LOCAL NOTES

COOS BAY TIDES.
Bel w is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Showers tonight and Saturday; southwest winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For twenty-four hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Sept. 6, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:
Maximum ..... 58
Minimum ..... 52
At 4:43 a. m. .... 52
Precipitation ..... 1.09
Wind southwest; rainy.

Meet Saturday.—The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Fannie Wheeler of this city.

Full List.—Already all the berths on the Redondo have been reserved for the next trip south and a number are on the waiting list.

For Papers.—August Frizeen and O. O. Lund went to Coquille this morning with Captain Severtson, who will secure his final naturalization papers. Captain Severtson is in charge of the Powers.

Buy Studio.—The Coquille Herald announces that B. W. George there has sold his studio to Photographer Quartermass, of Marshfield, who will operate the studio in connection with his Coos Bay business.

Open Office.—Charles Granby is opening a messenger service office in the room north of Ekblad's hardware store. The office will also be made a waiting room for the Gorst & King auto line.

Goes to Yale.—The following item from a Salem paper will be of interest to the many Coos Bay friends of the Crawford family: "James Crawford, son of Attorney General A. M.

Antoine Deloria, Postmaster at Garden, Mich., knows the exact facts when he speaks of the curative value of Foley Kidney Pills. His says: "From my own experience I recommend Foley Kidney Pills, as a great remedy for kidney trouble. My father was cured of kidney disease and a good many of my neighbors were cured by Foley Kidney Pills." Lockhart Parsons, the Rexall store, "The Busy Corner."

Crawford, leaves soon to take a post-graduate course in law at Yale university."
Rehearing Denied.—A rehearing of the case of Ed Farrin and J. M. Upton against L. T. Matthews, involving an equity in some lots in Plat B and which was decided in favor of Mr. Matthews, has been denied by the State Supreme Court. This confirms Mr. Matthews' title in the property.

Play Tonight.—The Coos Bay Concert Band will give a short concert in front of the Masonic Opera House this evening prior to the benefit entertainment for the Marshfield public library. There has been a good advance sale of tickets for the benefit and a big attendance is expected. Everything is in readiness for the entertainment.

Papers Missing.—Justice Pennock and Clerk of Courts Watson are having a hard time trying to locate the papers in the case of Chas. H. Bailey who was bound over to the grand jury last June on the charge of passing worthless checks on Emmerson Ferry, the Brewery saloon and others. Mr. Pennock thinks he sent the papers to Clerk Watson and the latter can't find them. If the papers can't be found, Bailey may go free.

New Manager.—E. P. Lewis, an expert and experienced hardware man, arrived yesterday from Fresno, Cal., to assume the management of the Pioneer Hardware store during the absence of F. E. Hague. Mr. Lewis succeeds W. P. Murphy, who was in charge temporarily until other arrangements could be made. Mr. Lewis is no stranger on Coos Bay, having been a resident of Marshfield some 13 years ago and held a position with the same store, at that time when Eugene O'Connell was proprietor. Mr. Lewis married a Coos Bay girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Howard. His family have been visiting for several weeks at the Howard home. A host of friends will be glad to know that they are to reside here permanently and Mr. Lewis will be welcomed back into the ranks of Marshfield business men.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO LADIES OF COOS BAY.
Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 9, 10 and 11, we will make an advance Fall and Winter showing of the latest styles in Fashionable Millinery. This exhibit will embrace some of the most charming creations direct from the centers of style and fashion. All the ladies are cordially invited to call and make an inspection. CLARKE MILLINERY, Central avenue and Broadway.

PERSONAL NOTES

J. D. GOSS went to Coquille this morning on court matters.

PROF. BEGGS expects to return to Portland shortly to spend the winter.

J. T. TAYLOR was down from Smith-Powers Camp 2 yesterday on business.

BEN CHANDLER will leave next Monday to resume his course at the University of Oregon.

MRS. J. M. THOMAS and children will leave soon for California for an extended stay.

LYOYD CORNWALL will leave soon for Berkeley after a short stay here and at Gardiner.

PETER FROST and family are planning to leave soon for California to make their home.

MRS. MYRTLE MATSON, of this city, is visiting friends on Coos River this afternoon.

MISS MARY CLARKE, of the Clarke Millinery, has returned from a business trip to Portland.

DOC GULOVSON will leave shortly for California to spend a few weeks. He may locate there.

DUNCAN FERGUSON and S. Lando were called to Coquille yesterday as witnesses before the grand jury.

MR. AND MRS. WM. ROHRER left today for the Tyberg ranch above Allegany where they will spend a week or ten days' outing.

CHAUNCEY CLARK has taken a position as timekeeper in Smith-Powers Camp No. 1. He left for the camp this afternoon.

ERNEST HARRINGTON left for Isthmus Inlet this afternoon where he has taken a position as timekeeper in the Smith-Powers Camp No. 6.

MISS RUTH MATTHEWS returned from Coquille this week where she has been visiting for the past two weeks. She spent part of the time camping at Bandon.

MRS. LETTIE COWAN and daughter, Gussie, of Allegany, were in Marshfield today. Mrs. Cowan will move to Marshfield next week and her daughters, Hazel and Gussie, will attend school here this winter.

MRS. JOHNSTON of Allegany was a Marshfield visitor today.

FRED GAGE returned to his home at Allegany this afternoon. He came down from the river yesterday.

DAN ROBERTS, Sr., formerly of the steamer Alert, has taken the position of chief engineer on the tug Gleaner.

MRS. DAGGETT of Allegany, who has been in the city a day or two, returned to her home on the Alert this afternoon.

W. E. GRAHAM has gone to Coquille to put on a benefit entertainment there. It is likely that many who aided in the "Darling of Paris" here will assist him.

ED WEIDER expects to leave next week for San Francisco. Whether he will enter the University of California or take a position with his brother he has not determined.

COL. WM. GRIMES plans to leave next week for California where he will visit for a while. He may go east to join Mrs. Grimes, who is visiting relatives in Chicago and in Ohio.
