 Maximum 55
 Minimum 43
 At 4:43 a. m. 48
 Precipitation03
 Wind—southwest, cloudy.

BORN.

EVERITT—Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Everitt of Flat B, a 10½ pound daughter.

No Council Tonight—The Marshfield city council will not meet until next Monday night, having adjourned at the last meeting for two weeks.

Plans to Build.—I. S. Kaufman is planning to erect a fine home on Central avenue, just east of Dr. Toye's residence. He recently purchased the lots from Dr. Mingus.

Hard Trip.—A letter from Rev. Father Donnelly to a friend tells of the safe arrival in San Francisco of the Very Rev. Father McMahon and himself after a rough and wet trip.

Sells Playhouse.—G. J. Lemanski, proprietor of the Royal moving picture show house at Coquille, has sold his house of Coquille, the Royal, to Arthur Dixon of the Gorman-Ford Co.

Good Hunting.—Mr. and Mrs. Burt Doremus and R. C. Cordes returned this morning from a three days' hunt in the Sand Hills. They brought home 15 ducks and three geese, Canadian honkers.

Repair City Hall.—The city council committee is having Contractor Byerly repaint and repaper the interior of the city hall. They have not yet let the contract for the proposed alterations and heating system.

Little Girl Returns.—Margaret O'Donnell, who left here about three weeks ago to attend the Sisters' School at Eugene, returned on the last Breakwater. Margaret, who is nine years old, made the trip alone from Eugene.

Child Dies.—The two weeks' old child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ericson of Porter died yesterday of infantile diseases. The little one had been ailing but a short time. The many friends of the family unite in extending their sympathy.

Pleases Local Men.—The re-election of Gov. Eberhart of Minnesota is very pleasing to most of the many former Minnesota men here and particularly to E. Magnusson and Aug. Frizzen. Mr. Magnusson is a cousin of Gov. Eberhart and Mr. Frizzen was a friend of the governor's when the two were young men in St. Peter, Minn. Mr. Magnusson is an architect, who recently located on the Bay.

In Chicago.—Geo. Dindinger is in receipt of a letter from his brother, W. H. Dindinger, saying he should reach Chicago today. Mr. Dindinger said that the trip from Coos Bay to Drain was awful.

Visit Mrs. Jackson.—A party of the Rebekahs consisting of Mrs. Ida Patterson, Mrs. C. E. Powers, Mrs. H. C. Noble and Mrs. J. Lee Brown yesterday visited Mrs. Chas. Jackson on Catching Inlet. She is in a critical condition and it is feared she cannot survive long.

Ends Investigation.—Coroner F. E. Wilson has returned from Coquille where he concluded the investigation of the sudden death of Mrs. Nancy Cunningham. He has decided not to do anything further about it now, the evidence indicating that the victim was personally responsible for the fatal act.

Couple Separate.—The trouble between Wm. E. Clements and wife of Bay City were terminated quickly with Constable Cox for mediator. They agreed to separate and divided their belongings, the wife returning to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leaton of Eastside.

Blake Elected.—Word has been received here of the election of Bruce Blake of Spokane to superior judgeship of Spokane county. Mr. Blake, who is only 30 years old, is a brother of J. M. Blake, a one-time resident of Marshfield, and has many friends on the Bay, having visited here many times.

Gets Construction Pictures.—W. F. Harmon has just received three fine pictures of construction work on the Eugene-Coos Bay line. The pictures are being displayed in his show window on Front street. They were taken by H. G. Coleman, formerly of Marshfield, but now of Spokane, during a trip over the road to near Florence about a month ago.

Opens Fine Place.—Leid's new bakery and delicatessen opened on Second street is a little gem. Resplendent in white, plate glass and French mirrors it is a reminder of a metropolis. The fixtures are elaborate and beautiful. The tea room with its snowy linen, rare gold and white China and glittering silver is one of the prettiest rooms in the city. It helps make Marshfield a miniature metropolis and one of the biggest little cities on the Pacific Coast.

Orpheum Features Tuesday.—Tomorrow night (Tuesday) the Orpheum, the house of photoplay, will give an exhibition of all feature pictures, including a Pathe Weekly, showing scenes from three Oregon towns. A startling part of the program will be the destruction of a large steel vessel by dynamite. An educational picture and a strongly dramatic story completes the bill. The house "where motion pictures look better," has demonstrated to the public that they are showing the best pictures the world affords and are making a decided success of feature nights such as is promised for tomorrow night.

BOLSINGER INJURED.

Well Known Young Man Meets with Serious Accident.
 Roscoe Bolsinger, a young man employed at the McDonald-Vaughan logging camp and well known in the county, was seriously hurt today while at work in the camp. He fell off a load of logs and fractured his skull. The injured man was brought to Mercy hospital where he is being attended. His injury is regarded as serious.
 Bolsinger is about 25 years old and is quite well known. He has been in the logging business for some years past and last summer was in charge of a part of the auto line from Allegany to Drain in which Jack McDonald was interested. He was a good auto driver as well as a first class logger and was a young man of good habits and had many friends in this locality. Bolsinger's home is in Douglas county where his relatives live.
