The next meeting will be the first Wednesday in November with Mrs. James Forty of Bunker Hill.

The W. O. W. lodge gave a dancing and card party Wednesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Miss Maud Painter delighted those present with several vocal solos and a number of piano and violin duets added much to the evening's enjoyment. Card tables were arranged upstairs for those who did not care to dance. The floor was in good condition, the music splendid and everybody had a real good time.

The members and friends of the Swedish-Lutheran church gave a coffee and cake social at the church last Saturday evening for the purpose of raising missionary funds.

The ladies of the Baptist church and their friends were very pleasantly entertained at a silver tea last Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Doane as hostess. During the afternoon, Rev. A. F. Bassford gave some very helpful and interesting remarks, and the readings by Mrs. E. Kelly and Miss Bessie Flanagan were thoroughly enjoyed. Most delicious refreshments were served at the close of the program. Those present were Rev. A. F. Bassford, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. Alva Doll, Mrs. Louis Doll, Mrs. R. P. Harrington and little son, Everett, Mrs. Henry Black, Mrs. John Nagle, Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. W. Hill, Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Charles Bonebrake, Mrs. E. A. Edmonds, Mrs. J. C. Doane and the Misses Ivy Hill, Bessie Flanagan, Mamie Gulooson, Miss Harris and Lucy Bonebrake.

The Ladies' Guild of Saint Luke's church at Empire were very enjoyably entertained yesterday by Mrs. Dunstan of the Arago Lighthouse.

Mrs. O. Hansen, Mrs. W. K. Wiseman, and Mrs. Swinford were the only members present at the Social Embroidery Club meeting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Swinford last Wednesday. Nevertheless, these ladies enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. W. K. Wiseman will entertain the club next Wednesday, Oct. 23.

The Crescendo Club of North Bend postponed their concert this week until Tuesday of next week, Oct. 22 when they will meet at the P. L. Swearingen home.

The Sisters of Bethany met with Miss Alice Butler last Tuesday afternoon.

noon, at which time the organization was disbanded and the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church was organized. This was done with the view of bringing back into the Guild those who had lost interest because they thought the Sisters of Bethany was not strictly a church guild. The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Lyman Noble, Vice Pres.—Mrs. Ledward, Secretary—Miss Alice Butler, Treasurer—Mrs. Fannie Hazard.

The meeting adjourned after a very enjoyable afternoon, to meet again under the name the "Ladies' Guild" with Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr. next Tuesday, Oct. 22.

Those present were Mrs. J. M. Upton, Mrs. Ledward, Mrs. Horsfall, Mrs. Bradfield, Mrs. Saechl, Mrs. L. Noble, Mrs. Fannie Hazard, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Mrs. John F. Coke, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Jr., Misses Evelyn Anderson, Agnes Hutcheson, Maud Reed, Alice Butler and Rev. R. E. Browning.

Mrs. S. Lando was hostess to the members of the A. N. W. Club last Thursday afternoon. The time was delightfully spent in fancy work and pleasant conversation. Dainty refreshments were served.

The following members were present: Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Mrs. Olivia Edman, Mrs. F. M. Friedberg, Mrs. J. T. Hall, Mrs. Charles Kaiser of North Bend, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. L. Noble, Mrs. H. Reed, Mrs. Chas. Stauff and the guests were Miss Cleve of Portland, Mrs. Gebhart of North Bend, and Mrs. F. W. Bertram.

The Club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

The Thimble Club was delightfully entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. S. S. Jennings of North Bend. It was decided to give a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Wednesday, Oct. 30, at which time the ladies will entertain their husbands. Mrs. Jennings' guests were: Mrs. Hurlmeister, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. E. E. Riggs, Mrs. Greaves, Miss Kelly, Mrs. C. A. Davidson, Mrs. M. E. Everitt, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. W. R. Simpson, Mrs. Kaiser, Mrs. Glazier, Mrs. Ira Bartle and Mrs. Watters. Mrs. E. E. Riggs will be hostess to the Club Friday, Nov. 1.

The Bridge Club enjoyed an extremely pleasant afternoon with Mrs. W. M. Blake last Wednesday. The hostess served luncheon at one o'clock and the remainder of the afternoon was taken up with Bridge. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. Horsfall, Jr., and Mrs. John S. Coke won second high.

Among those present were Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. H. S. Tower, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. W. A. Toy, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. Boyd Richardson, Mrs. L. J. Simpson and Mrs. C. M. Byler, both of North Bend, Mrs. J. A. Matson, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. James Flanagan, Mrs. G. W. Kaufman, Mrs. McEldowney and Miss Anna McEldowney of Chicago.

Mrs. C. M. Byler of North Bend will be hostess to the club Wednesday, October 30.

The Ladies' Art Club was entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. F. M. Flye on South Fifth street. The new members taken in were Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein, Mrs. Storey and Mrs. F. A. Haines. A most pleasant and enjoyable afternoon was spent in sewing after which the hostess served a delicious luncheon to the following guests: Mrs. Ivy Condon, Mrs. Frank Sumner, Mrs. Blatt, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. Rasmussen, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. Hoagland, Mrs. E. D. McArthur, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Lydia Lang, and Mrs. Olivia Edman.

Mrs. Hoagland will be hostess to the club next Friday afternoon.

INFORMAL CHAT

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Booth entertained a few friends at dinner last Sunday at their home in West Marshfield.

Mrs. George Baines and children left for a visit with relatives in California this week. Mr. Baines will join them later.

Dr. and Mrs. Sorenson who were guests recently at the E. A. Anderson home in this city, left this week for their home in Bandon.

Miss Phoebe Larson of Larson Inlet visited friends and relatives in Marshfield this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger returned this week from a trip to Portland. They came back via Myrtle Point and made a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Schilling who drove them from that place to Marshfield in their auto.

On Friday, November 1, the Presbyterian church will tender a reception to their new pastor, Rev. J. E. Burkhardt, who arrived Thursday on the Breakwater. The church and general public are most cordially invited to attend.

Next Thursday, Oct. 24, Mrs. A. L. Barker will entertain the ladies of the Presbyterian church at an all-day session and "pot-luck" dinner.

Mrs. Fannie E. Wheeler left Thursday for a two weeks' visit to Portland. She will attend the National Convention of the W. C. T. U. and will visit friends in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers arrived from Ionia, Michigan, and are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. James Landrith, on Coos River. They will remain here for the winter.

Dan E. Maloney and bride returned Thursday from an extended honeymoon trip through the coast states. They have taken up their home on Commercial Avenue.

E. N. McDonnell and bride arrived on the Bay this week to make their future home. Mr. McDonnell holds an important position with the Oregon Power company and Mrs. McDonnell is quite well known here, having visited with her sister, Mrs. Sjonberg, here last winter. They plan to go to housekeeping soon. Their host of friends on the Bay unite in extending a cordial welcome to them.

Miss Nan Browning entertained last Saturday evening at sewing; most of her guests being Marshfield teachers. Dainty refreshments were served. Following are those present: Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. R. K. Booth, Mrs. A. L. Barker and the Misses Esther Silverman, Nellie B. Tower, Agnes Carpenter, Elmore, Adnee Palmer, Abbott, Mogford, Spooner, Woodworth, O'Conner, Hilda Stenholm, Armsby, Moore, Inez Baldwin, Helen Landrith, and Nann Browning.

Mrs. A. L. Houseworth and Mrs. Dorsey Kreitzer left on the Breakwater today for a ten days' visit in Portland.

Miss Kelley of Alameda, California, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Wallace, of North Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Chandler will occupy the P. A. Sandberg home while Mr. and Mrs. Sandberg will spend the winter in Bandon.

Mrs. Augusta Scott will leave tomorrow on the Alliance for an extended visit with her sister in Portland.

Preparations are being made for the formation of a new card club in Marshfield. Definite plans will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein of North Bend received the announcement of the birth of a ten pound son to Mr. and Mrs. James C. Cronin of San Francisco Oct. 8. Mrs. Cronin was formerly Miss Lydia Falkenstein and is quite well known on the Bay.

Miss Gladys Kranick of North Bend received a letter from her sister, Miss Nellie Kranick stating that she had arrived safely at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Rosing of Minneapolis. She has entered the North High School where they have an enrollment of four hundred students.

An orchestra has been organized in the Marshfield High School with Miss Agnes Carpenter as director. The first meeting was held last Thursday at the assembly room with the following members present:

Miss Roxie Hall, violin; Miss Durma Campbell, piano; Miss Bertha Davis, violin; Horace Rauskopf, violin; Leslie and Chester Isaacson, mandolins.

The result of this meeting was very encouraging and there is ample room for more members in the organization. The orchestra will meet again for practice next Tuesday in the High School Assembly room. Plans for a glee club are also under consideration.

Col. Grimes and wife have left Ohio where they have been visiting relatives for Oklahoma where they will visit Dennis Flynn and other friends before proceeding to Whittier, Calif., where they will probably spend most of the winter.

I. S. Kaufman and wife are expected home in a week or so from their extended eastern trip. Mrs. Kaufman came west a short time ago and Mr. Kaufman was to leave Chicago this week and will probably join her at Spokane.

Mrs. F. C. Birch who has been visiting her parents at Chico, Calif., is expected home next week.

Miss Mamie Mahoney will leave next week for Portland and other northern points to spend a few weeks with friends.

Miss Madge Barry of Empire is visiting Miss Frances Williams of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McCollum left today for Portland. From there they will go east on an extended tour lasting several months.

DEER BARBECUE.

Two score and five jolly good fellows foregathered at the summer bungalow of J. Albert Matson on Coos River yesterday evening as guests of Ivy Condon at a deer barbecue. Those who were fortunate enough to be present say that the spread was one that would make the feast of Lucullus look like a soup house hand-out. Tender, juicy venison and green corn with accompanying viands made a feast that would make the gods envious of the guests. Song, story and vaudeville were some of the attractions that made the occasion memorable. The acting of some of the participants was said to be such that some of those present were swept off their feet. It was one of the most enjoyable affairs and will long be remembered.

Among those who were present were: Ivy Condon, J. Albert Matson, Dr. Straw, Claude Nasburg, E. K. Jones, Arthur McKeown, Messrs. Hevens, C. R. Peck, J. M. Upton, E. S. ## HONOR NEWLYWEDS.

Decorations at Oregon Power Company's Office May Serve Two. The Oregon Power Company's office presented an unusual sight today, the interior being bedecked with strings of old shoes and signs inscribed "The NewlyWeds", "Oh, You Married Man," etc. The smiling countenance of E. N. McDonnell behind the counter told the reason why. He has just resumed his duties there, after returning from a month's honeymoon trip in the east. The office decorations were made by Arthur Blanchard and others.

Mr. McDonnell intimated this morning that possibly the decorations would be left up a little while and transferred with a few additions to the desk of Arthur Blanchard in the very near future as, he says, the latter is about to settle down after flying around for quite awhile. However, Mr. Blanchard has made no public confirmation of Mr. McDonnell's claims.
