The following are the local members of the Shriners who are looking after the local features of the gathering:

The Shriners are arriving today on the pilgrimage of Hillah Temple from Ashland to this city. It is the midsummer pilgrimage extraordinary of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and it is quite an unusual event in view of the fact that it is the farthest west point chosen for a pilgrimage and it is seldom that an event of the kind is attempted in a place which is not reached by a railroad.

Unfortunately Coos county was visited with rains which were uncommon for this time of the year and the roads were in bad shape but the Shriners in their automobiles are making the trip the mountains from Roseburg where they held a big meeting Saturday night. It was a difficult trip for the roads are in very bad shape but the visitors are pushing on through. So far eighteen autos have left Roseburg and this afternoon eight had arrived in the city with about forty visitors. Probably a number of the travelers will stop at Myrtle Point and take the train from that point. They have until tomorrow noon to reach here so most of the Shriners who started will probably get here some way or other.

A Hard Trip

Some of the machines turned back and the passengers were taken up by other heavier autos which were making the trip with less difficulty. The heavy condition of the roads caused a number of the autos to break down.

It is expected that a number who went from Roseburg by train to Portland will arrive here on the Breakwater. It is expected that there will be sixty to seventy-five Shriners here from out of town.

Begins Tomorrow.

At the Masonic hall tomorrow there will be an open dinner from noon until 7 o'clock in the evening. Dinner will be served continuously during these hours. In the evening the ceremonies will be held. There are about fifty members to be initiated here. The clam bake at the beach follows Wednesday. Special invitations have been issued and the clam bake is only for those who receive invitations.

EDWIN LENET IS DROWNED

Young Man Loses His Life While Bathing In Bay Sunday.

Edwin Lenet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lenet who resides at Centerville, just north of Ferndale, was accidentally drowned while bathing in the bay Sunday afternoon. The young man was eighteen years old and was employed in the Gazoot Printery in this city. He also worked part of the time for Fred Bachman who conducts a poultry plant north of the city. The father is employed as oiler at the Porter mill.

Sunday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock Edwin Lenet and his brother, Chester, aged 15 years, started for the bay to swim. It was a regular Sunday afternoon sport with the boys and they stopped at the Bachman place and asked Mr. Bachman to go with them. Edwin remarked that he had eaten a very hearty dinner and Mr. Bachman suggested that it might not be well for him to go in swimming so soon after eating. The three went to the O'Connell wharf near the stove mill and after a short time Edwin and Mr. Bachman went in swimming. The boy had dived once and got up on the dock and dived again. When he came up he looked at Mr. Bachman who was on the wharf and said: "I can't," and sank down. It was evident that something was wrong and Mr. Bachman dived in for the boy and got hold of him. The boy carried Mr. Bachman down under the water and suddenly let go of his hold and sank down and Mr. Bachman was unable to get hold of him again.

James Keeran was nearby in a boat and together with Hans Hansen and others the body was recovered within about twenty minutes after the boy sank. In the meantime Mrs. Bachman was notified of the accident and telephoned for Marshal Carter and Dr. Houseworth. The doctor worked with the boy but it was too late to do anything with him.

The mother and daughter were in North Bend visiting when the accident happened and were sent for and brought home.

Those surviving the victim of the accident are the mother and father, one brother, Chester, aged 15 years, and one sister, Myrtle, aged 17 years. The funeral will be held at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Methodist church in this city.

That the boy should drown when he could swim was rather peculiar but an examination proved that he probably choked to death. There were indications that very little water had been swallowed and it appeared that the change of temperature experienced by going into the water so soon after eating heartily had probably caused the boy to get sick and choke. The mother says that her son had been complaining of pains in his heart and she thinks possible his death in the water was due to a sudden attack of heart trouble.

BEYER DIES OF INJURIES

Fell at Smith Mill Week Ago and Injured His Back.

Charles W. Beyer, who fell at the Smith mill and broke his back, died last night at Mercy hospital as a result of his injury. Several days ago he underwent a surgical operation which it was hoped might bring about his recovery but it was impossible to save him.

Beyer was 41 years old. He was born in Germany and resided in this city with his wife and niece and was employed at the C. A. Smith mill.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Wilson undertaking parlors in this city.

CHINAMAN IS NOT ARRESTED

Oriental Doctor Escapes Arrest When Potter's Death Is Investigated.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 2.—The body of Louis Potter, the sculptor who died mysteriously last week under the treatment of a Chinese physician, was turned over to his brother, living at Chatam, N. Y., where the interment will be made. The chemist who made an examination was unable to find any poison, though traces of phosphorus were found. The Chinese doctor was not arrested. It is practically proved that Potter disregarded the instructions of his physicians. Potter's mysterious companion is said to be known as Martha Miller. She is believed to still be in the city.

CANDIDATE ANDY DAVIS.

Poor old Davis, loved by all, you have heard the Shriners call,—signed their papers—paid the price,—you'll be done up good and nice.

Wish we had a chance to save you, poor friend, from barrel stave. Wish you didn't have to go where the sands are burning so. Wish you didn't have to ride on a camel by the side of those awful, shrieking Turks, traveling on by jumps and jerks. Wish you didn't have to walk on knife blades, and hear the talk of that man who holds a spear pointing at your starboard ear. Wish you didn't have to drink camel's milk, right on the brink of some mighty canyon wall. Feel afraid, my friend, you'll fall. Wish you wouldn't wear a blind as you leave your friends behind. Wish you didn't have to write things that may not be alright.

Poor old boy, it's not too late. Don't go onward to such fate. Bid those Shriners fond adieu. Stay with friends you know are true. Stay here with us, good old man. Dodge those tempters while you can. Just get in your old-time stride. Run out in the woods and hide.

NOTICE TO REDMEN.

All members are requested to be present Monday, Sept. 2, 1912. Big pow-wow. Visiting chiefs invited.

WILSON GIVES LABOR VIEWS

Makes Speech at Buffalo and Talks of Third Party Platform.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Wilson analyzed the third party platform and its relation to the laboring man today. The occasion was the labor day celebration. It was the first expression from the democratic candidate on the merits of the progressive platform. The governor said the Roosevelt program lay "where tariff and trusts are spoken of."

Governor Wilson said: "Mr. Roosevelt declares he is not troubled by the fact that a very large amount of money was taken out of the pockets of the general taxpayer and put into the pockets of the particular classes of protected manufacturers but that his concern is not that so little of this money gets into the pockets of the employees. I have searched his program very thoroughly for an indication of what he expects to do in order to see to it that a larger proportion of this prize money gets into the pay envelopes and I have found only one suggestion.

"There is a plank in the program speaking of the establishing of a minimum or living wage for women. I take it for granted the minimum is to be established by the law of that great majority of the employers who take occasion to bring the wage scale as nearly as might be down to the level of that minimum. It would be very awkward for working men to resist that process successfully because it would be dangerous to strike against the authority of the federal government."

Wilson declared the plan suggested not only would legalize monopoly but would give the chief employers of the country "a tremendous authority behind them." He said the employers would have the right to pay wages approved by the government and pointed out that it had always been policy of "masters consolidated with industries" to undermine organized labor and that the Roosevelt plan "looks strangely like an economic mastery over the very lives and fortunes of those who do the daily work of the nation."

Wilson upon his arrival was met by Norman E. Mack, former chairman of the national committee, and a committee of labor leaders. The governor was escorted to the hotel where a public reception was held. Aside from the set address the governor is scheduled to speak at other meetings during the day.

ROOSEVELT IS ANSWERED

Representative Stanley Gives His Opinions Regarding Some Existing Laws.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

HENDERSON, Ky., Sept. 2.—Replying to Roosevelt's St. Johnsbury, Vt., speech in which the Sherman anti-trust law and Stanley steel investigation committee and recommendations in regard thereto were criticized, Representative Stanley, chairman of the committee issued a long statement declaring that "The Stanley committee holds no brief for the Sherman act. The chairman of the committee has repeatedly said the Sherman law by itself was not a sufficient remedy for the existing evils. The fact that the law has not been enforced by the republican administration is however no good reason for condemning it. The Sherman act fearlessly and capably enforced is a sword. Taft has struck only with the scabbard and Roosevelt never attacked anything in his life except with a horn and bass drum. For the first time since the Sherman act was written, the Stanley committee has proposed amendments with teeth in them. Roosevelt himself recently stamped with his unqualified approval the recommendations he now attempts to discredit by a bald assertion of argument."

MEXICAN REBELS MAKE A RAID AND BURN RAILROAD BRIDGES

Colonel Campa With Small Force Gets Away With Much Loot.

SONORA PEOPLE BEING ARMED

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

CANANEA, Mexico, Sept. 2.—Colonel Emilio Campa, the rebel commander in this district, made a raid into Santa Cruz late Saturday night with one hundred and fifty men. All bridges between that place and Nogales were burned and much loot carried off. The railroad company cannot operate until extensive repairs are made.

People Armed.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

JUAREZ, Mexico, Sept. 2.—People of the State of Sonora will be armed by the federal government in an effort to check the progress of west. According to the officials here the government plans soon to import 2000 rifles. It is asserted that the ranchmen and mining men of Sonora are loyal to the government or at least are opposed to the rebels, who are operating in small bands. The bulk of the federal army is in Chihuahua state, recently deserted by the rebels below Juarez.

RETURN DREDGE IN 8 MONTHS

Major Morrow Informs Committee Oregon Will Soon Come Back to Bay.

Further details and confirmation of Capt. Macgenn's telegram of Saturday announcing that the dredge Oregon would have to go to Grays Harbor this fall came in a personal message from Dr. McCormac to Mrs. McCormac Saturday evening. Dr. McCormac was a member of the special committee to confer with Major Morrow.

The news in Dr. McCormac's telegram is more reassuring because it specifies that the Oregon will be returned to Coos Bay in eight months, which will mean early next summer. The message relative to port matters is as follows:

Portland, Ore., Aug. 31, 1912.

Major Morrow says the Grays Harbor bill specifies the government dredge and consequently he cannot consider our proposition. He says the dredge will be returned to Coos Bay in eight months. No funds are available elsewhere.

The guarantee by the Port Commission of 25 per cent of the cost of the jetty will receive the favorable consideration of the engineers, and he is almost positive of its approval by Congress.

Captain Roberts will give a hearing at Coos Bay on the bridge matter Sept. 18.

Governor West will appoint the commission immediately on receipt of telegram announcing the order of the court on the election, Tuesday, if possible.

I will remain until Thursday and return by stage.

FAVORS ENGLAND

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

VIENNA, Sept. 2.—Newspapers here are supporting the British view of the Panama Canal act. The Die Welt suggests retaliatory measures against the United States. The official Fremdenblatt says if arbitration should fall in a case so peculiarly adapted to it and being between such friendly nations as the United States and Great Britain it may be doubted whether the time is ripe for the arbitration idea.

VICE TRUST IS DISCOVERED

New York Murder Case Brings Out Still More Hidden Crime.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Private detectives have placed before District Attorney Whitman information that several leaders of the "vice trust" which runs a chain of disorderly houses here together with a former state assemblyman and a police captain have raised about $50,000 with which to purchase affidavits that certain county officials investigating the police blackmail have been guilty of accepting money for falling purposely to obtain convictions against the disorderly houses. A private detective working with the "trust" disclosed a "conspiracy." Whitman may seek indictments against persons engaged in the alleged plot.

ROOSEVELT STARTS TRIP

To Speak In Many States and Tour the Pacific Coast.

(By Associated Press to the Coos Bay Times.)

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 2.—Roosevelt was up before daybreak today and departed for Hartford and Springfield, Connecticut, where he is to make speeches. Leaving Springfield late today the Colonel's real journey begins. He turns his back on the East for a time, heading for St. Louis, where he will speak at the Missouri State fair and from St. Louis will move north to St. Paul and thence up and down the Pacific Coast States. His plan will be to get back to Oyster Bay about the middle of October.
