Try Buoy Again.—Capt. Macgenn's new buoy, owing to the failure to provide a sufficiently large base, failed on the first trial. An old buoy base was used and it was not large enough for the additional parts of the buoy so that it turned turtle when it swerved with the waves.

Wins at Fair.—F. P. Norton in a telegram here this afternoon announced that at Coos Bay Day at the Eugene Fair races, Harry N. won the 2:20 pace, the best time being 2:24 1-2. Abelle won the 3-4 mile dash and Charley Foster the half mile dash. Norman Wilson rode the running races.

Great Grandmother's Death.—Herman Stone is in receipt of a copy of a newspaper from his old home in Finland announcing the death of his great grandmother, Mrs. Maria Stone, at the age of 98 years, 9 months and 4 days. The death occurred in the old family home in Mamlakarleby, Finland.

Child Dies.—Mrs. M. W. Roberts of Allegany has just received word from her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Erickson Bigelow of Grand avenue, Portland, of the death of her little son. Try Local Cases.—The damage suit of the Rohrer Meat Market vs. Constable W. B. Cox, growing out of attachment proceedings, which closed the market for a time, was called for trial in circuit yesterday. Among the witnesses called from here were J. W. Watt, who was custodian of the market while it was closed, and Justice Pennock.

New Regulations.—J. Lee Brown, who returned yesterday from a meeting of the Oregon State Pharmacy Commission reports that more strict regulations have been adopted. Beginning with 1913, all applicants for licenses must be high school graduates and have studied at least one year in a college of pharmacy. Beginning with 1914, all applicants must be graduates of a college of pharmacy.

Great Crowd.—Coos Bay today witnessed a real "bargain day crowd" when R. A. Copple threw open the doors of the new Golden Rule store. Many were waiting and all day long the store was crowded. Part of the time the doors had to be locked to keep the crowd outside as they crowded in so dense that it was almost impossible to move. Mr. Copple received many compliments during the day from his old customers on his fine new store.

AN OPEN LETTER

We are grateful and grieved over our opening today in the new store. Grateful for the splendid response we received to our announcement, and grieved that we were not able to serve all who came. We wish to apologize for being compelled to close our doors during the big rush, but it became an absolute necessity. We are deeply appreciative of this popular response to the opening announcement of the Golden Rule in its new home and desire to assure all that the sale will be continued all next week at the same prices until the Merchant stock is closed out.

We have planned to care for all who come on Monday and no one need remain away because of lack of service. The rush today was unusual and if any inconveniences may have developed we assure you that it was unavoidable under the circumstances.

Again we thank you for your generous attendance today and hope to see you next week. Golden Rule prices, Golden Rule methods and Golden Rule treatment will always be observed by the Golden Rule at its new home.

Sincerely yours,
R. A. COPPLE.
