You're Safe With This Guarantee —Insist on Getting It

WHEN the inside pocket of the next suit or overcoat you buy contains a Clothcraft Guarantee you are safe against any defect or disappointment in material or making.

The Clothcraft Guarantee absolutely assures all-wool cloth, honest tailoring, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

The makers of Clothcraft Clothes—with their reputation of 66 years' good clothes making to maintain—could not give such a binding guarantee if the clothes did not measure up to it. Neither could we afford to back up the makers' guarantee—as we do—if these clothes did not fully justify our confidence in them.

There's sure satisfaction and a saving for you in Clothcraft Clothes at $10 to $25. They're bound to give you full one hundred cents' worth of insured value for every dollar you spend.

BORN.

FLANAGAN—To Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flanagan, at their home in Marshfield, Monday, October 21, 1912, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well and the happy father—well you must see "Jack" to appreciate his pride in this latest bit of dainty femininity that has come to bless the Flanagan home. If you even hint that she can't be president of the United States some day "Jack" will point to the strides woman suffrage is making and before she is 21 who can tell. Grandpa Tom Howard is also a bit puffed up over the brightest and sweetest little girl that has come to make her home on Coos Bay in many a day.

Entertaining Today—Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger is entertaining the Progress club at her home in South Marshfield this afternoon.

Council Tonight—The Marshfield city council will meet this evening. No matters of particular importance are slated to come up, but there is considerable miscellaneous municipal business to be transacted.

Buys Property—Capt. C. W. Harris of Sumner through the Stutsman agency, has purchased the Pommerville ten-acre tract at Flagstaff for $4500. He plans to move onto the property and make his home there in the near future.

Another Chandler—Marshfield is not the only town that boasts of a Hotel Chandler. Geo. W. Tribbey today received a letter from Y. P. Rutherford of Lebam, Wash., and his letter shows that he is the proprietor of the Hotel Chandler.

Have Trouble—James Durrant and F. Grant were to appear before City Recorder Butler today on the charge of being involved in a general melee Saturday night in Coleman's saloon on North Front street. C. D. Shoemaker is also wanted for starting the fracas, but Marshal Carier says he ran so fast that he could not catch him.

New Homes—W. E. Wilson this morning started the erection of Supt. F. A. Tiedgen's new home in South Marshfield, near the F. E. Allen and J. O. Langworthy residences. James Wall is also arranging for the erection of a new home on Fourth street between Central and Commercial in West Marshfield which will be occupied by himself and—well, the date has not been announced.

Finds Package—Every day demonstrates that The Times want ads get results. The other day Johnny Wilson found a small package of dry goods near Mill Slough. He brought it to The Times office. A found ad was inserted in Friday evening's Times. It was read by Miss Ziegler who lost the package, described it and was pleased to recover it. Found or lost, for sale, for rent, whatever is wanted, if it is gettable, The Times want ads will get it.

Recovers Keepsake—Mrs. Chas. Seafuse of 463 North Broadway, is a new arrival on Coos Bay. One day last week she lost a valuable locket, and one that was valued more as a keepsake than for its intrinsic value. It was lost on the county road and she feared it was gone forever. A friend told her to try a want ad in The Times. It was inserted Friday and Saturday evenings. Saturday evening the ad was read by Mrs. R. D. Hall of Ferndale, whose husband found the locket and brought it home and told his wife to try and find the owner. She watched the want ads in The Times Saturday and Sunday morning she brought the locket to The Times office. Today it was given to Mrs. Seafuse who was overjoyed to receive it and a reward will be paid to the lucky finder. The Times want ads bring results because everybody reads them.

Says Roads Are Bad—Major J. F. McIndoe, U. S. Engineer, arrived in Roseburg Thursday evening from Marshfield and other Coos Bay points, where he had been since Sunday, going out by way of Drain and coming out by way of that masterpiece of engineering (?) which masquerades under the name of the "Myrtle-Point-Roseburg stage road." The Major, aside from explaining that no significance was to be attached to his visit as regards existing conditions on the bay between the Government and the S. P. R. R. Co.—his trip simply being for the purpose of inspecting some old junk left there by Major Morrow—spoke highly of the prosperous condition of the country through which he had traveled, but, like every other unfortunate who has been compelled to make the trip from Rock Creek to Camas Valley on one of the over-loaded and overcrowded mail wagons, could not understand why such roads are allowed to exist. The Major left for Portland this morning on the local train.—Roseburg Review.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

Monday.
 Progress Club with Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger.

for county assessor, is in the city looking after his political fence. He has just completed a trip through the Ten Mile country and reports that he has met with considerable encouragement. He expects to spend the week in the Coos Bay section.

ED McKEOWN, foreman of the Smith-Powers Camp on South Slough, will leave on the next Redondo for his old home in Minnesota where he will visit for awhile. Some of his friends here expect that he will be accompanied back by Mrs. McKeown, but he vigorously denies the charge that he is going to follow Fred Powers' lead in joining the Benedicts.

AMONG THE SICK.

Little Katherine Horton is confined to her home as the result of an accident Saturday evening.

Mrs. Otto Schetter who recently underwent an operation in a San Francisco hospital is getting along nicely and expects to be able to start for home soon.

A. G. Alken is rapidly recovering from severe bruises sustained in a fall recently. That he did not sustain some broken bones is a wonder as he dropped several feet, landing on his side on a pile of ties.

Miss Genevieve Sengstacken who has been visiting friends in San Francisco underwent a minor operation at Lane hospital there last week. She is rapidly recuperating and will probably return home soon.

MRS. PRENTISS WEDS.

Married in Portland to Edward Burch of Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Annie Prentiss, widow of the late Dr. A. B. Prentiss, was married today in Portland, according to a letter received by Mrs. Sarah Wilson. The groom was Edward Burch, an old friend of Mrs. Prentiss and one whom she knew before her first marriage. He is a contractor and the couple left for Oakland, Cal., where they will reside. Mrs. Prentiss lived in this city for quite a while. The same letter from Mrs. Prentiss announced that her son, Shirley Prentiss, was not to be married, as was announced.
