A peculiar accident happened on Front street late yesterday afternoon. The Malloy delivery team, hitched to a big heavy wagon, ran away. The team made a turn from Front street west on Market avenue and in turning struck the big iron electric light post. The wagon is a heavy one and the team was going at full speed and lamp post was knocked keys, Sunday, on Waterfront, Re- The bottom of the post tore up a big piece of the sidewalk. It looked like big uprooted tree. The collision stopped the runnaway team. The peculiar feature of the accident was that the wagon was not damaged and the horses were unhurt.

Tom Coke was standing on Front street leaning against the post before the runaway team came. He made some quick moves getting out of the way when the team started toward the post.
