ONE big feature of advantage to you in buying these ready-made clothes, made by

Hart Schaffner & Marx

is that you see what you get, you see how it fits, you know how you look in it, before you buy.

That's one reason for buying ready-made instead of made-to-measure clothes; the other reasons are all included in the fact that such ready-mades as these are better clothes.

Suits $18 and up.
Overcoats $16.50 and up.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

The Progress Club with Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

Alliance Out.—The steamer Alliance sailed for Portland Sunday carrying freight and passengers.

Will Give Dance.—The Sons of Norway are perfecting arrangements for a big social dance to be given Saturday night (October 12).

Dredge Ready in July.—One of the Portland papers states that the dredge Colonel P. S. Michie, which will be operated on the bar of Coos Bay, will be ready to bring here by July 1 of next year.

Breaks Tire.—A. H. Stutsman had an accident to his auto this afternoon. On the Alert dock the machine ran over the end of a ladder to which was attached a hook. The latter caught in the tire and tore it badly.

Operate on Child.—The little 5-year-old daughter of Jack McDonald submitted to a surgical operation at Mercy hospital for the removal of an abscess. The child is doing nicely today and will recover.

Will Entertain.—It is announced that Mrs. A. L. Barker of South Fifth street will be hostess to the ladies of the Presbyterian church and their friends, Wednesday, October 2, at a silver tea.

Big Potato Record.—C. C. Pratt, who lives in the west part of the city, reports a wonderful yield of potatoes. He has a patch of potatoes planted in his yard and from one hill he secured 133 potatoes.

Mrs. Buck Better.—Mrs. William Buck, who was struck by a lumber car and had her skull fractured, is much better. It was feared at first that she could not possibly recover, but today she has partly regained consciousness and it is thought that there is hope of her recovering from the accident.

WILL BUILD A TOWN.

Brookings Lumber Company Plans Some Big Work.

John Gillings made a trip to the Rogue river last week, driving down that far a surveyor who is going to Chetco to survey a power site and also lay out a town for the Brookings company. Reports are to the effect that this company will do a large business and make some great changes in the south end of the county next summer. While at Wedderburn Mr. Gillings went trolling for salmon with Mr. Leach and landed three. One was a 35-pounder. He says the sport of landing one of these big fellows cannot be beat-

To fasten the end of a rope without knotting it, a Wisconsin inventor has patented a spiral piece of metal around which it may be wrapped.

LOVE WAS THE CAUSE.

Elkton Boy Killed Himself Because Girl Left.

Despondency because the girl loved moved away from Elkton was the reason Gerald Traylor of this place shot himself. Young Traylor whose suicide was mentioned several days ago, went to the banks of the Umpqua river and blew off the top of his head with a revolver. He was in love with the daughter of a Methodist minister who was stationed at Elkton, but who was recently transferred to the Willamette valley. The young man brooded over the departure of the girl and finally killed himself.

OLD MAN BEATS WIFE.

Roseburg Citizen, Aged 90 Years Makes Disturbance.

ROSEBURG, Ore., Sept. 30.—P. A. Hall, a 90-year-old Civil War veteran, faces a charge of assault on a battery in the justice court at Roseburg, preferred by his wife, aged 5 years. The trouble was caused by Hall's objection to his wife's perusal of the Bible in the bedroom and muttering in a strange tongue while he was trying to sleep. The Hall's said to be fairly well to do. They were married at Medford nine years ago. Hall says his wife went insane over religion in Kansas and was an inmate of an asylum for two years.
