

Workmen, Teams and Scrapers

Are now at work on the streets in First Addition to Marshfield. Go out and see the dirt fly. It's something new in the history of Marshfield. This addition is the first ever put on the market on Coos Bay where the owning company improved the streets before offering the lots for sale to the public. This is of general interest as indicating that the growth of the city demands more room for its immediate expansion; and it is of special interest to you if you are contemplating the purchase of a home-site.

During the last week the building of two more residences in First Addition was commenced, one a six-room bungalow and the other a five-room modern house. Several sales of lots to other home-builders were made in the past few days. And the street work will convince many more who are now considering buying in

First Addition to Marshfield

That this is the high grade residence addition of the city. Every encouragement is offered to the buyer:

- (1) Large lots, 50 by 120 feet.
- (2) Graded streets, all paid for by the company.
- (3) Low prices, $300 per lot.
- (4) Easy terms, $25 cash and $10 a month.
- (5) Low interest rate, only 6 per cent.
- (6) Other benefits which a company with large real estate interests can secure when conditions justify.

Come out and see the dirt fly. Call at the office week days, or walk out on the South Fifth Street pavement past the baseball park.

Poem By Bishop Scadding

Oregon

Charles Scadding

The soothing hush of cool Pacific's waves,
The odors sweet of cedars,—Orford's gift;
The deep blue lakes, and winding rivers swift;
The sanded shores which bright Columbia laves,
And stemming seaward maidenlike behaves,
Joyous and happy in its sprightly course;
Willamette from the Cascade's frozen source;
The mighty rocks, and labyrinthine caves;
The stately firs, the scent of roses rare;
The native grape, luxuriant, brilliant, wild;
The slopes of apple blossoms, and of pear;
The giant mountains which in white robes stand;
For these, and by these many charms beguiled,
I love thee, Oregon, thou beautiful land.

INTERESTING FIGURES ON COOS BAY SHIPPING

Some interesting figures are shown by reports of the shipmen from Coos Bay which have been prepared for prospective railroad builders who have asked for data concerning the place. The report of the Port of Coos Bay gives the figures for the year 1911 and for the first six months of 1912. Engineer Leefer has furnished figures showing the shipment. The figures show a bigger business than many might supposed the bay enjoyed.

First Six Months 1912.

NEW CITY HALL

Coquille Will Borrow $8,000 for the Purpose.

Coquille is to have a new city hall and has taken the steps necessary to raise the money. At the last meeting of the council there was passed an ordinance which authorizes the council to borrow $8,000 for municipal purposes. It is provided that this money may be borrowed on warrants numbered from 1 to 16 and of a denomination of $500 each, bearing 6 per cent interest and payable two each in their order every year until all are paid, the money to be used for the purpose of building the city hall.
