A BIG SHOW AT MASONIC

The "Orleans Coach" Will Be Shown in Marshfield on Saturday.

The Coming of Columbus at the Masonic Theater a week ago Saturday, proved such a great success that another three-reel picture has been secured for the coming Saturday, October 5. This extraordinary picture, entitled "The Orleans Coach," is a very costly production and is correctly worked out, even to the smallest detail. While this story of a great judicial error is entirely different from the Coming of Columbus, yet it will prove to have even a greater drawing power, as it is widely known as a historical fact and is extremely dramatic and tells a clear and concise story of the robbery of the Orleans coach and the condemning of an innocent and upright man. The picture consists of three full reels and is somewhat longer than the Coming of Columbus, and will run over an hour, being three times as long as the usual picture. The performance at the Masonic Theater on Saturday, October 5, will begin about 7:45 and the last show will not start until ten o'clock, so that all will be given a chance to see this, the greatest picture ever produced. Mr. Lewis of the Orpheum has been secured to accompany this highly dramatic feature with appropriate music and has arranged special numbers for this superb and unusual attraction. Reserved seats are now on sale at The Busy Corner, and the entire lower floor will be sold at 20c. Balcony 10c.

How Does This Strike You? Just as I was starting for lunch today, the telephone bell rang and one of the best lady cooks of the city advised me that she had just tried a baking of "Crown" flour, with such excellent results that she had to tell me how good it was. While I knew what I was doing when I took over the Balfour-Cuthrie account and Crown Mills, still this testimony made me feel fine. I have been in the flour business long enough to know the best flour when I see it, and I am sure I now have it in our "Crown" brand.
