Builds Home.—Will Asplund's fine new home in Ferndale is rapidly nearing completion and he hopes to move in shortly.

Buy Home.—W. H. Irish has purchased a residence lot at the corner of Thirteenth and Commercial from W. F. Miller and will probably build there soon.

Shannon in Pueblo.—Dan Shannon well known and well remembered on Coos Bay is at present conducting a series of evangelistic meetings at the First Baptist church in Pueblo.

Will Speak Here.—John W. Campbell, nominee for congress in the first district on the Progressive party ticket, will be here soon to speak for the party. Capt. Macginn of the Breakwater says he is a fine speaker.

After Ducks.—Burt A. Doremus and Tom Larkin were duck hunting yesterday. The exact number of birds they secured is not given, but Fred Wilson says that they will have to send to San Francisco for 18 expert poultry men to handle the game.

Returns from Trip.—Mrs. John Lennan of North Bend returned yesterday from a five months' visit in eastern cities with friends and relatives. Her son Del Lennan who is now making his home in Boston returned with her and may probably locate here, sending for his family later on.

Will Move to Bandon.—P. A. Sandberg, who is now city engineer of Bandon is in the city today greeting many old friends. When he returns to Bandon Monday he will be accompanied by Mrs. Sandberg and they will make their home in the city-by-the-sea. Mr. and Mrs. Will Chandler will occupy the Sandberg residence.

Locates in Bandon.—C. F. Pape arrived in this evening from Bandon where he has recently taken the position as representative of the Sperry Flour company. He will return Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Pape. They will make their home in Bandon. Their many friends regret their departure from the Bay, but wish them success in their new undertakings.

Buy Property.—C. E. Walsh, an electrician of Seattle, has purchased through I. S. Kaufman & Co., the corner of Sixth and Bennett, 100x100 feet, from the Marshfield Realty and Trading Co., a C. A. Smith company. He has also purchased the corner of Fifth and Anderson from Mrs. Lizzie Hyde. The combined properties cost about $7000, it is understood.

Mother Is Dead.—J. T. Harrigan received a letter today from his wife announcing that her mother, Mrs. Fitzgerald, died at the old family home in Oakshosh, Wisconsin, yesterday of cancer. Mrs. Fitzgerald had been ill for some time and the members of her family were gathered there at the time of her death. Mrs. Harrigan went east a few weeks ago.

Ordered to Siuslaw.—Engineer Leeve who has been in charge of the government work here for the past two years, has received orders to leave Dec. 1, for the Siuslaw river where he will take charge of the jetty building at that harbor. Before leaving, Mr. Leeve has some reports to make here and some other work to do but will probably be able to take a month's vacation before assuming his new duties at the Siuslaw.

Is in Alaska.—Evert Nymanover,

the piano tuner who recently left Marshfield and who is well known here is now in Valdez, Alaska. The following from the Daily Prospector of Valdez indicates that he is on a journey around the world. The Prospector says: "Evert Nymanover, the piano expert now in Valdez, came recently from Honolulu, where he tuned pianos for the immensely wealthy sugar plantation owners. From Hawaii he went to New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia and the Fiji Islands. On finishing Alaska, he leaves for Shanghai and Tokio, in Japan. In the so-called "European colonies" in the Orient, he expects to find pianos enough to take him through while circumnavigating the world, east and west. E. Nymanover is a very active contributor to the Swedish-American press on subjects covering this globe encircling tour."

Prize Offered.—A $5 prize has been offered by the Crescent Baking Powder Manufacturing Co. for the best cake made with Crescent Baking Powder and flavored with Mapleine. The cakes must be on exhibition in Stauff's Grocery by Monday noon and the prizes will be awarded at 5:30. Miss Marion Shannon, a demonstrator, gave a talk and demonstration this afternoon which was attended by many interested ladies.
