is at the home of his grandfather, Constable Cox in his city.

Has Large Capacity—A. Rehfeld of this city was for a number of years connected with the Willamette Paper Pulp company at Oregon City.
In speaking of the capacity of that plant compared to the one which will be built in this city he says that the Oregon City mill turns out about 205 built in this city will have a daily $25 a month. The commissioners also decided to use the Chamber of Commerce rooms as a meeting place and will pay $7.50 per month rental for same. Miss Henderson will at sent position as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Gets Medal—Arthur K. Peck is in receipt of a handsome medal which bears the inscription, "Arthur K.
Peck, Hero of the Libby Mine Dis aster, 1912." The medal was pre sented by a young lady who was with a party that Mr. Peck was taking through the old Libby mine shaft last summer. When they entered the shaft, air was being pumped in. Be fore they got out, the pumping of the air ceased. This left no ventila tion and air became so rare that the party's candles would not burn. It was with difficulty and with much anxiety that they finally found their way out, the young lady attributing their successful exit to Mr. Peck's heroic efforts. Her name is not given.

Take on Woman—There is a good foke being told on a well known Marshfield woman. The other day, she took out a trunk full of old let ters and placed them in a shed while she was cleaning house. A number of little boys in the neighborhood discovered the old letters and im mediately started to play "mail carrier." They started in and delivered letters to everybody in the neighborhood before the owner of them discovered what was happening to her old love letters. Immediately she began a lively race around the neighborhood to gather in the sacred epistles, most of which were meant for her eyes alone. Of course, the neighbors who did discover the letters in their front porches did not read them, although they had been opened, and conse quently the woman in question is feeling somewhat relieved.

Takes Agency—Joe Schilling of Myrtle Point has been appointed by George Goodrum sub-agent at Myrtle Point for the Cadillac automobile.

To Get Ideas—Mr. Wilkinson, one of the prominent saw mill men of the country, is here with A. Mer een to get ideas at the C. A. Smith plant for the construction of a new mill for the St. Paul & Tacoma Lum ber company.

Will Sell Machine—Dr. J. T. Mc Cormac will sell his touring automob ile Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at auction at George Goodrum's gar age. He will leave soon for Calif ornia and wants to get rid of the ma

Dietz Again in Trouble—On a com plaint sworn to by W. L. McLain, a man by the name of Dietz was arrest ed last Saturday, charged with the crime of carrying concealed weapons.
The man plead guilty to the charge
