

THE MAN WHO IS RIGHT NEVER GETS INTO A CORNER HE CANNOT GET OUT OF

Cooz Bay Times

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WANT ADVERTISING IN THE TIMES
Will Put Your Real Estate "in the Market" Effectively!

WANT ADVERTISING IN THE TIMES
Will Keep your Income from Furnished Rooms Steady.

Vol. XXXVI, Established in 1878
as The Coast Mail.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1912—EVENING EDITION.

A Consolidation of Times, Coast Mail and Cooz Bay Advertiser.

No. 59

GENERAL MENA SURRENDERS AND REBELLION IS ENDED

Leader of Insurgent Forces in Nicaragua Gives Himself Up.

IN THE CUSTODY OF
UNITED STATES OFFICER

City of Granada Is in the Hands of American Naval Forces.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, Sept. 25.—Official confirmation was received today of the surrender of General Mena. This news is generally accepted as the termination of the rebellion.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—Officials here believe Mena requested that he be permitted to surrender to the United States in order to avoid further action at the hands of the Nicaraguan federals and the admiral. Mena, it is believed, thought it was advisable to get the rebel out of the country as soon as possible. Granada is now completely under the control of the U. S. forces. Conditions are reported to be pitiful in the extreme. The inhabitants face a famine in consequence of their long isolation. It is thought that General Zeeled and his forces will attempt to hold out until the head of the revolution has been given up.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 26.—General Mena, leader of the Nicaraguan revolutionists is to be sent to Panama under guard of American sailors and marines. American Minister Weitzel reported to the state department that Rear Admiral Southard accepted the surrender of Mena and seven hundred followers of his on Sept. 24. His capture was held to indicate the collapse of the revolution. His removal to Panama probably means exile.

KILLED THE WHOLE FAMILY

Young Man Charged With the Murder of His Father,
Mother and Sister.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Sept. 26.—Otto McKnelly, aged 21, has been arrested on a charge of murdering his father, mother and sister in a tent Tuesday night. Mrs. McKnelly, who was still alive when taken to the hospital, died last night. McKnelly was a car repairer and was missing from his work for two hours near midnight, about the time the McKnellys were killed. The young man showed no emotion and had not even inquired about his mother. He is unable to explain why he was absent from work Tuesday night. Otto McKnelly was held to the insurance on the lives of his father and mother, in event of their death and that of his sister. McKnelly's clothes had blood spots on them.

WOULD REVOKE THE PARDON

Member of Women's Clubs Find They Worked in Behalf of Fakir.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 26.—Governor Hay has received a request from Mrs. R. C. McCredie, president of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, to revoke the conditional pardon of Mrs. Mand Myrtle Johnson, aged 35, convicted at Vancouver, Wash., of obtaining money under false pretenses, by "taking" an injury and suing the Northern Pacific railroad. After she had been sentenced to the penitentiary, a campaign in her behalf was begun by the women's clubs. Some newspapers reported that she was being persecuted. After she was pardoned, Mrs. McCredie took her to her home at Sunnyvale, Yakima county, from which she disappeared shortly afterward. Investigation is alleged to have proved that the woman was a professional claimant and that railroad and street car companies all over the United States were her victims. It is alleged she will serve her term in the Walla Walla penitentiary.

HILL LINES MAY COME ON S. P.

Eugene Business Man Thinks
the Railways Have Made an Agreement.

E. K. Darrin of Eugene, and Mr.
W. G. Robertson of St. Paul and Seattle are recent arrivals in Marshfield who are investigating the prospects of Cooz Bay. Mr. Darrin is a member of the firm of the Eugene and Great Western Land Co., of Eugene, that handles the lands of the Hill railway company and Mr. Robertson travels in the interests of the company.

Mr. Darrin disclaimed any personal or inside information but said that the general opinion in Eugene was that an agreement had been reached by the Southern Pacific and Hill interests by which both roads will use the line from Eugene to Cooz Bay and from this city south to Eureka and San Francisco.

Mr. Darrin is an enthusiastic booster for Eugene, which he says is the coming city of Oregon. The Southern Pacific recently purchased a block in the center of the city which is to be used for depot purposes. As an illustration of the increase in values Mr. Darrin says that the Southern Pacific recently offered his father-in-law $6,500 for a lot for which he originally paid $500.

Mr. Darrin says that Cooz Bay has a great future and that the people of the interior have not a conception of its great resources and importance in the development of the state but thinks that is certain to come with railway connection.

Mr. Darrin and Mr. Robertson will remain several days investigating prospective investments. An estate in which Mr. Darrin is interested owns the Glasgow townsite property. This is Mr. Darrin's first visit to Cooz Bay.

DEMOCRATS NEED $750,000

That is the Amount Needed to Conduct the National Campaign.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Democratic national committee needs $750,000 to defray expenses during the remainder of the campaign. Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee, so declared in a formal statement issued today, upon his return from Philadelphia, where he organized a state finance committee. A contribution of $10,000 was received today.

SLAUGHTER BY THE WHOLESALE

About Two Hundred Chinese Soldiers Executed Without any Formality.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

WU CHANG, China, Sept. 26.—More than 200 mutinous soldiers were summarily executed without the formality of a court martial Tuesday.

HIS VIEW OF IT.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 26.—"If Roosevelt's plan of handling the trusts is adopted," said Debs, the Socialist candidate for president, here today, "every worker in the mills in the event of a strike will be put back to their jobs by soldiers."

The Presbyterian ladies will hold a cooked food sale, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28, at Perry & Nicholson's store.

LET US TALK IT OVER

ETERNAL vigilance is the price of other things than liberty. It is the price every good citizen must pay for the protection and possession of the rights and privileges he now enjoys. The average American citizen is a small body of independence, entirely surrounded with politicians, promoters and grafters. I suppose you have received your pamphlet containing a copy of all measures referred to the people of the city of Marshfield by the common council. These measures are to be submitted to the legal voters at a special municipal election to be held next Monday. Of course you were too busy to more than glance at it, but it is worthy of more than casual reading. For your benefit I am reprinting the first proposition as it appears in the pamphlet, and as it will appear on the ballot. Here it is:

REFERRED TO THE PEOPLE BY THE COMMON COUNCIL

For an amendment to the City Charter enlarging the limit of the indebtedness of the City of Marshfield to 15 per cent of the assessed valuation of the property within the corporate limits and EMPOWERING THE COMMON COUNCIL TO ISSUE AND DISPOSE OF CITY BONDS.

300 Yes.
301 No.

The above is an exact copy of the new provision except that I asked the printer to put the important feature in black type so that you might understand it more readily.

Authority is first voted to increase the city's bonded indebtedness to 15 per cent of the assessed valuation. Then the city council is empowered to issue and dispose of the bonds without let or hindrance. There are no checks or safeguards of any character or kind around this proposition. If the voters approve of this measure the city council may meet any evening and issue bonds for anything from a steam roller to a city hall without even referring it to the taxpayers and all the people have to do is to pay the bill.

The Times stands for progress. The Times stands for public improvements, but The Times thinks that when these important matters develop they should be thoroughly discussed and then passed up to the people for approval.

The various city councils of Marshfield have already given away nearly everything they could give. Every valuable franchise has been presented to any promoter who asked for it. Fortunately they could not issue bonds without submitting it to a vote of the people. Now it is proposed to remove this safeguard and let the bars down for any action that the council may desire without permitting the people to approve or disapprove.

It is a bad measure and should be voted down. Any time there is a public improvement that justifies the issuance of bonds the people should be given an opportunity to vote upon the proposition directly. The taxpayers should never delegate to any individual or set of individuals the power to run them in debt to such an extent without an opportunity to have a word to say about it.

The city council has too much power at present. Instead of enlarging these powers they should be restricted.

Go to the polls next Monday and vote NO on this amendment. Place an X opposite 301.

GAME WHEN OFFICIALLY SHOT

Murderer in Utah Penitentiary Looks Over All Arrangements Before Dying.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 26.—"The gamest man I ever saw die," was the eulogy pronounced on young Harry Thorne today after he was shot to death in the state prison for the murder of George Fassell in a grocery store hold up two years ago.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

Thorne's request that the newspapermen be excluded from the death cell and scene of execution was granted but a plea to meet his fate with open eyes did not avail as it was feared that the gaze of their victim might disconcert the official marksmen. Thorne was permitted to view all the preparations of execution and the bandage was not placed on his eyes until the firing order was about to be given.

MEXICAN REBELS GATHERING TO FIGHT FEDERAL FORCES

UP TO PEOPLE
TO DECIDE

Two Propositions Will Come
Before the People at Special Election.

A special election will be held in Marshfield Sept. 30 for the purpose of voting upon two propositions. One of these propositions gives the city council license to bond the city for 15 per cent of the assessed valuation of the property and also gives the council additional rights in the matter of handling the finances of the city.
The proposition as put to the voters appears as follows on the ballot:

"For an amendment of the City Charter enlarging the limit of the indebtedness of the City of Marshfield to 15 per cent of the assessed valuation of the property within the corporate limits and empowering the Common Council to issue and dispose of city bonds."

The second proposition provides for the adoption of the state election laws to the city elections. The proposition as it appears on the ballot is as follows:

"For an amendment of the City Charter, providing that the general election laws of the state shall apply to elections in the City of Marshfield, prescribing the powers of the Common Council, respecting elections and the canvass of votes at elections, and providing who may issue certificates of ownership of property specially assessed for improvements."

LEVEE MATTERS.
By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Roosevelt advocated today the federal control of levees, moving the Panama Canal plant in the Mississippi river valley, after the canal's completion and construction, and building permanent levees.

CHURCHILL IS CHOSEN

Noted Author Endorsed by Progressives for Governor of New Hampshire.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 26.—Winston Churchill, the author, was endorsed unanimously as the Progressive candidate for Governor of New Hampshire by the Progressive party at the state convention today. The candidate for Governor must be nominated by petition under the State laws.

MORGAN TO TESTIFY.

Must Appear Before Senate Campaign Fund Committee.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—J. P. Morgan was asked today by telegraph to appear Sept. 30 before the Clapp committee of the senate investigating campaign funds. Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., Ormsby M. Harg, C. C. Tegethoff and William Loeb, Jr., were asked to follow. Morgan will be the first witness. Loeb will be heard after Roosevelt, October 4.

Booked Elsewhere.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Morgan will be unable to testify before the Clapp committee, September 30, the date selected, as it conflicts with other engagements he will have. However, it is said, he will be glad to appear before the committee later in the week.

PICTURE LOCATED.

Stolen Painting Said to Be in Russian Private Gallery.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Leonardo Da Vinci's masterpiece, "Mona Lisa," stolen from the Louvre museum at Paris in August of last year, is hanging on the walls of a private gallery in St. Petersburg, according to a report published in a Russian paper, transmitted to a news agency here.

FOR RENT—Private garage close in.

Apply Dr. J. T. McCormac.

Pearson, American Lumber Center, May Be Scene of Big Battle.

OPPOSING TROOPS ARE
NEARING THE PLACE

Bridges Burned and Communication With This Country Is Cut Off.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Sept. 26.—Railway and telegraph communication was cut off early today with Pearson, the American lumber center 150 miles southwest of here. Six hundred rebels have burned the bridges and cut the wires between Casas Grandes and Pearson which was defended by 450 federal troops. The rebels for many days have been threatening an attack on Pearson.

No Attack.
A courier who arrived here today reported that no attack had been made on Pearson although three troops of rebels are close to the town and it is reported that General Rago with five hundred federalists is marching from Casas Grandes to Pearson, 25 miles distance.

MAY SETTLE
BIG STRIKE

Hopes of Some Arrangement
Being Made Are Growing Every Day.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

BINGHAM, Utah, Sept. 26.—The hopes of the copper miners making a speedy settlement are stronger today than at any previous time. According to the leaders they are pinning their faith on proving themselves so completely in command of the situation that the operators will be forced to terms.

Prospects Good.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 26.—"A movement toward a settlement seems to be progressing," was all Governor Spry would say after an all morning conference with A. L. Wilde, representing the Bingham Miners' Union and Attorney General Barnes.

WILSON TELLS OF TRUSTS

Denies Roosevelt's Claim They Are Inevitable—Says
Man Made Them.

By Associated Press to The Cooz
Bay Times.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 26.—"Big business on a great scale is inevitable and desirable, but it is a different matter from the development of trusts," said Governor Wilson in a speech to a big crowd here today. "The trusts have not grown but have been manufactured by the deliberate will of men more powerful than their neighbors in the business world. I deny Mr. Roosevelt's claim that the trusts are inevitable."

R. A. M.

Arage Chapter Special

meeting Friday and Saturday nights, September 27 and 28. Work in last three degrees.

L. A. WHERBAT,

H. P.

