

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

young people were served delicious refreshments. Those present were: Misses Esther Nelson, Myrtle Lund, Ruth Matthews, Anna Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Downs, Hans Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Chas. Lowry, Pearl Land and Clifford Downs.

EASTERN STAR FUNCTION.

Last Tuesday evening, Mrs. Margaret Hayter of Dallas, Ore., made her official visit to the Eastern Star lodge of this city, and gave an excellent talk on the chapter work. There were about 18 visiting members present. Mrs. Hayter is worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon and she has been making her first official visits in this county. Last Monday evening she was at North Bend and about 12 of the Marshfield members were present at that meeting. Mrs. Hayter left Wednesday morning enroute to Gardiner, where she will make her next official visit.

BAPTIST LADIES.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Nagle of South Fourth street last Wednesday afternoon. Besides the regular business, plans for repairing the interior of the church were discussed. Those present were the following: Mrs. D. L. Rood, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. E. W. Lewis, Mrs. Daisy Anderson, Mrs. Alva Doll and Mrs. John Nagle. Next Wednesday afternoon a silver tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Alva Doll on Eleventh street.

HONOR YOUNG WOMEN.

In honor of Miss Clover Miller and Miss Ida Mitchell, Mrs. M. G. Coleman of North Bend entertained at her home last Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Miss Ida Mitchell, who has been teaching above Allegany, will return to her home in Ohio soon. Miss Miller, whose home is also in Ohio, will teach at Drain this year. The rooms were very richly decorated for the occasion with sprays of wild roses, whose sweet fragrance gave evidence of a summer not yet ended. At the close of a very pleasant afternoon, ice cream was served to the following guests: Mrs. Gelsendorfer, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Greaves, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. O'Mara, Mrs. M. E. Everett, Mrs. Mandigo, Mrs. Mendo, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Derbyshire, Mrs. Isaacs, Mrs. Loomis, Mrs. Kettering of Marshfield, Misses Inmel of Marshfield, Griffen, McCann, the Misses Williams and honor guests, Misses Mitchell and Miller.

FOR MRS. MCCORMAC.

Last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. F. M. Parsons entertained at luncheon, in honor of Mrs. J. T. McCormac. Mrs. Parsons' guests were: Honor guest, Mrs. McCormac, Mrs. W. S. Nicholson, Mrs. Converse, Mrs. E. Mingus, Mrs. Sandberg, Mrs. A. H. Powers, Mrs. Crosthwaite, Mrs. M. C. Maloney and Miss Alice Louise Maloney.

SEWING PARTY.

Very pleasantly last Monday afternoon did Mrs. F. S. Dow entertain her neighbors with a sewing party. Feminine chat, intermingled with the sewing, made the hours pass all too rapidly. Mrs. Dow's guests were: Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Gammell, Mrs. Geo. Gulovson, Mrs. Rolandson, Mrs. Ivy Condron, Mrs. Frank Sumner, Mrs. B. Ostlund, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Diment, Mrs. S. D. Harper, Mrs. L. M. Mauzey, Mrs. L. Lang, Mrs. R. Desmond, Mrs. A. B. Campbell and Miss Mabel Lang.

FRATERNITY SMOKER.

This evening at the Chandler Hotel, the Fraternity men on Coos Bay will tender a Pan-Hellenic smoker to the fraternity men among the Biltmore students. Besides the welcome, it will be made the occasion of forming a permanent organization of the local fraternity men. It is expected that between forty and fifty will attend. J. D. Goss will be toastmaster and Mayor Straw, Mayor Simpson, E. D. McArthur, D. C. Green, Tom Bonnett and H. T. Johnson will be among those who will respond.

HONOR GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend gave a dance Tuesday evening at the Simpson pavilion in honor of Miss Isabelle Stearns and Miss Burrows, who are visiting at the Simpson home. The affair was a very brilliant one, about 75 couples being present and the pavilion was changed into a woodland bower with its evergreen festoons and hanging baskets of white hydrangeas, the striking beauty of which was softened by the glow of many Japanese lanterns. Splendid music

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

- Tonight—Keyzer dance at the Eagles' Hall.
- Tuesday—Mrs. F. G. Horton at Bridge.
- Mrs. Rebecca Stump for Prof. Beggs and the Rosebuds.
- Wednesday—Baptist Ladies Silver Tea with Mrs. Alva Doll.
- Priscilla Club with Mrs. Mathison at Bunker Hill.
- The Social Embroidery Club with Mrs. Charles Oulmette, Second street.
- Thursday—Mrs. F. G. Horton at bridge.
- Minnie Wis Club with Mrs. D. A. Jones on South Seventh.
- The Social Sewing Club with Mrs. Jack Swanson.
- Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Blake at dancing in Eagles' Hall.

was furnished by Keyzer's orchestra. During the evening punch was served by little Miss Dorothy Byler. A large number of Marshfield people were in attendance, going down by autos.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Charles Seafuse entertained a few friends in honor of her husband's birthday, Saturday evening, at her apartments on North Broadway. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Pretty ribbons were hung from the chandelier to each guest's plate. The honored guest's chair was artistically decorated. Colors were red and green predominating. Singing and games were the diversions of the evening after which a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Seafuse's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Meeks and Mr. and Mrs. Burt A. Doremus.

DINNER PARTY.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Mingus entertained at dinner last Monday evening. Their guests were: Dr. and Mrs. J. T. McCormac and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers.

PARTIES.

Mrs. J. G. Kinney entertained at a pleasant afternoon of sewing yesterday. The hostess served a delightful luncheon to the following ladies: Mrs. Stadden, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. R. N. Fenton, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Perry Dodson, Mrs. C. C. Going, Mrs. A. J. Drews, Mrs. LeMieux, Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Harry Bradford and her sister, Miss Margaret Witt and Mrs. S. Jones.

Mrs. L. W. Langdon of Bunker Hill entertained a few lady friends yesterday afternoon. They were: Mrs. F. A. Tiedgen, Mrs. Diment and Mrs. A. L. Buttz.

Mrs. F. G. Horton has issued invitations for two bridge parties, to be given next week. The days will be Tuesday and Thursday, the 17th and 19th.

Invitations have been issued for a party to be given by Mrs. E. W. Kammerer in honor of Miss Ramona Radcliff on Tuesday, September 24.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. M. C. Burns of North Bend entertained a few of her friends Thursday evening in honor of her birthday. Cards were played and everyone enjoyed themselves greatly. Light refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. C. L. Reeves and wife of Marshfield, Mr. Rogstad and wife, Mr. W. L. Tattar and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and daughter, Dr. Hollister and wife, Mrs. Lewin and daughter of Bandon, Miss Hallie Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis, Mrs. Annie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Pond, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns. Mrs. Burns was the recipient of many handsome presents and the good wishes from all.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Robert McCann entertained a few little friends at her home in North Bend in honor of her granddaughter, Irene Hudson's fifth birthday. The afternoon was spent in fun and frolic. Miss Lillian McCann assisted in serving the following guests: Flossie Hayes, Edith Cavanaugh, Edith Simpson, Erwa Hobson, Audrey Simpson and Mildred Freeland.

DANCES.

Invitations have been issued for a dancing party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Blake, next Friday evening in the Eagles' Hall.

With a splendid crowd in attendance, last Saturday evening at the Eagles' Hall, the Marshfield Concert Band gave another of its dances. The floor was in fine condition, the music excellent, and the crowd in good spirits, and all enjoyed the evening.

This evening Lew Keyzer will give another of his popular dances in the Eagles' Hall. The music is always the best and another good time is promised.

Another of a series of dances given by some local young men will be held at the Finnish Hall this evening.

CLUBS.

The Social Embroidery Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Reiner, and the following members were present: Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. J. C. Swinford, Mrs. R. N. Fenton, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. V. Patterson, Miss D. Patison, and Paul Cox and Charles Grattan. The club will hold its meeting next Wednesday with Mrs. Charles Oulmette, 351 South Second street.

Mrs. D. A. Jones will be hostess Thursday to the Minnie-Wis Club, at her home on South Seventh street.

The Social Sewing Club will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Jack Swanson.

The Priscilla Club will meet on Wednesday with Mrs. Mathison at her home in Bunker Hill.

M. E. PICNIC.

About one hundred persons enjoyed a picnic last Thursday given by the Methodist ladies of North Bend to which the Presbyterian ladies were guests. The crowd left North Bend about 10 o'clock and stopped at Piper's grove, where they spent the day; a very enjoyable time was reported by every one. They returned to North Bend at 6:30 in the evening.

LIBRARY BENEFIT.

The repetition of the library entertainment at the Masonic Opera House last evening was not rewarded by as large an attendance as was hoped for. The children did beautifully and in every respect the second entertainment greatly surpassed the first one. The amount realized for the library, clear of all expenses, up the present time is $80.

Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Saump will entertain Prof. Beggs and the Rosebuds at her home next Tuesday afternoon.

INFORMAL CHAT.

Wm. Horstman and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Stutsman left this week for Roseburg. They will make a tour of California in Mr. Horstman's car.

Mrs. Will Bonebrake and baby of Oakland, Cal., are visiting Mrs. G. A. Baines of Marshfield. Mr. Bonebrake is now traveling for a company, but will join them in about a month. Mrs. Bonebrake is a sister of Mrs. Baines.

Mrs. J. W. Bennett and sons, Hutton and Roderick O'Connor returned this week from Ten Mile, where they had enjoyed an outing.

F. L. Grannis returned this week from Salem, where he has been employed in one of the state institutions during vacation. Mr. Grannis is a member of the Marshfield high school faculty.

Mrs. Helen Baldwin and daughter, Miss Inez Baldwin, returned this week from Michigan, where they have spent the summer. Miss Baldwin will teach in the Marshfield schools again this year.

Mrs. Browning and Miss Nan Browning have leased the J. T. McCormac house and will occupy it this winter. Mrs. McCormac will leave Tuesday for California and Dr. McCormac will join her there about October 1.

Miss Ruth Woodworth arrived here yesterday from Kingsfisher, Oklahoma, to take a position as teacher of the sixth grade in the Marshfield Central school building. She is a close friend of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Houseworth.

Mrs. Will Chandler, who has been spending a month or so with relatives at Grants Pass and other points, will reach here the last of next week to join her husband. This will be her first visit to the Bay. She and Mr. Chandler will remain here all winter, Mr. Chandler having architectural supervision of the new buildings which his father proposes to erect here.

Miss Nellie Tribbey has been spending the week with friends on Coos River.

Miss Beulah Kibber, who has been spending the summer at Florence, has returned to North Bend and will resume her studies at the high school.

Mrs. C. E. Nicholson is planning to leave for California, where she will visit with friends.

Mr. W. J. Elrod is expecting her sister, Mrs. T. Ackerman, and brother, William Madden, from Sydney, New Brunswick, to make her a visit. It has been 20 years since they met, and Mrs. Elrod is anticipating a pleasant time.

Mrs. L. W. Holmberg, and little son will leave soon for Oakland, Calif., to join Mr. Holmberg and make their future home there. Mr.

Hub Dry Goods Co.

Monday Morning, Sept. 16th

IS THE DAY ON WHICH LADIES' SUITS AND COATS WILL BE READY FOR YOUR SELECTION

in our new store in the O'Connell Building.

Girls' and Children's School Dresses and Coats also will be ready on that day.

Dozens of ladies in Marshfield are waiting for Hub Suits and Coats. Dozens have asked us how soon the new store will be opened. Shoes, Domestics, Notions, Gloves, Hosiery, etc., will not be ready until about October 1.

Every Suit and Coat is of the newest pattern, direct from the east. Each style is an individual one. No two alike.

Mark these words well: When you see Hub Suits and Coats you will be as enthusiastic over them as we are. No assortment like it will be shown in cities smaller than Portland and San Francisco. Don't forget—next Monday.

The date for the formal opening of the Hub Dry Goods Co. will be announced later.

We mean what we say by

"MONEY TALKS"

Always remember

"The Saving to You"

HUB DRY GOODS CO.

Holmberg having been transferred to Oakland to assume a position in the new branch which the C. A. Smith Company is opening there. He left this week to visit his parents at Denver and to get a new home in readiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Quist will shortly move into their new home in South Marshfield.

Mrs. Frank Marhofer, who has been spending the past three months with her parents near Salt Lake City is expected home about October 1. She will leave Utah next week and will visit at several points enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sneddon and children arrived home this week from a visit with Mrs. Sneddon's family in Grand Island, Neb. They went east by Salt Lake City and the central route and returned via St. Paul and the Canadian route, coming through Winnipeg. They stopped at the principal places of interest going and coming and visited with Mr. Sneddon's relatives at Roslyn, Wash. They report an unusually pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker returned yesterday from South Coos River, where they have been enjoying an outing during the summer vacation. Mr. Barker being principal of the Marshfield high school. They will again reside on South Fifth street.

James H. Flanagan and wife and children plan to leave next week for California, where they will visit for a few weeks.

Mrs. O. W. Britt, wife of the keeper of the Coos Bay life saving station, returned yesterday from a few weeks' visit at northern points.

Mrs. Dennis McCarthy returned yesterday from a short visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Claude Nashburg writes that her mother, Mrs. Doble, who was recently taken suddenly ill at Roseburg, has recovered sufficiently to be taken to Portland. Mrs. Nashburg will visit a few weeks in Portland before returning to the Bay.

Mrs. R. Desmond, who has been visiting at the Merchant homes here, left yesterday for her home near Los Angeles.

H. J. Lashaway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lashaway of Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, arrived yesterday on the Breakwater to make a visit to the Bay. While here they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Downs on South Broadway.

Mrs. R. K. Booth left last Thursday for a few days' visit at the W. S. Chandler home on South Coos river. She will return next Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Copple and children, who have been spending a few days at Bandon, returned home last Thursday evening.

F. P. Norton and his niece, Miss Preston, are expected home next week from a visit at several Willamette Valley points, having attended the race meetings of that circuit.

Mrs. A. B. Daly and children are planning to spend the coming winter in California for the benefit of Mrs. Daly's health. Mr. Daly returned this week from a short visit with them.

Mrs. J. J. Kendall, mother of J. C. Kendall, is expected here next week from Rome, N. Y., to spend the winter with her son.

Dr. Mingus left this week to visit for awhile with his mother in Ashland, Ore.

Rev. and Mrs. Oslund and children of this city spent last Wednesday with friends in North Bend. Mr. Oslund held services there in the evening.

Don Griffin returned Friday on the Breakwater after a visit to his old home in Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin.

Mrs. R. H. Walters and family returned Wednesday from a five weeks' camping outing at Bastendorf Beach. The last few days they had as guests Miss Bear and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walters and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horton, Miss Dora Standish and Carl Thompson, who have been guests at the C. H. Walters home this summer, left today for their home in Missouri.

Dr. and Mrs. Browning of the Dalles arrived this week to visit with Rev. and Mrs. Browning. Dr. Browning is a brother of Rev. Browning.

Miss Nann Browning and her mother arrived this week to visit with Rev. Browning and wife. Mr. Browning will teach in the Marshfield schools this year.

M. R. Peck, who has been visiting here for a time with his brother C. R. Peck and Arthur Peck, left this week for his home in Seattle.

Mrs. P. C. Dodson returned this week from Portland and other northern points, where she has been visiting.

Ben Chandler left this week on the Breakwater to resume his school work at Oregon university. He will graduate this year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawlor left for Portland this week, where she will make an extended stay.

Miss Ruth Drake, who is well known on the Bay, having formerly nursed in one of the hospitals here, left for her home this week after a visit at the Gould home on North Coos River.

Stanley Myers arrived here today from Ionia, Michigan, and is the guest of Mrs. James Landrith of South Coos River.

BISHOP RETURNS HERE.
 Rt. Rev. Charles Scadding of the diocese of Oregon, arrived yesterday from Bandon, where he has been making his official visit to the churches in charge of Wm. Horsfall.
 Bishop Scadding will officiate at the three Episcopal churches on the Bay on Sunday. At 11 o'clock he will preach and confirm in Emanuel church, Marshfield, in St. Mary's church, North Bend, at 4:30 and at St. Luke's church, Bandon, at 4:30.
 In the evening at 7:30 in the Emanuel church, Marshfield, a special service has been arranged with congregational singing. All are invited and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of men.
 There will be addresses by Bishop Scadding and the rector on the topic, "The Message of Christ to the World of Today."

Fine picture glass—Walker's Studio.

Special CANDY SALE SATURDAY and SUNDAY—COCONUT CANDIES 25 CENTS per pound at STAFFORDS.

Where are you going? To Santa Fe, of course.

Photo supplies—Walker's Studio.