

IN SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Two.)

time was enjoyed and a delicious repast served to the following guests: Mrs. Geo. Hazer, Mrs. J. T. McGuire, Mrs. L. A. Weidner and Misses Ida B. Mitchell, Bessie Emmel, Blanche and Grace Williams, Mildred Root, Kara Shoune, Josephine Griffin, Freda Hazer, Vicia Smith, Alice Waters, Esther Imhoff, Bessie Bain and guest of honor, Miss Lillian McCann.

RECEPTION.

Last Saturday evening at the Norwegian Lutheran church hall, the members and friends gave a reception for their new pastor and his wife.

non Hackland at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Downing of Eastside. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable way by the following ones present: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Downing, Misses Victoria Lund, Olive Moore, Marie McLain, Percal Olson, Ethel Anderson, Farids Swanson, Anna Lund, Marlon Whitty and Annie Hackland and James Whitty, Otto Olson, Elmer Peterson, Carl Hagavist, Vernon Hackland, Raymond Whitty, H. Hackland, Freddie Lund and Willie Kitzon.

DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. Chas. Lapp entertained a family party at dinner Wednesday turned from Chicago; the latter is visiting Mrs. C. F. McKnight. Mrs. J. T. Hall will entertain the club next Thursday, September 26.

Mrs. D. A. Jones was hostess Thursday to the members of the Minnie-Wis Club at her home on South Seventh street. A pleasant afternoon was spent, and a dainty luncheon served. Those present were Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. E. Kelly, Mrs. F. H. Dresser, and other guests, Miss Inez Baldwin and Miss Eva Dresser.

The regular meeting of the Social Singing Club was to have been held Thursday with Mrs. Jack Swanson, was postponed until next Thursday, owing to the illness of Mrs. Swanson.

The P. M. Club met last Wednesday afternoon at Bunker Hill with Mrs. Matheson. There was a short business session during which the following names were voted into the club: Miss Gale and Mrs. McDougald, both of Bunker Hill.

After a social hour of chat the following were served refreshments: Mrs. Geo. Franko, Mrs. Chanin, Mrs. Scholander, Mrs. K. Erickson, Mrs. W. Nelson, Mrs. Brinkley, Mrs. B. Mathison and Mrs. Carl Albrecht and Mrs. Carl Walker, the last two being

HOME FROM THEIR HONEYMOON

Frederick W. Powers and his bride, formerly Miss Eva Talty, who arrived on Coos Bay this week after an extended eastern honeymoon trip. Mr. Powers and Miss Talty were married recently at the home of the bride's parents in Hibbing, Minnesota, the wedding being the consummation of a school day romance, both being graduates of the same school.

Rev. and Mrs. Thorpe of Portland, Oregon.

The parlors were prettily decorated in flowers for the occasion and a bowl of dahlias formed the centerpiece of the banquet table. Speeches by Rev. Bengtson, Rev. Ostlund and violin and clarinet solos by Chris Lee and E. Mellum, accompanied by Miss Mabel Mathison formed the program for the evening after which a purse was presented the pastor by the members and friends of the congregation. Light refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid.

ROSEBUD LUNCHEON.

Last Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Stump entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon for Prof. Beggs and six little girls of "rose bud" fame. The luncheon room was charmingly decorated in pink, and the little girls with their bright faces full of happy anticipation, their dainty white frocks and their joyous talk and laughter, well repaid the hostess for her efforts.

The sumptuous luncheon was served to the following guests: The little Misses Eleanor Flanagan, Sylvia Ballinger, Virginia Coke, Alice Louise Maloney, Alice Pyle and Katherine Stump, and Prof. Beggs.

FAREWELL PARTIES.

On September third, the members of the Priscilla Club of Bunker Hill gave a farewell surprise party to Mrs. James McIntosh and Mrs. Peter Frost at the home of the latter, which proved a most enjoyable affair, it being a complete surprise to both parties.

Those present were Mrs. George Rourke, Mrs. Henry Olson, Mrs. Ben Mathison, Mrs. Ray Chanin, Miss Alice Mathison, Mrs. Fred Ginnolds, Mrs. Wm. Gale, Mrs. Wm. Nelson and Mrs. Kate Erickson. After a bounteous basket lunch was partaken of and farewells were said, the guests departed journeying both parties a pleasant journey and much prosperity.

A farewell surprise party was given in honor of Anna, Robert and Ver-evening, complimentary to her nephew, J. H. Riggins of West Virginia; Mr. Riggins has three aunts in the county, Mrs. T. P. Wilson of River-ton, Mrs. Isaac Wilson of Libby and Mrs. Lapp of this city, and this is the first time in twenty-five years that they have had a reunion. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Deness, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sneddon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lapp, Mrs. T. P. Wilson, Mrs. Walter Deness, John Wilson, Archie Wilson, Joe Lapp, J. H. Riggins, May Wilson, Irene Deness, Mabel Sneddon and Pearl Lapp.

ENJOY SOCIAL.

The Young People's Society of the Norwegian Lutheran church enjoyed a short program and social last Thursday evening at the church hall, at the close of which Misses Mabel Mathison and Helje Johansen served refreshments to the following: Misses Elsie Larsen, Jennie Larsen, Myrtle Lund, Miss Olsen, Dina Hjelbe, Ingeborg Larsen, Dina Martinson, Lucy and Lilly Thorwald, Anna Gidmark, Cecil and Ebba Osterdal, Cora and Mabel Mathison, Borghild Olsen, and Messrs. John and Albert King, Emil Gabrielson, Harry Johansen, Andrew Anderson, Arthur Kolstad, Mr. Holmberg, Oscar Erickson, Chris Peterson, Victor Osterdal, E. Mellum, Alfred Jaron and Fred Bontz.

A "rag" social will be given by the young people this evening. Miss Jennie Johnson, Messrs. John King and Oliver Larsen will serve and Jim Martinson will act as auctioneer.

CLUBS and SOCIETIES.

The A. N. W. Club was entertained last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. F. Spores at her home in Bunker Hill. After a short business session and social time, the guests were served dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. J. T. Hall, Mrs. Fannie Hazard, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. Lyman Noble, Mrs. Olivia Edman, Miss Cleve and Mrs. W. F. Squire. Mrs. Edman and Miss Cleve were guests; the former has just returned from Chicago; the latter is visiting Mrs. C. F. McKnight. Mrs. J. T. Hall will entertain the club next Thursday, September 26.

The Social Embroidery Club was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Oulmette on Second street. Sewing and instrumental music by Mrs. Lorine were the diversions of the afternoon, at the close of which a dainty luncheon was served to the following guests: Mrs. Lorine, Mrs. Swinford, Mrs. O. Hansen and Mrs. Hildon. The club meets again next Wednesday with Mrs. Hildon.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Alva Doll last Wednesday afternoon. A reading by Mrs. A. Z. Downs, and a piano solo by her daughter, Miss Anna, were enjoyed by all. After a short business session and social hour, dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. R. P. Harrington and little son, Everett, Mrs. Henry Black, Mrs. Dresser and daughter, Miss Eva Dresser, Mrs. John Nagle, Mrs. Geo. Ayre, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. Roycroft, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. D. L. Root, Miss Manie Gulovson, Mrs. L. E. Doll and Mrs. Alva Doll.

The Ladies' Art Club will hold its first meeting for the fall Friday, October the fourth with Mrs. F. M. Flye.

Miss Victoria Lund of Eastside entertained the Artistic Needle Workers Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brown. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in sewing and chat after which delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Nevins of San Francisco; Mrs. W. Spade, Mrs. S. Richard, Mrs. R. Hall, and Mrs. A. Breen and Misses Susie Maternie, Fats Larson, Jennie Johnson, Map Hall, Victoria Lund and Hilda West.

Mrs. Walter Spade of Ferlede will entertain the Club Wednesday, Sept. 25.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Thomas Howard. At the business session, a committee was appointed to repair the manse, preparatory to the coming of a new pastor. The ladies are making plans for a bazar which will be held later. The society is invited to meet with Mrs. Barker the first Wednesday in October to enjoy a "Silver Tea." Those present at the meeting were Mesdames Converse, J. W. Langdon, A. L. Butz, F. S. Dow, A. E. Seaman, W. S. Nicholson, I. S. Smith, Tom Howard, C. H. Walter and Wilson.

DINNER PARTY.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus are entertaining a few friends at dinner at the Chandler this evening.

DANCES.

Another of the series of dances given by Low Keyzer's orchestra at the Eagles' Hall last Saturday night was largely attended and proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. Mr. Keyzer has arranged for the latest dance music for these dances and it is being greatly appreciated by dance lovers. Another of the series will be given tonight.

INFORMAL CHAT.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Browning left this morning via the Drain-Allegany auto line for their home in The Dalles after a short visit with Mr. Browning's brother, Rev. Robert E. Browning of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Forrest are expected to arrive next Saturday from Leadville, Colorado, to spend the winter at the J. W. Hildenbrand home. Mrs. Forrest is a sister of Mrs. Hildenbrand.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moeller entertained Thursday a party of friends from Coquille who made the trip over by auto. Among those in the party were Mrs. Geo. Pike, Mrs. J. E. Benham, Mrs. E. C. Holland, Mrs. Nels Osmundsen and Eugene Wickham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy and S. A. Carmichael have been enjoying an outing at the beach the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Hoelling has returned from a short visit in Bandon.

F. P. Norton and his niece, Miss Preston, have returned from a several weeks' tour of Willamette valley points where Mr. Norton had horses in the circuit races. They report a very pleasant trip.

Guy Warner has returned from his vacation trip in California. Mrs. Warner and baby remained for a long stay. Mrs. Warner is rapidly recuperating from her recent operation which will be gratifying news to their many friends in Marshfield.

to be a most enjoyable affair. Among those present were the following guests from North Bend A. F. Johnson, Seth Johnson, L. A. Loomis, J. H. Greves, H. Sanford, W. H. Chappelle, Wm. Otis and Dick Frye.

DINNER PARTY.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Mingus are entertaining a few friends at dinner at the Chandler this evening.

DANCES.

Another of the series of dances given by Low Keyzer's orchestra at the Eagles' Hall last Saturday night was largely attended and proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. Mr. Keyzer has arranged for the latest dance music for these dances and it is being greatly appreciated by dance lovers. Another of the series will be given tonight.

INFORMAL CHAT.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Browning left this morning via the Drain-Allegany auto line for their home in The Dalles after a short visit with Mr. Browning's brother, Rev. Robert E. Browning of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Forrest are expected to arrive next Saturday from Leadville, Colorado, to spend the winter at the J. W. Hildenbrand home. Mrs. Forrest is a sister of Mrs. Hildenbrand.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moeller entertained Thursday a party of friends from Coquille who made the trip over by auto. Among those in the party were Mrs. Geo. Pike, Mrs. J. E. Benham, Mrs. E. C. Holland, Mrs. Nels Osmundsen and Eugene Wickham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCarthy and S. A. Carmichael have been enjoying an outing at the beach the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Hoelling has returned from a short visit in Bandon.

F. P. Norton and his niece, Miss Preston, have returned from a several weeks' tour of Willamette valley points where Mr. Norton had horses in the circuit races. They report a very pleasant trip.

Guy Warner has returned from his vacation trip in California. Mrs. Warner and baby remained for a long stay. Mrs. Warner is rapidly recuperating from her recent operation which will be gratifying news to their many friends in Marshfield.

mountains for the benefit of his health. Mrs. Tremaine will return to her home in Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. W. G. Chandler who has been spending the summer with relatives at Merlin, near Grants Pass, Oregon, will arrive here Wednesday to join Mr. Chandler.

Mrs. E. K. Jones and son, Eugene, returned this week from a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Portland and Vancouver, B. C.

W. S. Brown and family who for some time have been located in Fredleton, Ore., returned to the Bay this week. Mr. Brown will be remembered as a former band boy.

The Misses Annie and Nellie Hildon left this week on the Breakwater to attend the Mt. Angel Academy.

F. E. Allen left this week for Portland, and later will go to Eugene to attend the Knights Templar Conclave as representative from the Marshfield branch of that order.

Miss Genevieve Sengstacken left this week on the Washington for San Francisco where she will stay for a time with friends.

Walter Asplund and Gordon Rasmussen left this week to resume their work at Corvallis.

Misses Rose and Clara Myron left on the Breakwater last Thursday for a short visit with friends in Portland.

Last Wednesday evening, Miss Gertrude Scaife was tendered a surprise party at her home on Third street. Miss Scaife was the happy recipient of a beautiful agate ring and bouquet of flowers as presented from her mother.

Those present were Misses Helen Dow, Gladys Diment, Ruth Houghton, Mildred Wilson, Emily Harris, Gertrude Hansen, Kathryn Smith, Gertrude Scaife and Viola Scaife, Messrs. Leo La Chapelle, Claude Williams, George and Henry Lecong, Will McDonald, Festus and Harvey Walters, and Duncan Scaife.

Fred Powers and bride returned this week from the east where they were married a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Olivia Edman returned a few days ago from Chicago and is a guest of Mrs. L. Lang of South Marshfield.

Mrs. E. W. Kammerer will entertain with a party in honor of Miss Ramona Radcliffe next Tuesday, Sept. 24.

Miss Anna McNary of Portland is visiting her sister Mrs. S. S. Smith of this city.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS ON PAGE FOUR.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including "ADVERTISING" and other fragments.