

C. C. Going's Answer to L. A. Liljeqvist:

In last Saturday evening's papers you saw fit to attack me in one of the most dastardly and cowardly manners possible. And, although I believe and know that my character as a citizen of this community is as honorable and upright as yours is in your community, Mr. Liljeqvist, and needs no defense from any cowardly, dirty attack that you might make upon me, human nature can not stand by and refrain from an answer. You insinuate, Mr. Liljeqvist, that I acted as a go-between.

This Is a True Statement of What You Distort and Garble

Mr. Liljeqvist. First, I am in business, selling goods. Second, my goods are for sale to the public. Third, I am not in the business of asking my customers what their morals are, except as to their financial ability to live up to their contract. Fourth, I was collecting a payment on goods sold to the party you refer to and at the time of making this collection I was handed some money and asked, as a matter of accommodation, to hand it to the property owner. This, then, is the great wrong that I have done, to hear you tell it. This little matter of accommodation, you would stretch and twist into a character assassin attack on me, merely because I have seen fit to support a candidate for office that you are opposing. You insinuate also, Mr. Liljeqvist, that I had done this two or three times, which is a damnable lie.

Mr. L. A. Liljeqvist YOU HAVE PROSTITUTED YOUR OFFICE

AS ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY; YOU HAVE VIOLATED THE ETHICS OF YOUR PROFESSION. YOU STATE THAT THE INFORMATION YOU PUBLISH AGAINST ME WAS OBTAINED IN THE GRAND JURY ROOM. DO NOT THE LAWS OF THE STATE PRESCRIBE THAT ALL MATTERS BEFORE THE GRAND JURY SHALL REMAIN SECRET AND INVIOLENT? HAVE YOU NOT VIOLATED THE LAW AND THE TRUST INTERPOSED IN YOU BY REVEALING THE INFORMATION THAT YOU CLAIM TO HAVE RECEIVED IN THE GRAND JURY ROOM? HAVING KNOWN YOU TO BE JUST THE KIND OF A MAN THAT YOU HAVE SHOWN YOURSELF TO BE BY THIS COWARDLY INSINUATING ATTACK ON ME IS THE PRE-EMINENT REASON FOR MY SUPPORT OF THE CANDIDATE THAT YOU OPPOSE.

IF I HAVE BROKEN THE LAW, WHY DID YOU NOT HAVE ME ARRESTED AND CONVICTED? I WOULD HAVE GLADLY PAID THE FINE. I TRY TO BE A LAW-ABIDING CITIZEN AND IF I BREAK ANY LAWS I WANT TO PAY THE PENALTY. WHY DO YOU WAIT TILL JUST BEFORE ELECTION TO SPREAD BROADCAST THROUGH THE NEWSPAPERS NEWS THAT YOU CLAIM YOU HAVE ABOUT ME? WHY DO YOU MAKE IT INSINUATING?

I'll tell you why. Because you know, in your own heart, that I am guiltless of any intention of breaking the law. You thought that you would "line me up" with lawbreakers and thereby hurt the candidate that I am supporting. In regard to my supporting candidates for office I have always exercised my best judgment and that liberty which every American citizen is entitled to and which you have no right whatever to question. In supporting candidates for office I have never attacked the character or reputation of any opposing candidate, nor have I ever undertaken to assassinate the character or injure the reputation of any good citizen who has seen fit to oppose me.

Mr. Liljeqvist, you have seen fit to take advantage of this campaign to try and injure my standing and business in this community. You have made an attack upon a private citizen. It is entirely a question that should be settled between you and me personally and damned be the one that asks for quarter.

LOGGIE'S MATE IS BLAMED.

Ernest Lorentzen Has Papers Revoked for Eight Months. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Ernest Lorentzen, second mate of the wrecked steamer J. J. Loggie, admitted that he alone was to blame for the disaster which sent the vessel to the bottom off Point Arguello. He was found guilty by the inspectors and his papers were revoked for eight months.

Just why Lorentzen, whose watch it was, did not summon Captain Svensen when the vessel struck, was not explained to James Guthrie and Joseph P. Dolan, local inspectors of hulls and boilers. Lorentzen denied that he had been drinking. He presented a complete enigma to his inquirers. Lorentzen's conduct before the board of inquiry was strikingly like that of Third Mate Thomas of the Santa Rosa, which was wrecked within a stone's throw of the spot and within five minutes of the same time of day. In both cases the night was clear and the men on watch had no excuse to offer for their part in the disasters.

TROUBLE IN BUSINESS

Bad Mixup Over Trade for Property In Coquille.

The business of the Ladies Bazaar is in a tangle which the courts may be called upon to adjudicate; that is, the private business of the former proprietors, Messrs. Garman and McCormick.

H. W. Miller at present in charge of the affairs of the Bazaar for R. O. Knowlton, came to Coquille three weeks ago for the purpose of trading his residence property at Newberg for the business. The following information was gleaned from an interview with Mr. Miller: The business was represented to him as showing returns of $40.00 a day and having a $5000 stock of all new goods. It was also represented to him that the firm owed a little money to one of the local banks and that there are no other incumbrances.

Believing these matters to be as represented Mr. Miller executed a deed to his home place to Mr. Garman. Later it developed that Mr. Garman owed considerable money in San Francisco and eastern cities and also in Coquille. In an effort to raise money to satisfy these claims Mr. Garman executed a deed of trust for the Newberg property to Mr. McCormick, the latter gentleman representing that his brother had plenty of money and that he would advance it. McCormick took the trust deed and departed for Eugene stating that he would telegraph the money to Coquille.

Up to the present time the money has not reached here and Mr. Garman is now on his way to Eugene to secure return of the trust deed. The return of this document has been repeatedly requested but McCormick has failed to respond to the matter and it may have to be taken to the courts before he is compelled to return the paper.

As the matter now stands Mr. Miller's home in Newberg is in the hands of Mr. McCormick, the Bazaar is held by Mr. Knowlton under a chattel mortgage, Mr. Garman has departed and Mr. Miller is left to hold the stock. However, he is handling this in conjunction with his old stock and it is not lost.
