WHITE SLAVE CASE DETAILS

Banker Ward of Seattle Furnishes Bonds—Accused is Wealthy and Prominent.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Indictments returned yesterday against Banker Ward and Bernice Ward of South Seattle, were on the strength of information presented to the federal grand jury by United States Attorney McNab and supplied to him, he said, by Ward, who is under arrest in Seattle.

John Arthur Ward is already under $500 bonds furnished yesterday in Seattle. The case gains interest from the fact that Ward is a man of wealth and position.

Attorney McNab spoke today in the highest terms of his family. Bernice Ward was arrested on the steamer Mongolia, August 23, by federal officers, after the liner passed out to sea and had crossed the international limit. With her were two girls, government charges, whom she was taking to Yokohama to place in a house of ill fame. Ward is supposed to have furnished the passage money, but the girls swore they paid their own passage, and were merely taking a pleasure trip. Commissioner Krull, who heard the evidence of violation of the white slave law, let it be understood that he did not consider the evidence strong and McNab sought new channels for prosecution.

In view of the indictments charging conspiracy for violation of the federal white slave laws found yesterday against Bernice Ward of Seattle, now held here under $3000 bail, the original charges against her were dismissed by United States Commissioner Krull.

GIBSON IS ARRESTED.

New York "Bluebeard" Lawyer Is Taken Into Custody.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, whose client, Mrs. Menschik-Szabo, lost her life while boating with him on Greenwood Lake, New York, on July 16, was taken into custody yesterday on a warrant charging murder in the first degree. Gibson was arrested at his office.

Gibson issued a statement just before his arrest, reasserting his innocence and insisting that there was no struggle either in the boat or in the water.

MEX. REBELS LEAVE AGUA PRIETA

General Rojas and Force Depart but Are Expected to Return—Fear American Ultimatum.

(By Associated Press to The Coos Bay Times.)

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 13.—A special to the Herald says the Mexican federals at Agua Prieta expect General Rojas to return late today to attack the town as the rebels have merely gone a few miles to water their horses. General Rojas is quoted by an American as stating that he had no intention of taking Agua Prieta, as it was useless to him. He said he merely wanted to draw out the federals for battle.

James Malcolmson, consulting engineer for the El Tigre Company, immediately called upon General Sanjines at Agua Prieta, in company with American Consul Dye. An attempt of Sanjines to communicate with the beleaguered garrison was unsuccessful as the wires had been cut. Federal reinforcements

LATE RETURNS IN WASHINGTON

Still Uncertain About Nominations in State Primary Election.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 13.—Primary returns today show that Mrs. Josephine Preston of Walla Walla, Republican candidate for superintendent of public instruction, carried nearly every county in the state, and probably will be able to overcome A. S. Burrows, who had a large majority in King county.

On the Democratic congressional ticket, Charles Drury of Tacoma was probably nominated in the Second district. Roscoe Drumheller of Spokane was chosen in the Third district. Henry White of Bellingham and E. O. Connor of Spokane were undoubtedly nominated at large.

Hugh C. Todd of Seattle is ahead in Eastern Washington in the Democratic governorship contest and Ernest Lister of Tacoma leads in the west. The second choice votes will decide. It is unsafe to speculate how these are bestowed.

TO SING LOCAL SONG TONIGHT

Not all of our readers are aware that there is in town a firm of bona fide song writers. Two young men who have the happy faculty of fitting words to music, and music to words. Mr. Jay B. Tower and Mr. Bob Stanley have brought forth a very clever song, entitled, "I'm Longing For You." That their many friends may have an opportunity of judging the merits of this song, they have arranged with Mr. Keller to have it sung at the Orpheum Theater tonight. Mr. Keller, who believes in fostering everything local, and with the true showman's instinct for novelties, has arranged a set of slides which illustrate the song, and Mrs. Lewis will sing it. Those who hear the song will have the satisfaction of knowing that the song itself, the singing and the illustrating, are all the result of local effort.

numbering 200 are expected to reach El Tigre today.

The reported filibuster expedition of Americans last night into Mexico proves to have been a flight of three Americans who were told that they were to be arrested for violating the neutrality laws.

ATTACK AMERICAN CAMP.

Seventy-Five Men and Six Women in Danger of Rebels.

(By Associated Press to The Coos Bay Times.)

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 13.—The rebels have begun an attack on El Tigre, an American mining settlement, south of the border at this point, according to advices today. Seventy-five American men and six American women are isolated in the camp, which is defended by a few federals. Reinforcements have been despatched from Nacozari. The attacking rebels are said to be led by General Salazar.

SMITH TAKEN TO COQUILLE

Man Who Shot Will Egenhoff Arrested—Egenhoff Don't Want to Prosecute.

Sheriff W. W. Gage left here this afternoon with R. P. Smith, who shot Will Egenhoff at Empire Thursday night, for Coquille. Sheriff Gage said that he did not know just what would be done with Smith, but Mr. Liljeqvist, deputy prosecuting attorney, wanted him brought over.

Mr. Gage said that Egenhoff's wound was very slight and that Egenhoff was not inclined to prosecute Smith. Egenhoff has been employed on the Smith-Powers boat, the Ranger, and probably will be able to resume work soon. Mr. Gage had quite a long conference with Egenhoff.

Welcomed by Roosevelt.—Capt. Macgenn is enthusiastic over the great reception tendered Colonel Roosevelt at Portland this week. Following the progressive convention, the delegates were introduced to Colonel Roosevelt by Chairman Charles Arthur Brown. When Captain Macgenn was presented, the Colonel inquired if he was any relation to Judge McGinn of Portland, saying it was a familiar name. "No sir, I am Captain Macgenn who wrote the poem, 'Gallant Teddy,'" responded Captain Macgenn. "Sure, I remember you now. Shake again," was the Colonel's prompt reply. In the parade, Captain Macgenn rode in the second auto following Colonel Roosevelt and says Roosevelt met with great acclaim along the entire route. His path was literally strewn with roses. Captain Macgenn is enthusiastic over the outlook. He says he has secured Captain Edgar Simpson to enroll with the Bull Moose and expects to have L. J. Simpson a member soon.

Management Refuses to Permit Taft Orators to Speak from Same Platform.

COLONEL CAUSTIC IN REFERRING TO THEM

Terms Men Sent Out to Offset His Campaign "Discredited Politicians."

(By Associated Press to The Coos Bay Times.)

LA GRANDE, Sept. 12.—"Discredited politicians," and "prophets without honor," were what Col. Roosevelt today called the Taft orators who started on a special train a few days ago to follow his trail through the west. When the Colonel reached La Grande to speak at the county fair, he struck the trail of the Taft speakers for the first time. He was told that John H. Harlan of Chicago and former Congressman Bede of Minnesota were to arrive today and permission had been asked and refused for them to address the fair crowds from the same platform and immediately at the conclusion of Roosevelt's meeting. Permission was flatly refused and the Taft party was obliged to hold their meeting in the opera house tonight. Speaking of the men as "imported orators," Roosevelt referred caustically to the five Oregon delegates to the Republican national convention who had voted to seat ninety delegates whom he said were fraudulent. He said the five were false to their oaths and were no better than the man who commits offenses against the law in private life. The Taft party reached La Grande while Roosevelt was speaking.
