A PUBLIC DANGER.

THE CITY is allowing an exceedingly dangerous trap, which is liable to cause an accident at any time. There is a walk extending from the Front street sidewalk to the Breakwater wharf on the north side of the Breakwater office is located. It is true that most everyone goes to the dock by way of the walk along the south side of the city hall, but the walk on the other side is open and a stranger might any time attempt to walk over it at night. In day time it would scarcely be attempted for the boards are broken and there are probably 50 holes in which one could break a leg or more seriously injure themselves. The place is open and is not closed up and anyone not well acquainted with the city might attempt to walk from the wharf to the street over this miserable place and perhaps kill themselves. It might almost be called a death trap. Besides it is an eyesore. Such broken down places in a city give it a poverty-stricken appearance. If this particular walk is one maintained by the city it should be fixed. If it is held open privately by the city has authority to make the property owner fix it so it is not unsafe. At any rate the city has a right to close it up for the prevention of the injury of the people. Anyone hurt there would certainly secure damages from the city.

UNDERTAKER.

When life is done—this life that galls and frets us, this life full of tears and doubts and dreads—the undertaker comes along and gets us, and tucks us neatly in our little beds. When we are done with tolling, hoarding, giving, breath, he comes to show us the cost of living cuts little ice beside the cost of death. I meet him daily in the street or alley, a cheerful man, he dances and he sings; and we exchange the buoyant jest and sally, and never discourse of grim, unpleasant things. We talk of crops, the campaign and the weather, the I. and R., the trusts—this nation's curse; no graveyard hints while we converse together, no reference to joy-rides in a hearse. And yet I feel—perchance it is a blunder—that as I stand there, rugged, hale and strong, he'd like to ask me: "Comrade, why in thunder and other things, do you hang on so long?" When I complain of how the asthma tightens upon my lungs, and makes me feel a wreck, it seems to me his face with rapture lightens, smiles stretch his lips and wind around his neck. And when I say I'm feeling like a heifer turned out to grass, or like a hummingbird, he heaves a sigh as gentle as a zephyr, yet fraught with pain and grief and hope deferred.

NORTH INLET.

(Special to The Times.) NORTH INLET, Oct. 7.—W. O. Hamilton has returned to his work in the Smith mill at Marshfield. He has been detained at home several weeks, as the result of a badly crushed foot, sustained while at work.

Tom Sawyer, Jr., who has been running the automobile from the North Slough Landing to Lakeside, through the past summer, has discontinued the same, owing to the condition of the roads.

Frank Hamilton left Saturday on the Breakwater for Portland. He will go from there to Salem for a visit with relatives and later go to Seattle, where he will probably remain during the winter.

Lumber has arrived and work will soon be commenced on the addition to Wm. Howard's house, formerly known as the Robert Hope home. J. H. Pinkerton and son have the contract for the work.

Work is progressing nicely on the Saunders Lake-Ten Mile road. Miss Emma Johnson and the Misses Ida, Cynthia and Henrietta Bear spent a few days in camp on Seth Johnson's place, recently.

STATEMENT.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Joint Senator for Coos and Curry counties. The present political situation in this district is peculiar in that, of the regular political parties only one, i. e., the Socialists, has an out and out party candidate for this office.

Mr. McLain, the Democratic nominee was ruled ineligible on account of being a candidate for presidential elector and the secretary of state refuses to place his name on the ballot. Mr. Smith was nominated on the Republican ticket, it is true, but since the organization of the Progressive party, has refused choose between the two, and is apparently trying to gain the support of both.

My candidacy is at the solicitation of many friends in all parties, who are at loss to find anyone, up to this time for whom they may consistently vote for the office.

I have always been a Democrat, but running as an independent candidate, I ask and expect the support of all those, of all parties, who believe in me and my declared principle.

I am not endeavoring to ride in to office upon any party platform or under any party banner, nor do I claim or will I try to represent any two hostile factions, but, if elected, I shall try to the best of my powers to represent the entire district.

I have always resided in Coos county and need no introduction to the most of you.

From time to time I will be pleased to make further announcements outlining my policies.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength in building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
