LOCAL TEMPERATURE REPORT.

For the 24 hours ending at 4:45 a. m., Oct. 25, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:
Maximum.....61
Minimum.....39
At 4:45 a. m.....51
Precipitation......21.
Wind—Southwest; ratny.

Is Entertaining—Mrs. E. Mings is entertaining a few friends at her home in West Marshfield this afternoon.

Go To Myrtle Point—The Marshfield High School football team will go to Myrtle Point in the morning where they will play against the Myrtle Point High School boys in the afternoon. Game called at 1:30 p. m.

Boat Delayed—The Gasco with the incoming passengers from Gardiner, met with a mishap this morning and was delayed nearly two hours. She had several passengers.

New House—L. M. Noble is putting in the foundation for a fourth new residence in Railroad addition, east of Broadway. He has just completed the third this season and says he could rent many more.

Funeral Tomorrow—The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lund of North Broadway, who died yesterday, will be held from the home at 10 o'clock tomorrow, the Rev. Mr. Burkhardt officiating.

Wants Franchise—It is announced that the Oregon Power company is seeking an electric franchise in Eastside. A number of houses there have been wired by Charles Merchant preparatory to getting the service there.

Case Up Again—Judge Coke will shortly hear in Chambers a motion for a rehearing in the $29,000 damage suit of Jordan Schappers of Allegany vs. the Simpson Lumber Co. It was decided in favor of the defendant after the first hearing.

Report Incorrect—There was a report on the street his afternoon that the Redondo was in trouble but this was a mistake as it was impossible to receive any wireless message, the local station not being in communication with any other point.

Have Recital—Mrs. A. B. Gidley entertained a few friends at her home in South Marshfield last evening at a recital by three of her pupils, Miss Florence Rehfeld, Miss Esther Johnson and Miss Myrtle Cowan. Some excellent numbers were rendered.

Gets Auto—The Coos Bay Bakery has received a new Ford delivery auto, 1913 model. It is a classy 22 1-2 horsepower car, especially arranged for delivery purposes. George Goodrum brought it down on the Breakwater yesterday for them.

Back from Hunt—Clyde Bookman, T. C. Taylor and H. L. Anderson of the Smith Powers Camp No. 6 have returned from an extended hunting trip through eastern Coos and Douglas counties. At Cow Creek, Anderson killed a five-prong buck that weighed 180 pounds.

Rough Along Beach—Parties coming down the beach from Gardiner yesterday afternoon report that the storm was one of the most severe that they have encountered in a long time. The wind blew a perfect gale and nearly upset the stage a number of times.

Gets Brook Trout—In the consignment of fish sent here yesterday to place in Coos county streams, State Game and Fish Warden Finley included 2,000 eastern brook trout for Dr. Straw to place in the smaller streams. Dr. Straw will probably have them placed in the upper waters of Coos River.

Taken to Coquille—Carroll Smith, the negro prizefighter known better as "Gunboat" Smith, was taken to Coquille this afternoon by Constable Cox. Smith was bound over by the grand jury on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Hickerson and Mrs. Trollinger, negroes, with a dangerous weapon. He was unable to furnish $500 bonds.

Cornwall To Retire—Capt. N. J. Cornwall of the tug Gleaner of Gardiner is planning to retire November 1 and devote his time to his other business. He has been bar Gardiner for thirteen years, eight years on the tug Hunter. Joseph Gardiner, formerly of the steamer

San Gabriel and recently on the Gleaner, will succeed Capt. Cornwall.

Care for Men—Dr. Geo. E. Dix of Marshfield and Dr. Leslie Johnson of Myrtle Point have been awarded the hospital contract of the Willett & Burr Construction company on the new Smith-Powers line beyond Myrtle Point. It is likely that the hospital at Myrtle Point will be utilized largely for the care of the injured and sick on the work.

Recovered Overcoat—Archie Phillips who has been advertising in The Times for a lost overcoat, has recovered his coat. It had dropped out of an auto bound for North Bend and someone picked it up and saw the advertisement and returned the coat to Mr. Phillips. The latter has ordered the advertisement out of The Times, having accomplished the desired purpose. Mr. Phillips says all he wanted was his own overcoat and he fears an ad with such drawing qualities will bring him more overcoats that belong to someone else.

To Asylum—The following item from the Salem Statesman will be of interest to many of the older residents of Marshfield: Yesterday the county court ordered committed to the insane asylum Charles Sneddon, a Marshfield farmer. He suffers from the hallucination that enemies are constantly on his trial to take a pot shot at him so that they may confiscate his property. Most any time of the day or night he hears shots and only saves his life by ducking. Sneddon is a native of Scotland and has been a resident of this state for 42 years. He is married.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stein of North Bend have suffered a double sorrow. A sister of Mrs. Stein, Mrs. Frank Osterman, formerly of North Bend, died at Grand Island, Neb., a few days ago. On Oct. 15, Mrs. M. P. Gaddis, daughter of Mr. Stein, died at St. Joe, Mo.

GREEKS GO FROM BANDON.

Party for the War Leave from that City This Week.

In addition to the Greeks and Montenegrins who went from this city to sail for Europe, a party of Greeks went from Bandon this week to go back and fight with their people in the war with Turkey. Many others here now are in readiness to go and are only waiting until they feel certain that their services are needed. Quite a number of the Greeks have business interests and property and they do not want to give up everything unless it is necessary to go but if they feel they are needed they are willing to do so, even at the sacrifice of their local financial interests.

CHANGE POLLING PLACE.

Coos River Precinct Will Vote at W. H. Smith Residence.
The polling place for voters in the North Coos River precinct will be changed this year from the building at the cemetery which was used in former years, to the W. H. Smith residence at the fork. The reason for the change is the dilapidated condition of the old building. J. J. Clingenbeard was in the city today conferring with Judge Hall, completing arrangements for the change.
