LOCAL NOTES

TIDES FOR NOVEMBER.

Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

Table with tide times for November. Columns include dates and times for high and low water.

WEATHER FORECAST.

OREGON—Fair tonight and Wednesday; warmer in the east; moderately high southerly winds on the coast.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD.

Table showing temperature record for 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Nov. 12, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer.

Enlarge Place.—Mirasoul Bros. are enlarging the National building on North Front street and remodeling and redecorating the interior.

Gets Contract.—The Pioneer Hardware Co. has secured the contract for the plumbing and heating installation of the new East-side school building.

Thimble Club.—The Thimble club will meet with Mrs. Robert L. Simpson of North Bend Friday afternoon instead of with Mrs. W. R. Simpson, as was announced in Saturday's calendar.

Will Entertain.—Mrs. W. E. Bailey will entertain the North Bend Altar Guild this evening at a special work meeting. The members and friends of the Guild are urgently requested to be present.

Defers Petition.—Judge Hall announces that the Cameron petition to open a saloon on South Inlet was not presented to the county commissioners last week. There is strong opposition to permitting saloons outside of police regulations.

School Census.—Judge John F. Hall, clerk of the Marshfield school district, this morning began taking the annual school census of Marshfield. He will complete his work this month. A marked gain over last year's census is expected.

Fine Cranberries.—J. H. Pinkerton, the well known North Inlet rancher, is in Marshfield today on business. He brought a sample box of his famous early black cranberries to The Times office to demonstrate the excellent quality of Coos county cranberries.

Is Located.—Melvin Kern of Coquille, whose whereabouts have not been known for some time, was located last week by Eric Bolt, when Willamette University met Uncle Sam's men at Vancouver in football. Mr. Kern is with the engineer corps and stationed at Vancouver.

Boy Injured.—Clarence, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holsner, who live on the Jacob Mattson ranch on North Inlet, was quite badly injured by a fall yesterday. He was brought to town for treatment, but his arm is so badly swollen that it could not be definitely determined whether it was broken.

Will Give Social.—The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church will entertain the other young people's societies of the city next Friday evening at the Pres-

A. J. Bailey, a railroad engineer, Batesville, Ark., says: "I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble so bad I was unable to work. I had such severe pains in my back I could hardly get up. I tried several physicians with no result, but Foley Kidney Pills have done wonders for me. I recommend them to all." For sale by Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., the Busy Corner.

bysterian church at an "odd" social. All members and friends of the different societies are cordially invited to come and are asked to bring their pennies.

Cement Shortage.—Owing to a shortage of cement, the paving at Myrtle Point is being delayed. This trouble, added to the bad weather, makes it difficult for Messrs. Morrissey and Small.

Writes of Myrtle Point.—The Sunday issue of the Oregonian contains an article by Addison Bennett regarding Myrtle Point. The article deals with the Coos Bay-Roseburg and Eastern railroad, the new logging road which is being built for the Smith-Powers Co. He states that Myrtle Point is not on the line of the Willamette Pacific, but writes of it as a fine place with a bright future. He tells in the article of the early connections of Binger Hermann with Myrtle Point.

AMONG THE SICK.

Stella Peterson of Eastside, who is ill at her home, is reported to be about the same. John McIsaac, the well known bag-pipe player and ardent Scotchman, who has been ill at Mercy hospital, is reported to be in a rather serious condition. He is not recuperating as rapidly as friends had hoped for.
