build a fine new home here and is now arranging to get the lots in readiness.

Will Give Picnic--The Ross Inlet Sunday School will give a picnic to the lower Bay tomorrow, the launch Alice H. being chartered for the occasion.

Postpone Picnic--The Kenwill Telephone Company's picnic which was to have been held tomorrow has been postponed until September 7th, one week from tomorrow.

Will Mine for Gold--J. V. Hobson and L. E. Matthews have returned from Curry county where they staked out some mining claims. They are in a locality where Mr. Hobson discovered gold twenty-seven years ago. He lost some money in a former attempt to get the gold out but now thinks there are excellent prospects to put in a stamp mill and erect buildings at a cost of about $20,000.

Brings Sheep.--The Osprey arrived in today from Rogue River, bringing a large number of sheep for Fourier Brothers' Market.

Takes Option.--August Carlson, of North Coos River, was a Marshfield business visitor today. He reports that he recently gave J. D. Jones an option on his three lots in the southwest corner of Sixth and Bennett.

Will Preach Sunday.--Rev. A. F. Bassford of Corvallis, Oregon, who has been called to fill the pastorate of the Marshfield Baptist church, will preach Sunday morning and evening.

Stops Auto Service.--Owing to the rain last night and today, the auto service on the Allegany-Drain line was discontinued until the roads are better.

Change in Business.--Oscar Gulovson has sold his interest in the delivery business to his brother, Geo. Gulovson, who will conduct it alone. Oscar and Doc Gulovson plan to leave soon for Portland where they may locate.

Harvesting cranberries.--The cranberry crop on North Inlet is being harvested. At the Pinkerton, Gibbs, Small and Lyons ranches a large number of men and women are employed. The crop will be good this year and the growers will make a handsome profit.

Alter Store.--Extensive alterations are being made in the Hub Clothing and Shoe Store to accommodate a larger stock. The rear is being changed to glass, affording better lighting, and a new front will be put in.

New Agents.--Harvey Wells while on the Bay last week appointed W. A. Reid local agent for the Protector Underwriters and August Frizeen agent for the Equitable Insurance Alliance. He did not change the agency of the Phoenix of Hartford, which Tom Hall has represented on the Bay for a long time.

Library Entertainment.--Owing to the fact that several companies are scheduled to appear at the Opera House next week and the management having only two plates of the house, the reserved seats for the Library Benefit entertainment will not be placed on sale until Wednesday, Sept. 4, at the "Busy Corner."

Men Known Here.--J. B. Hassett, the expert whose report caused the closing of the business of the Continental Building and Loan Association at San Francisco, is quite well known here. He is the man who succeeded the late W. E. Baines as secretary of the local railroad under the administration of R. A. Graham. William Corbin, the man who was secretary and general manager of the defunct loan association, is the man who promotes Corbin City in Curry county where a saw mill was built and an attempt made to build a wharf.
