Occupies New Home—D. A. Jones and family are moving today from South Marshfield into their beautiful new home in Ferndale that has just been completed.

Local Boy in Company—Herbert Morton, a former Coos Bay boy, is head violinist of the Gormand-Ford orchestra, which is playing each night this week at the Royal theater.

Play to Big House—The Gormand-Ford company played to a crowded and appreciative house last evening. The specialties between acts were good and the music rendered by the Gormand-Ford orchestra was really delightful.

Start Stock Ranch—Fourier Bros. who are operating markets in North Bend and Marshfield have rented the Peter Petersen ranch on Haynes Inlet and will convert it into a stock ranch, for raising cattle for their market.

Marshfield Man Appointed—Wm. Warren, the well known barber of the Curry shop, has been appointed to a place on the State Board of Barber Inspectors as Coos county deputy, succeeding M. McDonald of Coquille, who has resigned.

Here from Gardiner—Jay Doyle of this city who for several months past has been with the Gardiner Lumber company at Gardiner, was in the city today. Mr. Doyle has been time keeper for the company at one of the Smith river camps most of the time. He was down today on a business trip.

Fred Pasley Married—D. Y. Stafford, who is home from his California trip, reports having met, in San Francisco, Fred Pasley, formerly a reporter on The Times, and well known on Coos Bay, who is now employed on the Examiner. Mr. Pasley was recently married to a San Francisco girl.

which was given out by one of the students, will not be carried out, but that the schedule which will be followed will be arranged and announced soon, probably next Saturday.

Post Office Examination—The United States Civil Service Commission announces that the post-office examination announced to be held October 12, 1912, has been postponed to November 9 on account of lack of applicants. Attention is invited to the fact that a vacancy now exists in the position of clerk in the postoffice at Marshfield, Oregon, and selection will be made from this examination to fill the vacancy. It is probable that a woman will be selected as the postmaster has requested that women be admitted to the examination. Entrance salary $50 per month, with annual promotions to salary of $1000. All qualified persons are urged to apply for and take the examination. Applications may be secured from Miss Eddy, local secretary, Marshfield, or from Herbert F. Ward, district secretary, Seattle, Wash.

WITH THE SICK.

Johnny Koontz, who has been confined to his home for a week with an injured knee cap, is reported slowly recovering.

Mrs. Charles Jackson, who recently went to California for her health, is reported very ill there.

Kenneth Kelly, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis and who for a time was quite seriously ill, is now rapidly recovering. He has left the hospital and is at his home.

Tip Cordes, who was injured when the peanut roaster at Al Owens' cigar store exploded yesterday, is at Mercy hospital. He is suffering from cuts on his legs and a bad cut on his head. He was quite badly bruised.

Mrs. William Buck, who was injured by a lumber car a week or more ago, is still at the hospital. She has partially regained consciousness and there is some hope for her ultimate recovery, though at first it was not believed that she could get well.
