Meet Friday—The Past Matrons' Association of Doric Chapter will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. F. M. Friedberg.
Ladies' Art Club—The Ladies' Art Club has postponed its meeting that was to be held Friday of this week until one week later, Friday October 18, when it will meet with Mrs. F. M. Flye.

Body Goes South—The body of the late Mrs. P. A. Lollister was taken today on the steamer Breakwater to San Francisco where the funeral will be held. Brief services were held this morning at North Bend.

Attend K. P. Convention—Among the number who are to attend the K. P. convention in Portland are A. H. Derbyshire and Edgar McDaniels of North Bend and George Ross of Catching Inlet, all of whom will leave Saturday on the Breakwater.

Getting Better—John McIsaac, who has been quite ill at his home in Ferndale is improving. His friend Mr. McKenna who has been looking after the sick man says that he will soon be able to be up. For a time Mr. McIsaac was quite seriously ill. He is widely known here as the bag pipe player who has officiated on the occasions of the Scotch picnics.

Leaves for California—Dr. J. T. McCormac left today for Berkeley, where he will join Mrs. McCormac and Fred. They will spend the winter at different California points and will probably return about April 1. Dr. McCormac shipped his auto on the Redondo and will take advantage of California's roads and make many trips to interesting spots. Mr. A. E. Seaman is assisting the doctor's office during his absence.

Attend W. C. T. U. Convention—Several of the Coos County ladies will attend the W. C. T. U. Greeting Old Friends—E. W. Schubert, formerly pursuer on the Alliance and familiarly known as "Foxy Grandpa" to his many friends is on Coos Bay visiting for a few days. Since his last trip here Mr. Schubert visited his old home in Holland to visit a sister he had not seen for 38 years. He spent several months traveling in Europe before returning to his home in Portland. Numerous friends here are always glad to see him.

Halloween Approaching—Although Halloween is more than three weeks away many of the stores are showing the colors and signs of that jolly celebration. Jack o' Lanterns grin down from shelves and black cats glower threateningly on passers-by. The decorations for social functions at Halloween rival those of Christmas and Fourth of July in their attractiveness but there are certain customs incidental to the coming day that make it a terror to many hearts.

Organize Dancing Club—At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Turpen last Saturday a new dancing club was organized. The name chosen for the club is the Fortnightly Dancing Club and the invitations for the first promenade will be out soon. The patronesses are Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Mrs. W. A. Toye, Mrs. Wm. S. Turpen, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, Mrs. W. T. Merchant and Mrs. J. W. Bennett.

Pioneer Here—J. A. Yoakam, Sr., who arrived on the Bay about three weeks ago from Oakland, left this morning for a visit with relatives in Coquille. Mr. Yoakam is buying dairy stock for his farm in Gridley, Calif. He expects to leave for California on the Redondo next week. Mr. Yoakam is well known on Coos Bay, having lived here, years ago. He is the father of Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., of this city, and J. A. Yoakam, Jr., who lived here formerly, but who with his family is now located in Gridley, California.

New School District—School District No. 61 is a new one established out of district No. 57 on South Slough as the result of an election held Tuesday. The new district lies on the west side of the Slough and was established because of the inconvenience of children crossing the Slough to the school house. There about 20 children of school age in the territory embraced in the new district. Cyrus Ferri, John Conklin and John Cottle were elected directors and Frank Wyman clerk. A new school house will be built as soon as all the legal formalities can be completed with.
